No credit shall be given under this subsection for taxes paid in another state if that state does not grant similar credit for substantially identical taxes paid in this state.

(6) No county clerk or other officer shall register or issue any license tags to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this tax, when the vehicle is then being offered for registration for the first time, unless the seller or his agent delivers to the county clerk or other officer a certified or photostat copy of the manufacturer's price label for passenger cars or a certified or photostat copy of the itemized billing to the customer in the case of all other motor vehicles; and the clerk shall attach the certified or photostat copy to the copy of the certificate of registration and ownership mailed to the department.

The board shall waive the continuing education requirement in cases of illness or undue hardship.*

*(2) Failure of any licensed veterinarian to secure his renewal certificate within sixty days after June 30, shall constitute sufficient cause for the board to revoke his license. The board may reinstate such license upon application of the holder if the application be received by the board within six months from the date that the delinquency occurred, and upon such terms as the board shall provide for reinstatement. When a license becomes delinquent on June 30 as provided in this section, the person holding such license shall not have or exercise any rights or privileges by reason thereof. Provided, however, the license of any veterinarian shall remain in full force and effect without renewal thereof and without the payment of any renewal fee during the time that the holder thereof is actively serving in any of the Armed Forces of the United States and for six months thereafter. The secretary-treasurer shall mail to each licensed veterinarian in this commonwealth a form of application on or before June 1 in each year. The failure of any veterinarian to obtain a renewal of his license on or before June 30 of each year shall operate, ipso facto, as a forfeiture of the license of such delinquent at the expiration of sixty (60) days after such delinquency until such licensee obtains a reinstatement of the license upon application to the board within six (6) months after such delinquency. The board may reinstate such license upon application of the holder if the application be received by the board within six (6) months from the date the delinquency occurred, upon payment to the board of a reinstatement and renewal fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00). When a license has become forfeited as provided in this section, and during the period of such forfeiture, the person holding such license shall not have or exercise any rights or privileges by reason thereof. There will be an annual fee, not to exceed $15.00, for each animal technician registered by the board. Failure to pay the annual renewal fee shall result in a loss of registration by the animal technician. No veterinarian practicing in this state shall utilize the services of an animal technician without prior approval of the board. Whenever it appears to the board that an animal technician is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of an approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of KRS 321.360.

(2) No veterinarian who uses the services of an animal technician in accordance with the terms of any permission granted by the board shall be considered as aiding and abetting any unlicensed person to practice veterinary medicine within the meaning of KRS 321.430. A candidate who is opposed but receives no contribution or makes no expenditures shall so report on the dates designated in this section, and file all reports required by KRS 121.015 and 121.100 to 121.200.

[(7) Copies of those reports required to be filed by or on behalf of a candidate for the Congress of the United States pursuant to Title III of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 shall be filed with the Registry on the dates prescribed in said Act in lieu of the reporting requirements of this section, subject to the penalties set forth in KRS 121.991.]

Consideration to the division of said election precincts should be based on the anticipated growth factor within the specified boundaries; however, the county board of elections shall not be prohibited from dividing election precincts in excess of seven hundred (700) registered voters or less than seven hundred (700) registered voters if they elect to do so. No election precinct shall be created, divided, abolished or consolidated or the boundaries therein changed* [, but changes shall be made no] later than fifty-five (55) days prior to any primary or general election to comply with the provisions of this section. The county board of elections shall designate [, and shall establish] the name or number and the boundaries of the election precincts [, except that no precinct shall contain portions of more than one (1) legislative district within its boundaries]. Appeals may be taken to the Court of Appeals by either party.

SR 23, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION requesting Congress to adopt a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to require, with certain exceptions, that the total of all federal appropriations shall not exceed the total of all estimated federal revenues in any fiscal year.

WHEREAS, with each passing year this nation becomes more deeply in debt as its expenditures grossly and repeatedly exceed available revenues, so that the public debt now exceeds hundreds of billions of dollars; and

WHEREAS, the annual federal budget continually demonstrates an unwillingness or inability of both the legislative and executive branches of the federal government to curtail spending to conform to available revenues; and

WHEREAS, unified budgets do not reflect actual spending because of the exclusion of special outlays which are not included in the budget nor subject to the legal public debt limit; and

WHEREAS, knowledgeable planning, fiscal prudence, and plain good sense require that the budget reflect all federal spending and be in balance; and

WHEREAS, fiscal irresponsibility at the federal level, with the inflation which results from this policy, is the greatest threat which faces our nation, and constitutional restraint is necessary to bring the fiscal discipline needed to restore financial responsibility; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States provides that amendments to the constitution may be proposed by the Congress whenever two-thirds of both houses deem it necessary, and we believe such action is vital;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. SECTION 1. KRS CHAPTER 26A IS ESTABLISHED AND A NEW SECTION THEREOF CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) When collection of a judgment for the payment of money has been stayed as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure, there shall be no damages assessed on the first appeal as a matter of right contemplated by Section 115 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

imposed against the appellant in the event the judgment is affirmed or the appeal is dismissed after having been docketed in an appellate court.

(3) Similar damages of ten percent (10%) shall be imposed when a petition for writ of certiorari, petition for rehearing, or other petition which stays collection of a judgment for the payment of money is denied by an appellate court under circumstances not constituting a first appeal under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) No additional penalty shall be imposed upon a party as a consequence of a review subsequent to a petition or a second appeal.

All interested parties must have due notice of said hearing.

Section 3. KRS 21.130 is hereby repealed.

HB 587, AN ACT relating to juvenile courts.

Section 1. KRS 208.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The law relating to the persons by whom and the circumstances under which a person may be arrested for a public offense shall be applicable to children, but the taking of a child into custody under such law shall not be termed an arrest, and a child after having been so taken into custody shall be dealt with as provided in KRS 208.010 to 208.540. The law relating to bail shall not be applicable to children detained in accordance with KRS 208.010 to 208.540.

(2) When a child is taken into custody by a person other than a peace officer, on a charge of committing a public offense, such person shall as soon as possible place the child in the custody of a peace officer.

(3) When a peace officer has taken or received a child into custody on a charge of committing an offense, under the provisions of KRS 208.020 (1) (a), (b), or (c) the officer shall immediately notify the parent, or if the parent is not available, then a relative, guardian, or custodian of the child, that the child has been detained, give an account of specific charges against the child, including the specific statute alleged to have been violated, and the reasons for the detention, and state the time and place of the detention hearing. Unless the nature of the offense or other circumstances are such as to indicate the necessity of keeping the child in secure custody, the officer shall release the child to the custody of his parent or other responsible adult upon the written promise, signed by such person, to bring the child to the court at a stated time or at such time as the court may direct. The written promise, accompanied by a written report by the officer, shall be submitted to the court forthwith. If the person fails to produce the child as agreed or upon notice from the court, a petition, warrant, or both may be issued for the apprehension of the person or of the child, or both.

(4) If the child is not released as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the child shall be taken without delay to the court or to the detention facility provided for under KRS 208.130. If taken to the detention facility, the officer shall as soon as possible thereafter make a written report to the court, stating the fact of such detention, the offense charged, and the reason why the child was not released to the parent or other responsible adult. Pending further disposition of the case, the court may release the child to the custody of the parent or other responsible person or may continue to hold the child in detention. [When a child is detained in any way or for any reason, there shall be a hearing held within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sunday, of the commencement of detention to determine whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the detained child committed the offense. The Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof, and if it shall fail to establish such reasonable cause, the child shall be released and the complaint dismissed. If such reasonable cause is established, the court shall then determine whether or not the circumstances surrounding the child are such as to endanger its safety or welfare or that of the community. The Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof and it shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. Upon such showing of proof and order of the court, the child shall be detained until such time as the court may withdraw the order for detention or make a speedy disposition in the child's best interest. Unless such a hearing is held and the necessity for detention properly established, the child shall be released to the custody of its parent or other responsible person pending further disposition of the case. A child shall have a right to counsel at any hearing determining its right to freedom pending the disposition of its case, and its parents or other responsible person shall have a right to attend the hearing if such attendance will not unnecessarily delay the hearing. Any person aggrieved by a proceeding under this subsection may proceed by habeas corpus to the circuit court.]

(5) When a child is detained for the alleged commission of a public offense as defined in KRS 208.020 (1) (a), a hearing shall be held as soon as possible, but not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of Sunday and legal holidays, as defined in KRS 2.015 of the commencement of detention. At the detention hearing, the juvenile shall possess and be advised of his right to notice of the charge, the right of privilege against self-incrimination, and the right to counsel. At the hearing, heresay evidence shall be admissible. The hearing shall address the following issues:

(a) If there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the accused child has committed that offense, the Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof; and

(b) What degree of control and security is necessary to assure the safety of the child, protection of the community and the appearance of the child in court.

(6) In determining the degree of control and security, the court shall consider but is not limited to:

1. The seriousness of the alleged offense;

2. The likelihood that the child would commit an offense dangerous to himself or the community pending disposition of the original offense;

3. The child's prior record of court appearances, if any;

4. Whether the child is being held for another jurisdiction.

(7) If, after completion of the detention hearing, the court is of the opinion to order detention, the order shall articulate the reasons for detention and the nature of the detention based upon the conclusions of the detention hearing.

(8) When a child is detained in any manner for the alleged commission of an offense as defined in KRS 208.020 (1) (b) or (c), other than a public offense, a hearing shall be held as soon as possible, but not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of Sunday and legal holidays, as defined in KRS 2.015 of the commencement of detention. At the detention hearing, the juvenile shall possess and be advised of his right to notice of the charge, the right of privilege against self-incrimination, and the right to counsel. At the hearing, hearsay evidence shall be admissible. The hearing shall address the following issues:

(a) If there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the accused child has committed that offense, the Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof; and

(b) What degree of control and security is necessary to assure the safety of the child, the protection of the community, and the appearance of the child in court.

(9) In determining the degree of control and security, the court shall consider but is not limited to:

1. The availability of a parent, guardian, or responsible adult to assure the control and safety of the child;

2. The availability of court-appointed supervisory or probation personnel to assure the control and safety of the child;

3. The availability of foster care or shelter care facilities that would assure the control and safety of the child;

4. The availability of secure detention that would provide for the separation of the child both physically and communicatively from adult offenders and other juvenile offenders accused of committing public offenses as defined in KRS 208.020 (1) (a).

(10) Secure detention for status offenders is to be used in only those cases when the court is of the opinion that other alternatives are either not available or cannot provide the degree of control and safety necessary to assure the safety and security of the child. If, after the completion of the detention hearing, the court is of the opinion to order detention, the order shall articulate the reason for detention and the nature of the detention based upon the conclusions of the detention hearing.

(11) Unless such a hearing is held and the necessity for detention properly established, the child shall be released to the custody of his parent or other responsible person pending further disposition of the case. A child shall have the right to counsel at any hearing determining his right to freedom pending the disposition of his case, and his parents or other responsible person shall have a right to attend the hearing if such attendance will not unnecessarily delay the hearing. Any person aggrieved by a proceeding under this subsection may proceed by habeas corpus to the circuit court.

(12)[(5)] Whether the child is released before or after a hearing, or is detained as the result of such a hearing, the child and his parents, relative, guardian, or custodian shall be given written notice of the time and place of the adjudicative hearing concerning the child and an account of the specific charges against the child, including the specific statute alleged to have been violated. Such notice shall be given at least seventy-two (72)

[forty-eight] hours prior to the initial hearing on the case.

Section 2. KRS 208.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If, prior to an adjudicatory hearing in the juvenile court, a child who has allegedly committed a felony offense, was 16 years of age or older, at the time of the alleged commission of the offense, or was less than sixteen (16) years old, but the offense was a class A felony or a capital offense, and the prosecution is of the opinion that the child be tried and disposed of under the regular law governing crimes, a bifurcated hearing shall be held to determine if the case merits transfer to the circuit court in which the alleged offense was committed. The hearing held to consider the transfer of a juvenile to the circuit court shall address two major considerations.

(a) If there is probable cause to believe that an offense was committed and that the accused child had committed that offense, and

(b) If it is in the best interest of the child or the community to order such a transfer, based upon but not limited to such criteria as:

1. The seriousness of the alleged offense to the community;

2. Whether the alleged offense was against person or property (greater weight being given to offenses against person);

3. The sophistication and maturity of a child as determined by considerations of his home, environmental situation, emotional attitude and pattern of living;

4. The child's prior record, including prior contacts with the juvenile justice system;

5. The prospects for adequate protection of the public and the likelihood of reasonable rehabilitation of the child by the use of procedures, services, and facilities currently available to the juvenile justice system.

(2) If, after completion of the transfer hearing, the court is of the opinion to order such transfer, the order of transfer shall articulate the reasons for such transfer based upon the conclusions of the transfer hearing.

[(1) If, during the course of any proceeding in the juvenile court, it appears to the court that there is reasonable cause to believe that a child before the court has committed a felony, and at the time of commission of the offense the child was sixteen (16) years of age or older, or was less than sixteen (16) years of age but the offense was a class A felony or a capital offense, and the court is of the opinion that the best interests of the child and of the public require that the child be tried and disposed of under the regular law governing crimes, the court in its discretion may make an order transferring the case to the circuit court of the county in which the offense was committed. No child shall be considered a felon for any purpose until transferred to, tried and convicted of a felony by a circuit court.]

(3) [(2)] When the juvenile court so transfers a case to the circuit court:

(a) If a grand jury considers the case and is satisfied there is sufficient evidence to indict the child, it shall be instructed that it may either return an indictment or [may] return a written report to the circuit court recommending that the child be transferred back to the juvenile court [committed to the department]. If the court believes that such a transfer [commitment] would be proper, it may order the transfer back to juvenile court [child committed to the department].

(b) If the indictment is returned, the child shall be tried as an adult defendant, or the court in its discretion may order the case transferred back to the juvenile court. [If, during any stage of the trial in the circuit court, the child or his parent or guardian so requests, the judge in his discretion may stop the trial and commit the child to the department.]

(c) [If neither of the procedures specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection are employed, the child shall be tried as any other defendant.

(d)] While under the jurisdiction of the circuit court, the child shall be subject to bail the same as an adult.

[(e) Any commitment to the department under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection shall be for an indeterminate period not to exceed the age of twenty-one (21).]

Section 3. KRS 208.180 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a child tried on a felony charge in the circuit court, under paragraph (b) [(c)] of subsection (3) [(2)] of KRS 208.170 is convicted of a felony, and sentenced to imprisonment, he shall be committed to the custody of the Bureau of Corrections [penitentiary], except that in the case of a child who is under eighteen (18) years of age at the time of sentencing, the court in its discretion may commit the child to the department. In such case, if the period of the sentence imposed by the verdict would expire before the child reaches twenty-one (21) years of age, the commitment to the department shall be for an indeterminate period not to exceed the age of twenty-one (21). If the period of the sentence imposed by the verdict would extend beyond the age of twenty-one (21), the commitment shall be to the department until the age of twenty-one (21), and thereafter to the custody of the Bureau of Corrections [penitentiary]. In the latter case, if the child is out on parole at the time he becomes twenty-one (21), he may be transferred to supervision of adult parole officers.

However, if the parole is revoked he shall be returned to the custody of the Bureau of Corrections [penitentiary] and shall thereafter be dealt with the same as an adult sentenced to the custody of the Bureau of Corrections [penitentiary].

(2) If a child tried on a felony charge in the circuit court, under paragraph (b)[(c)] of subsection (3) [(2)] of KRS 208.170 is convicted of a misdemeanor, and sentenced to imprisonment, he shall be committed to the county jail, except that in the case of a child who is under eighteen (18) years of age at the time of sentencing, the court in its discretion may commit the child to the department, for an indeterminate period not to exceed the age of twenty-one (21) years.

Section 4. KRS 208.230 is amended to read as follows:

In support of any order or decree, the juvenile court may require the parents or other person having custody of a child, or any other person who has been found by the court to be encouraging, causing or contributing to the acts or conditions which bring the child within the purview of KRS 208.020 to do any acts required by law or to desist from doing any acts forbidden by law, when the court deems such requirement necessary for the welfare of the child. In case of failure to comply with such requirement, the court may proceed against such persons for contempt of court. The court may order the appearance of one or more parent, guardians, or custodians of the child at any court hearing involving the child.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 208 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) When a juvenile who is at least fourteen (14) years of age has been adjudicated delinquent in the commission of an offense classified as a misdemeanor or violation, excluding traffic violations as provided in KRS 208.020, the court in its discretion may order:

(a) Participation in a community services work program. The work program shall be of a constructive nature designed to promote the rehabilitation of the child. It shall be appropriate to the age level and physical ability of the child and shall be combined with the counseling from a probation officer or other responsible person. The work program shall not be scheduled during such times that would interfere with the child's education. The assignments to the community services work program shall be made to a governmental, non-profit community organization, or to a victim of the offense, for a specified period of time not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) hours for a juvenile adjudicated delinquent in the commission of a class A misdemeanor, not to exceed eighty (80) hours for a juvenile adjudicated delinquent in the commission of a class B misdemeanor, and not to exceed forty (40) hours for a juvenile adjudicated delinquent in the commission of an offense classified as a violation under the criminal code.

(b) The imposition of a fine for a juvenile found to have committed a misdemeanor or violation based upon the determination that this disposition is in the best interest of the child or an aid to rehabilitation. Fines shall be levied consistent with the schedule set out below when a juvenile has been found delinquent in the commission of a misdemeanant offense.

|---|---|
| Class A Misdemeanor | Maximum fine $150 |
| Class B Misdemeanor | Maximum fine $ 75 |
| Violations | Maximum fine $ 45 |

When a juvenile's disposition is to pay a fine, the court may provide for payment to be made within a specified period of time or in specified installments. If no such provision is made a part of the disposition, the fine shall be payable forthwith.

Section 18. KRS 23.045 is amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the Supreme Court [of Appeals] to establish the terms and dates for holding court in each of the circuit courts of this commonwealth. Before fixing such terms and dates of any circuit court, the Supreme Court [of Appeals] shall consult the circuit judge of the particular court under consideration.

Section 19. KRS 23.055 is amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the Supreme Court [of Appeals] to assist and supervise the circuit courts of this commonwealth in all matters pertaining to the efficient handling of the dockets in the various circuit courts. It shall be the duty of the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals] to periodically ascertain the status of the docket in each of the circuit courts, and he may appoint a special judge to dispose of cases in any circuit court when, in his discretion, he finds there are too many undisposed of cases on the docket.

Section 20. KRS 23.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of court in any judicial circuit [district] may be extended if the business requires, but not so as to interfere with any other term in the judicial circuit [district]. Whenever it is necessary to transact the business, a special term may be held in any county, either by an order entered of record at the last preceding regular term in the county or by notice signed by the judge and posted at the courthouse door of the county for ten (10) days before the special term is held. The order or notice shall specify the day when the special term is to commence, and shall give the style of each case to be tried, or in which any motion, order or judgment is to be made or entered at the special term, and no other case shall be tried, or motion, order or judgment entered therein, unless by agreement of the parties, but if all the cases on the docket are to be before the court at the special term, a statement to that effect is sufficient without copying the entire docket in the order or notice.

(2) Whenever, in the opinion of the regular judge, there is such a congestion of the civil or criminal docket in the court that it cannot be disposed of by the court at its regular terms, or at a special term called and held under subsection (1) of this section, the judge may, by order entered of record at a regular term of the court, call a special term of court to be held while a court is, or may be, in session in the same or some other county in the judicial circuit [district]. Every order calling such special term shall specify the day when the special term shall commence and the time it shall continue, and shall give the style of each case to be tried, or in which any motion, order or judgment may be made or entered at the special term, and no other case shall be tried, motion made, or order or judgment entered therein in any case, even by agreement of the parties, except upon direction of the chief justice as provided by KRS 23.120, but if all the cases on the docket are to be before the court at such special term, a statement to that effect is sufficient without copying the entire docket in the order.

(3) Whenever, in the opinion of the regular judge, he shall deem it more efficient and expeditious to the conduct of the business of the court, the regular judge may, by an order entered during the regular term, extend the said term of court to conclude at any time to and including the date for the convention of the next regular term of court in that county, even though terms of court may be in session in another county or counties of the same judicial circuit [district], either in regular term or as extended under this section; but in the assignment of cases, preference shall be given to the court which is in regular term. During this term, or as extended, all matters on the civil and criminal dockets shall be before the court, and the grand and petit juries selected for the regular term may be recessed and reconvened at any time during the term, or the extension of the term. The said order providing for the said extension may provide that all terms occurring after the order, and until such time as the order is revoked, shall be so extended, and a copy of the order shall be furnished by the clerk of the court to the executive department for finance and administration, the clerk of the Supreme Court [ofAppeals], and to the administrative director of the Courts [of Appeals]. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring any judge to so extend the regular terms of court in the judicial circuit [district], but as permissive and enabling.

Section 21. KRS 23.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every regular circuit judge shall call a special term of his court, when, at the close of any regular term, ten (10) or more cases remain on the docket undisposed of and not called for trial, nor under submission. Upon the failure of the judge so to do, and upon manifestation of that fact by any of the parties litigant in such cases or by counsel of record, by motion and notice in writing to the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals], the chief justice may call a special term of the court, for the purpose of trying such cases or hearing any motion or pleading in relation thereto.

(2) The order of the chief justice calling a special term shall specify the court in which the special term shall be held, when it is to commence, and the style of each case to be tried, or in which any motion, pleading, order or judgment is to be filed, made or entered at the special term, but if all the cases on the docket are to be before the court at the special term, a statement to that effect is sufficient without copying the entire docket in the order. When a special term is ordered by the chief justice, the moving party shall serve a copy of the order upon all parties litigant affected thereby or upon counsel of record in each case specified in the order, or in lieu of such notice the chief justice may direct that notice of the special term be given by posting a copy of the order on the door of the courthouse where the special term is to be held, within a reasonable time previous thereto.

Section 22. KRS 23.125 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each circuit court shall establish, by rule, for that court, a regular day or days certain at which time motions requiring notice and hearing may be heard and disposed of, and other court business dispatched; Provided, however, That a minimum of at least one (1) day each month shall be so established for each circuit court and held in the county wherein that court sits, unless the number of counties in the judicial circuit [district] exceeds four (4). If the number of counties in the judicial circuit [district] is five (5), a minimum of at least one (1) motion day each five (5) weeks shall be so established and held, and if the number of counties in the judicial circuit [district] is six (6), a minimum of at least one (1) motion day each six (6) weeks shall be so established and held.

(2) The motion day herein required and established shall take precedence over any assigned juridical day, and if the motion day established by any court be in conflict with the assigned juridical day of another court within the same judicial circuit [district], the motion day shall take preference.

Section 23. KRS 23.150 is amended to read as follows:

The judge of each circuit court, other than those of continuous session, may make or direct in vacation or term time at his chambers, at the circuit clerk's office or at any other place in any county in the judicial circuit [district], any order, rule, or judgment in any proceeding on the criminal docket, upon reasonable notice to the parties, except where trial by jury is called for or ordered by the court. In civil actions the judge may act out of term time as authorized by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 24. KRS 23.230 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When, from any cause, a judge of any circuit court, whether of continuous session or terms, fails to attend, or being in attendance cannot properly preside in an action pending in the court, or if a vacancy occurs or exists in the office of circuit judge, or if either party files with the clerk of the court his affidavit that the judge will not afford him a fair and impartial trial, or will not impartially decide an application for a change of venue, the parties, by agreement, may elect one (1) of the attorneys of the court to preside on the trial or hear the application, or hold the court for the occasion. If any party to the action is a nonresident defendant, who has not entered his appearance nor been summoned, or is an infant defendant, the attorney appointed to defend for such nonresident or the guardian ad litem for such infant may agree with the other parties to the action upon an attorney having all the qualifications of a circuit judge to try the action. Any special judge so selected shall have all the powers and be subject to all the responsibilities of the regular judge of the court.

(2) If the parties cannot agree upon an attorney as provided in subsection (1) of this section or if the regular judge determines that sufficient time is not available in which to ascertain if the parties can agree upon a member of the Bar to act as judge, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, or if he determines that it is impracticable to attempt to obtain agreement because of the large number of parties to the action to be tried, or for any reason, the clerk shall at once certify the facts to the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals], who shall immediately designate a regular circuit judge, if one (1) be available, and, if not, an attorney having the qualifications of a judge, to hold the court or try the action.

Section 25. KRS 23.260 is amended to read as follows:

When the regular judge of the court cannot attend at a special term called under KRS 23.110, the clerk shall forward a copy of the order calling the term to the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals], who shall designate some other regular circuit judge not then engaged in the trial of cases, or if none is available at that time, an attorney having the qualifications of a regular circuit judge, to hold the special term. The special judge so designated shall have all the powers of the regular judge. When the chief justice calls a special term under KRS 23.120, he may designate a special judge in like manner.

Section 26. KRS 23.270 is amended to read as follows:

Any circuit judge who refuses to serve or to preside when requested to do so by the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals], unless he is prevented by cause beyond his control or is disqualified from presiding, may be cited to appear before the Supreme Court [of Appeals], or if in vacation before any justice thereof, for contempt. The attorney general shall appear before the Supreme Court [of Appeals], or if in vacation before any justice thereof, in support of the rule or citation issued. If upon a hearing or in response to the rule it appears that the circuit judge so offending has not sufficient cause for his refusal to act as special judge, he shall be dealt with in such manner as the court sees fit, and fined for the contempt in such sum as the court may determine.

Section 27. KRS 23.280 is amended to read as follows:

The clerk of each circuit court, other than those of continuous session, shall notify the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals] in writing immediately upon the final adjournment of each regular or special term of his court, and also of the time when the next regular or special term will begin. The chief justice shall keep a roster of the circuit judges showing when each of them is not engaged in holding a regular or special term of court in his judicial circuit [district], and the chief justice in designating the circuit judges to hold any special term or to try any case at such term, shall do so in such manner as to divide the duties as special judges as equally as possible among all the regular circuit judges, exclusive of judges of courts of continuous session.

Section 28. KRS 23.290 is amended to read as follows:

Every special judge designated under KRS 23.230 shall be paid for his services such sum per day as would be the equivalent of the rate of compensation received from the state treasury by the regular judge if computed on a daily basis. Claims for such compensation and expenses shall be allowed and paid as provided by law for the payment of other claims against the commonwealth, after approval by the administrative director of the Court*s* [of Appeals].

Section 29. KRS 24.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In counties constituting separate judicial circuits [districts] and having a population of less than 150,000, the circuit court shall be in continuous session, and shall be held in a city of the second class if there is one (1) in the county, but the judge shall hold part of the sessions at the county seat of the county if it is not such city, such part to be not less than two (2) weeks, if the business of the court requires, in February, June and October of each year.

(2) All suits in which the defendants or the greater number of defendants reside nearer the county seat than the city of the second class shall be docketed and tried at the county seat, and the process in such cases shall so indicate. The plaintiff in any action against a foreign corporation, a nonresident of the county, or a common carrier whose lines extend into any part of the county, may select at which place he will have the case docketed and tried, and the process shall be made by the clerk to so indicate. By consent, parties may have their case tried at either place.

(3) Provided, however, if the county seat city is contiguous to the second-class city and the distance between the courthouse in the county seat city and the city hall in the second-class city, by the shortest generally traveled route is not more than ten (10) miles then the courthouse may be in either city and all circuit courts and grand juries shall be held and all cases civil and criminal tried at the courthouse; Provided further, That nothing herein shall prevent the establishment and maintenance of branch offices of the circuit clerk and the county court clerk in the second-class city.

Section 30. KRS 24.046 is amended to read as follows:

The Second, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Seventeenth, Thirty-second, and Thirty-fifth Judicial Circuit*s* [Court Districts] shall have two (2) judges each, and the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit [Court District] shall have four (4) judges.

Section 66. KRS 66.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No county may contract an indebtedness which, together with all other indebtedness of the county, is in excess of one-half of one per cent (.5%) of the value of the taxable property therein, as determined by the next preceding complete assessment, and issue valid bonds therefor, without having first secured the written approval of the state local finance officer. Any other bonds to be issued or reissued by any county may be submitted for approval as hereinafter provided. When the fiscal court of any county has petitioned the state local finance officer under KRS 66.320 for assistance in formulating a plan for reorganizing its debt structure, or has received the approval of any issue or reissue of county bonds voluntarily as provided in this section, all bonds thereafter issued or reissued by the county must be approved as provided in this section.

(2) Without the approval of the state local finance officer a county may not lease, as lessee, a building or public facility that has been or is to be financed at the county's request or on its behalf through the issuance of bonds by another public body or by a nonprofit corporation serving as an agency and instrumentality of the county for that purpose, unless such bonds if issued by the county itself as its own general obligations, would be exempt under the provisions of subsection (1). If such approval is required, the state local finance officer shall hold a hearing for the purpose of considering the terms of the lease upon the same basis as is provided under subsection (3), and interested parties shall have the same right of appeal as is therein provided. This subsection does not apply to leases entered into before July 1, 1964, nor to renewals thereafter of leases entered into before that date, nor to bonds referred to in this subsection if the same shall have been sold prior to that date, whether or not actually delivered to the purchaser or purchasers thereof before that date.

(3) The state local finance officer shall hold a hearing for the purpose of determining whether any issue or reissue of bonds submitted to him for approval should be approved or disapproved. The state local finance officer shall withhold his approval if he believes the financial condition and prospects of the county do not warrant a reasonable expectation that interest and principal maturities can be met when due without seriously restricting other expenditures of the county; if, in his discretion, the issue or reissue of bonds will not serve the best interests of both the county issuing same and a majority of its creditors; or if it appears that the bonds or the issuance thereof will be invalid. If the state local finance officer is petitioned by any county to approve the isssuance of bonds to refund outstanding county bonds, and if the state local finance officer is unable to find that the bonds sought to be refunded were in their entirety validly issued, he shall nevertheless find that bonds may be issued validly for the purpose of refunding the bonds, in equivalent or lesser par principal amount, provided that the interest rate to be borne by the refunding bonds shall be such as to make possible their liquidation within their life at no greater average annual cost to the county than would be required to liquidate, within the same number of years, the portion of the outstanding indebtedness found to be valid at the interest rate borne by it before refunding.

(4) The state local finance officer shall give at least two (2) weeks' notice of the hearing herein above required to the county judge of the county proposing to issue such bonds, and the county judge shall cause a copy of said notice to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424. In the case of bonds proposed to be issued for the purpose of refunding currently outstanding bonds, the state local finance officer shall in addition cause a notice of the hearing to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424 and at least ten (10) days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, prior to the date set for the hearing in a financial newspaper or periodical having general circulation among bondholders and bond dealers and said notice shall be paid for by the executive department for finance and administration out of its appropriation. Any party having a material interest shall have an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence. The state local finance officer shall make a record of the proceedings of such hearing and shall prepare a written decision approving or disapproving the issuance of the proposed bonds. Any interested party or taxpayer may within fifteen (15) days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, appeal to the commission from the decision of the state local finance officer. The commission, upon the basis of the record prepared by the state local finance officer, and of any additional evidence which may be introduced, shall pass upon the decision of the state local finance officer.

(5) Within thirty (30) days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, after a decision by the commission any interested party or taxpayer of the county, upon filing bond for costs, may appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court or, in the case only of bonds proposed to be issued for the purpose of funding floating indebtedness, to either the Franklin Circuit Court or to the circuit court of the county proposing to issue said bonds. Appeal shall be taken by filing with the clerk of the court a copy of the record of the proceedings and decision of the state local finance officer and the decision of the commission. The commission, the fiscal court, the taxpayers of the county, and, in the case of funding or refunding bonds, the creditors whose claims or bonds are proposed to be funded or refunded, shall be made parties to the appeal. Summons shall be served and class representatives designated as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure. To facilitate adjudication the state local finance officer is hereby required, on payment of a reasonable fee therefor to be fixed by the state local finance officer, to supply a certified copy of such records to any party. The case shall be advanced on the docket of the circuit court and shall be heard and decided as in the case of a declaratory judgment, except that all findings of fact of the state local finance officer and of the commission shall be final if supported by any substantial evidence, provided, however, that in the case only where the question of the validity of the indebtedness proposed to be funded or refunded is in issue, additional evidence relating to the validity of such indebtedness may be presented.

(6) An appeal may be taken from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The appeal may be advanced for immediate hearing and submission.]

(7) In case no appeal is taken from the approval of a bond issue by the state local finance officer or the commission as provided in this section, said decision as to the legality of such bonds shall be res adjudicata in any subsequent case or cases raising such question of legality. When bonds are approved as provided in this section, they shall not be required to be approved as provided in KRS 66.210 and 66.220.

(8) Record of the approval of bonds as provided in this section shall be made in the minutes of the next meeting of the fiscal court of the county issuing the bonds so approved, and copies of all decisions of the state local finance officer and of the commission shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Section 67. KRS 67.280 is amended to read as follows:

Where the two (2) old counties were in the same representative, senatorial, judicial circuit [court, judicial], congressional, or railroad commissioner district or districts, the new county shall remain in the same district or districts. The stenographer may receive an annual salary to be fixed and paid by the fiscal court out of the county levy in equal monthly instalments. In judicial circuits [districts] which contain one or more other counties in addition to the county containing a city of the second class, each county shall pay a proportionate part of the salary of the stenographer, in proportion to the amount of work attributable to each county, the proportion being certified by the commonwealth's attorney; and provided same is approved by the fiscal courts of such counties.

(1) A petition for the establishment of a fire protection district or a volunteer fire department district signed by at least fifty-one per cent (51%) of the voters, as determined by the registration books covering the territory, and living within the boundary of the proposed fire protection district or volunteer fire department district may be filed in the circuit court clerk's office of the county in which the greater part of the territory is located, not less than twenty (20) days before the commencement of the next regular term of court, and in courts of continuous sessions not less than twenty (20) days before the first day of the next calendar month. The petition shall set out the metes and bounds of the proposed fire protection district or volunteer fire department district, the number of voters thereof, and other facts thought proper. Notice of the filing of the petition and the object thereof shall be given by publication pursuant to KRS chapter 424, and by notices posted for at least ten (10) days before the commencement of the court, one (1) at the courthouse door, and three (3) others at public places within the bounds of the proposed fire protection district or volunteer fire department district. On the second day of the term, and in courts of continuous session on the day provided for in the notice, the court shall, if the proper notice has been given and publication made, and no written objection, remonstrance or defense is interposed, enter a judgment establishing a fire protection district or a volunteer fire department district in accordance with the prayer of the petition, naming it, and describing the boundary thereof by metes and bounds. Defense, objection or remonstrance may be made to the petition by any inhabitant of the proposed fire protection district or a volunteer fire department district, or any person owning property therein, and if defense, objection or remonstrance is made, the court shall hear and determine the same, and render a judgment establishing, or refusing to establish the fire protection district or volunteer fire department district as may seem proper. The pleadings and practice as herein provided shall be the same as in equity cases, as nearly as may be practicable, with right of appeal to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The appeal shall be advanced upon the docket.]

(2) In no event shall any fire protection district or any volunteer fire department district include within its metes and bounds any territory at that time or thereafter included in any city of this commonwealth which maintains a "regular fire department," and which city has paid its proportionate share of the indebtedness incurred while such territory was a part of that district.

Section 78. KRS 75.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The territorial limits of an established fire protection district, or a volunteer fire department district, as established under KRS 75.010 to 75.080, may be enlarged or diminished in the following way: The trustees of the fire protection district or of the volunteer fire department districts shall file a petition in the circuit court clerk's office of the county in which that district and the territory to be annexed or stricken off, or the greater part thereof, is located, not less than thirty (30) days before the next regular term of said court and in courts of continuous session not less than thirty (30) days before the first day of a succeeding calendar month, describing the territory to be annexed or stricken and setting out the reasons therefor. Notice of the filing of such petition shall be given by publication and posting in the same manner as provided for in KRS 75.010. On the second day of the term, and in courts of continuous session on the day fixed in the notice, the court shall, if the proper notice has been given, and the publication made, and no written defense, objection or remonstrance is interposed enter a judgment annexing or striking off the territory described in the petition. Fifty-one per cent (51%) or more of the freeholders of the territory sought to be annexed or stricken off may, at any time before the next regular term of said court, and courts of continuous session at any time before the date fixed in the notice, remonstrate in writing, filed in the clerk's office, to the action proposed. If such written remonstrance be filed said clerk shall promptly give notice to the trustees of the fire protection district, or of the volunteer fire department district, and the court shall promptly set the case for a hearing. If upon such hearing, the court finds from the evidence that a failure to annex or strike off such territory will materially retard the functioning of the fire protection district or the volunteer fire department district and materially affect adversely the owners and the inhabitants of the territory sought to be annexed or stricken off, it shall enter a judgment, granting the annexation or striking off the territory. In the latter event, no new petition to annex or strike off all or any part of the same territory shall be entertained for a period of two (2) years. The pleadings and practice herein provided shall be the same as in equity cases, as nearly as may be practicable, with right of appeal to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. [Such appeal shall be advanced upon the docket.]

(2) The property in any territory annexed to a fire protection district or to a volunteer fire department district shall not be liable to taxation for the purpose of paying any indebtedness incurred by the fire protection district or the volunteer fire department district prior to the date of the annexation of such territory, except such indebtedness as represents balance owing on purchase price of fire fighting equipment. The property in any territory stricken off from a fire protection district or a volunteer fire department district by the incorporation of or annexation by a city of this commonwealth shall not be relieved of liability of such taxes as may be necessary to pay its proportionate share of the indebtedness incurred while such territory was a part of that district. Territories stricken by action of the court under the provisions of subsection (1) shall be relieved of liability for all indebtedness incurred by the fire protection district or the volunteer fire department district.

(3) Any city that maintains a "regular fire department," and has either by incorporation or annexation caused property to be stricken from a fire protection district or a volunteer fire department district, may assume the liability of such taxes as may be necessary to pay the proportional share of the indebtedness incurred while such territory was a part of said district.

Section 79. KRS 76.175 is amended to read as follows:

The board of the district may annex any unincorporated area in the county, or any area of the county containing all or any part of a city of the fifth or sixth class, whether contiguous or noncontiguous, to the district by making a preliminary order describing the area to be annexed and causing said order to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424. The notice so published shall state that objections in writing to the proposed annexation may be filed with the district within thirty (30) days of the date of said notice. The district shall examine and hear all such complaints. It may modify or amend the areas proposed to be annexed; and it shall make a final order, within sixty (60) days of the date of publication of said notice, describing the area or areas to be annexed and shall cause the same to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424. Within sixty (60) days after final publication of an order made pursuant to this section, any freeholder of land within the area or areas proposed to be annexed may appeal such final order to the circuit court for the county in which the district is located. All matters appealed shall be tried as an equitable action. Decisions of the circuit court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals [and such appeals shall be advanced on the appellate court's docket].

Section 80. KRS 76.247 is amended to read as follows:

Within sixty (60) days after the final publication of an order made under KRS 76.241 which dismisses a petition for creation of a construction subdistrict or within sixty (60) days after final publication of an order made under KRS 76.246 any person who would have been qualified to sign a petition described in KRS 76.241 may appeal such order of the district to the circuit court for the county in which the district is located. All matters appealed from shall be tried de novo and as an equitable action. Decisions of the circuit court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals [, and such appeals shall be advanced on the appellate court's docket].

Section 81. KRS 77.305 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person, being a party of record at such hearing, deeming himself aggrieved, including the air pollution control district, may maintain a special proceeding in equity in the circuit court of the county in which the district is located, to determine the reasonableness and legality of any action of the hearing board. Such special proceeding shall be entitled to priority on the docket of said equity court.

(2) Any person filing such a special proceeding after any decision of the hearing board shall be entitled to a trial de novo and an independent determination of the reasonableness and legality of such action in such court on all issues of law, facts, and mixed questions of law and facts and opinions therein involved. Jurisdiction is hereby given such circuit court to determine all questions and issues properly brought before it on such appeal.

(3) Appeals may be taken from the judgment of said circuit court to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. [All such appeals shall be entitled to priority on the docket of the Court of Appeals.]

Section 82. KRS 81.140 is amended to read as follows:

Any city of the second class may annex any unincorporated territory or reduce the boundaries of the city, in the same manner and under the same procedure as is provided in KRS 81.100 and 81.110 for annexation of unincorporated territory or reduction of boundaries by cities of the first class, with the following exceptions:

(1) The ordinance proposing annexation or reduction must be adopted by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the governing body of the city.

(2) The proceedings in the circuit court shall be tried according to the practice prescribed for the trial of equity cases, without the intervention of a jury.

(3) The number of freeholders whose remonstrance will control the question of annexation or reduction shall be fifty per cent (50%). No freeholder of the territory to be annexed or stricken off shall be considered to have remonstrated unless said freeholder be joined as a party plaintiff in the proceedings in the circuit court within ninety (90) days after the enactment of the ordinance proposing to annex or to strike off such territory.

(4) The circuit court may find and decree that only a part or parts of the territory proposed to be annexed shall be annexed, in which event the court shall specifically indicate and prescribe by metes and bounds, or other clear and specified description, the territory which the court finds should be annexed, and that part only shall be annexed.

[(5) The Court of Appeals shall advance said case on its docket and it shall take precedence over other cases.]

Section 83. KRS 84.140 is amended to read as follows:

The validity of ordinances of cities of the second class may be tried by writ of prohibition from the circuit court, with right of appeal to the Court of Appeals. [The circuit court shall give such cases precedence of all other cases.]

Section 84. KRS 96A.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The business, activities and affairs of a transit authority shall be managed, controlled and conducted by a board consisting of members appointed as follows:

(a) If the authority is established by one (1) city alone, or by a county alone, the members shall be eight (8) in number and shall be appointed by the appointing authority of such city or county;

(b) If the authority is established by joint proceedings of two (2) public bodies, the membership shall be eight (8) in number, four (4) of whom shall be appointed by the appointing authority of each of such public bodies;

(c) If an authority is created and established by joint proceedings of more than two (2) public bodies, the membership shall be eight (8) in number, plus one (1) additional member for each participating public body in excess of two (2), and the members thereof shall be appointed by the appointing authorities of the participating public bodies in such manner as may be set forth in the joint proceedings;

(d) If an authority is created and established, and subsequently one or more other public bodies are permitted to join therein, the membership of the board may be enlarged, with the concurrence and approval of the governing bodies of the public bodies theretofore participating, by not more than one (1) additional member for each additional public body so permitted to join the authority.

(2) No officer or employe of any public body represented in the creation, establishment, or enlargement of an authority shall be eligible for appointment to the board.

(3) After the effective date of the creation of an authority as provided in this chapter, the appointing authority or the appointing authorities, as the case may be, shall, in such manner as may be specified in the proceedings or joint proceedings, appoint at least two (2) members for terms of one (1) year, at least two (2) members for terms of two (2) years, at least two (2) members for terms of three (3) years, and the remaining number for terms of four (4) years; such terms to expire, in each instance, on June 30 and thereafter until a successor is appointed and accepts appointment. Upon the expiration of these initial staggered terms, successors shall be appointed by the respective appointing authorities, for terms of four (4) years, and until successors are appointed and accept their appointments. Members shall be eligible for reappointment.

(4) Any member of the board may be removed by his or her appointing authority for inefficiency, neglect of duty, malfeasance, conflict of interest, or want of mental or physical capacity to serve. Any appointing authority exercising the power to remove a member of the board shall submit to the board a written statement setting forth the reasons for removal. Notice shall be given to the member named in such statement; a hearing, if requested, shall be conducted within thirty (30) days before the members of the board who are not the subject of such removal proceedings; a record of the hearing shall be made by the secretary-treasurer of the board; and the member named in such removal notice may appeal any adverse decision, within ten (10) days after the rendering thereof, to the circuit court of any county which is served in whole or in part by the facilities of the transit authority, such appeal to be perfected by filing with the clerk of such court a copy of the removal proceedings certified by the secretary-treasurer of the board. The court, upon application of the member removed, may in its discretion order that the original record of the proceedings be filed with the clerk as the basis for such appeal. There shall be a [no] right of appeal to the Court of Appeals.

(5) Members of the board shall be allowed reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by them in the conduct of the affairs of the authority. Compensation may be paid to members of the board if so provided in the proceedings or joint proceedings, subject to such limitations as may be set forth therein.

Section 85. KRS 99.420 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the opinion of the agency, land or other property, right of way or easement over or through any property is needed by the agency in order to accomplish the purposes of KRS 99.330 to 99.510, it may by resolution authorize the purchase or condemnation in the name of the agency, of the land or other property, or right of way or easement necessary for the purpose, and may proceed to condemn and acquire the property in the following manner:

(1) The proceedings for condemnation shall be in the circuit court in the county in which the property sought to be condemned, or the greater part thereof, lies. The proceeding shall be in the name of the agency. Proceedings shall be commenced by filing a complaint against all persons having an interest in the property, describing the property, right of way (if any) or easement (if any) sought to be condemned, and the complaint shall include a request for the court, or a judge thereof if the court is in vacation, to appoint commissioners to assess the value which the owners thereof are entitled to receive. The owners of two (2) or more different properties sought to be condemned for the same purpose may be joined and proceeded against in a single action, but the lands and properties of each shall be separately described.

(2) Upon the filing of the complaint, the circuit court, or a judge thereof, shall, in writing, forthwith appoint three (3) disinterested, impartial citizens and residents of the county, who shall be sworn by the court, a judge thereof, or by any person authorized to administer oaths, to faithfully, fairly and impartially discharge their duties. The order appointing the commissioners shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court immediately upon its signing, and shall become part of the proceedings as of the date filed. In the event any person so appointed fails, refuses or becomes incapable of acting, the court, or judge thereof, shall forthwith appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. A majority of the commissioners appointed and qualified have the power to act and to make and sign the award and report.

(3) The commissioners shall immediately upon their appointment take the oath of office, and shall enter in and upon the property, right of way (if any) or easement (if any) sought to be condemned, and shall view same. They may hear evidence or make any inquiry they desire touching the value thereof. They shall award to the owner of each parcel of land and property the fair market value thereof. Property owned by the same owner, which is contiguous and adjacent may be considered as one (1) parcel and may be included by the commissioners under a single award. If less than an entire parcel of contiguous property belonging to the same owner is sought to be condemned, the commissioners shall also award to the owner the difference between the fair market value of the entire parcel of property before and after the taking. The award of the commissioners shall be filed by them, in writing, in the office of the circuit clerk, within fifteen (15) days after the day the order appointing the commissioners is filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and shall be styled "Report and Award of Commissioners."

(4) Immediately upon the filing of the complaint, the clerk of the circuit court shall cause summons and process to issue against the defendants. The summons shall be issued in the same form and in the same manner as provided for upon the filing of a complaint under the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that the summons shall also contain the notification that the defendant shall serve his answer or other pleading within twenty (20) days after the filing of the report and award of the commissioners and notification that exceptions to the report and award of the commissioners must be filed within the same period of time. The action and proceedings shall be carried on as nearly as may be as ordinary civil actions at law are conducted. Nonresidents and persons under disability shal be proceeded against as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. Defenses and exceptions for nonresidents and persons under disability may be made and filed by any person authorized to make defense for such persons under the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5) Any answer or other pleading filed by any defendant in response to the summons shall be confined solely to the question of the right of the agency to condemn the property sought to be condemned, but without prejudice to the right of the defendant, then and thereafter, within proper time, to file exceptions to the amount of compensation awarded in the report and award of the commissioners. Any issue raised in the answer or other pleading filed, putting in issue the right of the agency to condemn the property shall be promptly heard and decided by the court, without a jury. If the court finds the agency has no right to take the property in condemnation for the purpose of uses sought, it shall dismiss the complaint at the costs of the agency.

(6) If answer or other pleading is timely filed putting in issue the right of the agency to condemn the property, the time for filing exceptions to the report and award of commissioners shall automatically be extended to a time not later than ten (10) days after the decision by the court of the issue, and if the court decides that the agency does have the right to take the property in condemnation for the purposes or uses sought, the defendants shall file exceptions, should they desire so to do, to the report and award of commissioners within ten (10) days, if same has not theretofore been filed. If the defendants do not file an answer or pleading putting in issue the right of the agency to condemn the property, or having filed same is not sustained by the court, and, in either event, if the agency and the defendants do not file exceptions to the report and award of commissioners within the time provided, then the amount of the award set forth in the report and award of commissioners shall become final and not subject to exception or review and shall become and be entered as the judgment of the court setting and fixing the value of the land to be taken, and incidental damages to the remainder, if any. The agency has twenty (20) days from the filing of the report and award of commissioners to file its exceptions, should it desire so to do, unless answer or other pleading is filed by defendants, in which event the agency has ten (10) days after the decision by the court on the issue raised by the answer or pleading to file its exceptions. If exceptions are based on the ground that the award of the commissioners is too small or too great, the exceptions must be accompanied by an affidavit of the party excepting, his agent or attorney, stating the amount of the award and damages, if any, the party believes is just and reasonable. For the purpose of appeal, the difference between the amount awarded by the commissioners and the amount the excepting party claims would be just and reasonable shall be the amount in controversy.

(7) If timely exceptions to the report and award of commissioners are filed by any of the parties, the matter of the value of the property sought to be condemned shall forthwith be submitted to a jury to determine and assess value and damages, if any, and the case shall be advanced and have preference over other common law cases on the docket. In assessing value and damages, if any, the report and award of the commissioners shall not be permitted to be introduced or become substantive evidence in the case for the consideration of the jury, but nothing shall prevent the commissioners from testifying, subject to the same rules as apply to other witnesses, in which event either party may question the commissioners concerning their report and award. Upon request of any of the parties, the court may, in its discretion, send the jury to view the premises, except that if the property is taken under interlocutory judgment, as hereinafter provided, the jury's right to view shall be limited and restricted to the land only, if the buildings and appurtenances thereon and thereto have been removed or substantially altered and changed, and the court shall so instruct the jury. Jurors shall have the same qualifications as jurors in civil cases. They may or may not be residents of the city or governmental division in which the land, or the greater portion thereof, lies, but shall be residents of the county wherein same, or the greater portion thereof, lies. A unanimous verdict of all jurors is required, but only the foreman of the jury need sign the verdict.

(8) Upon final determination of all issues raised either by answer or other pleading, or by exceptions to the report and award of commissioners, or if no answer, pleadings or exceptions be filed by any of the parties, the court shall forthwith enter a judgment, which shall be a final judgment, and shall make such orders as are necessary and proper for the conveyance of the land, property and rights, if any, to the agency, upon the payment into court through the clerk of the circuit court by the agency of the amount set forth in the judgment of the court, vesting in the agency absolute fee simple title to the land, property and rights, if any, as described in the complaint, or any supplement or amendment thereof. In the event the owners fail, refuse or are unable to convey to the agency full and complete fee simple title to the land, property and rights, free, clear and unencumbered, the court shall thereupon cause the commissioner of its court, or a special commissioner appointed by the court for that purpose, to execute and deliver to the agency a deed of conveyance therefor, which deed of conveyance shall be executed as nearly as practicable in accordance with the rules governing the conveyance of property by commissioners when sold under order of court, including all the right, title and interest which the defendants and each of them had, or may have had therein. If, however, the agency has not taken same under interlocutory judgment, it may abandon its rights to take the land, property and rights, if any, and same shall be deemed abandoned by it in the event it does not pay into court within sixty (60) days from the date of the entering of the final judgment, the amount set forth therein as the amount to be paid by the agency for the taking thereof. The bond provided for by CR 4.11 of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall not apply and be required of the agency in any action for condemnation brought hereunder.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the agency may, prior to the entering of a final judgment, and at any time after the report and award of commissioners is filed in the circuit court, and notwithstanding exceptions have been or may be filed, file a demand for an interlocutory judgment. Copy of the demand shall be served upon defendants or their attorney or the person authorized to make defense for any nonresident or person under disability, at least ten (10) days prior to presentation to the court, or a judge thereof, in the manner provided by Rule 5 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. The court, or judge thereof, shall thereupon enter an interlocutory judgment granting and awarding to the agency immediate possession and full and complete use and control of the land and property sought to be condemned, and the agency shall thereupon be entitled to take possession thereof and to use and control same, including the right to remove, demolish, raze and do away with all buildings, structures and appurtenances thereon or thereto belonging, without let, hindrance, interruption or interference by the defendants, or anyone claiming under them, as fully as if title had been conveyed to it, and the court, or judge thereof, shall enforce same by appropriate order and proceedings; Provided, however, That before any interlocutory judgment is entered, the agency shall pay into the court, by depositing with the clerk of the circuit court, the amount contained and set forth in the report and award of commissioners, and shall at the same time file with the clerk a bond, with surety approved by the court, a judge thereof, or the clerk of the circuit court, conditioned upon the agency paying to the defendants the difference between the sum paid into court, and that which may thereafter be finally determined to be the value of the property or property rights, if any, or incidental damages, if any, unless the agency shall have sufficient sums duly appropriated, properly allocated to that purpose and on deposit to pay for any money judgments, including costs adjudged against the agency, that may thereafter be rendered against it, and if such facts are alleged in its complaint or in any supplement or amendment thereto, a bond shall not be required of it. If an interlocutory judgment is entered, and no answer, pleading or exceptions have been or are thereafter filed within time by any of the parties, final judgment shall be entered as provided for in subsection (8) of this section. If answer, pleading or exceptions are filed, the case shall proceed as provided for in cases where no interlocutory judgment has been demanded and entered, and wherein answer, pleading or exceptions are filed, and the interlocutory judgment shall remain in full force and effect. If the final judgment is greater than the amount paid into court by the agency under the report and award of the commissioners, the agency shall thereupon pay into court by depositing with the clerk of the circuit court the difference between the amount paid by the agency under the interlocutory judgment and the amount finally determined by the final judgment to be the value. If the difference be less, then the court shall direct the clerk to return and refund the difference to the agency out of the amount paid into court under the interlocutory judgment, if said sum has not been withdrawn by the defendants, or if withdrawn by the defendants, the court shall enter judgment in favor of the agency against the defendants and their surety for said difference, together with interest at six per cent (6%) per annum on the amount of the decrease from the date of withdrawal. The defendants, upon the payment by the agency into court of the amount set forth in the report and award of the commissioners, may, upon written demand, a copy of which shall be served upon the agency or its attorney at least ten (10) days prior to withdrawal of the funds, subject to approval by the court, withdraw from the clerk of the circuit court the amount, provided defendants execute a bond, with surety approved by the court, or a judge thereof, conditioned upon the payment to the agency by the defendants of any amount which may be determined to be the difference between the amount paid into court by the agency and the final judgment in the case, should it be finally determined that the amount paid into the court by the agency was greater than the amount set forth in the final judgment, or that the defendants receiving the funds were not the proper persons to receive same. The withdrawal of the amount by the defendants shall not prejudice or prevent defendants from filing answer, pleading or exceptions in the case, or from pursuing same if already filed, or taking any appeal, the same as if no withdrawal had been made. If defendants withdraw the amount paid into court by the agency, they shall be entitled to interest at six per cent (6%) per annum from the date of the taking of possession by the agency only on the amount by which said sum may thereafter be increased. If defendants do not withdraw the amount paid into court by the agency, they shall be entitled to interest at six per cent (6%) per annum from the date of the taking of possession by the agency only on the amount determined by the final judgment to be the value and amount defendants are entitled to receive for the land and property taken. The demand for an interlocutory judgment and the entering thereof is an additional remedy and right granted the agency, and the case shall continue and be disposed of in the same manner as if no interlocutory judgment had been demanded or entered.

(10) All money paid into court, or to the clerk of the circuit court, whether under an interlocutory judgment or a final judgment shall be received and held by the clerk subject to the order of the court, and the clerk and his sureties on his official bond shall be responsible to the persons entitled thereto.

(11) Where there are conflicting interests and claims in land and property sought to be condemned and all such parties are before the court, the claims and equities of any claimant and owner shall be decided by the court or jury, as the case may be, and the funds paid into court under an interlocutory judgment or final judgment shall be subject thereto. Such claims or determination of rights shall in no wise stay or delay said condemnation proceedings.

(12) If more than one (1) piece of property is involved, owned by different persons, the jury shall render a separate verdict as to the property of each person, or the court may direct a separate trial for each piece of property owned by different persons.

(13) An appeal may be taken by either party in interest from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in the manner, for any of the causes and subject to the rules provided by general laws regarding appeals from circuit court to the Court of Appeals, but no appeal or supersedeas shall suspend the right of the agency to have possession of the property, easement or right of way condemned. [Such appeals shall be advanced on the docket of the Court of Appeals.]

(14) A slum area or blighted area acquired for a housing project by the housing authority of the community may be included in a redevelopment area and the use of such area for redevelopment shall be a public use as though such area were originally acquired for a redevelopment project.

Section 86. KRS 118.176 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A "bona fide" candidate means one who is seeking party nomination or election according to law.

(2) The bona fides of any candidate seeking party nomination or election as an independent may be questioned by any qualified voter entitled to vote for such candidate or by an opposing candidate by summary proceedings consisting of a motion before the circuit court, or before the circuit judge if the court is in vacation, of the judicial circuit [district] in which the candidate whose bona fides is questioned resides. The motion shall be tried summarily and without delay, and a hearing before the judge shall be considered a special term for the purpose. Proof may be heard orally, and upon motion of either party shall be officially reported. If the circuit judge of the district in which the proceeding is filed is disqualified or absent from the county or is himself a candidate, the proceeding may be presented to, heard and determined by the circuit judge of any adjoining judicial circuit [district]. In any county having more than two (2) circuit judges the motion shall be made to and tried by a majority of the circuit judges and the concurrence of a majority of the circuit judges is required to render a decision.

(3) In any action or proceeding under this section the burden of proof as to the bona fides of a candidate shall be on the person challenging the bona fides of a candidate.

(4) If the court finds the candidate is not a bona fide candidate it must so order, and certify the fact to the board of elections, and the candidate's name shall be stricken from the written designation of election officers filed with the board of elections or the court may refuse recognition or relief in a mandatory or injunctive way. The order of the circuit court shall be entered on the order book of the court and shall be subject to a motion to set aside in the Court of Appeals. The motion shall be heard by the Court of Appeals or a judge thereof in the manner provided for dissolving or granting injunctions, except that the motion must be made before the court or judge within five (5) days after the entry of the order in the circuit court, and may be heard and tried upon the original papers, and the order of the Court of Appeals or judge thereof shall be final.

(5) No person shall approach the circuit judge for the purpose or view of influencing his decision on the motion pending before him or to be tried by him.

Section 87. KRS 120.055 is amended to read as follows:

Any candidate for nomination to office at a primary election held under the provisions of KRS 118.015 to 118.035 and 118.105 to 118.255, for whom a number of votes was cast equal to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the votes cast for the successful candidate for nomination to such office, may contest the right of the successful candidate, and of any other candidate for nomination to such office, to such nomination, by filing a petition in the circuit court within fifteen (15) days from the day of the primary election, stating the specific grounds relied upon for the contest, and causing a summons to be issued, returnable in ten (10) days. In the case of candidates for offices for the state at large, the petition shall be filed in the Franklin Circuit Court; in the case of other candidates it shall be filed in the circuit court of the county in which the contestee resides. The summons may be personally served on the contestee in any county, or it may be served by leaving a copy at his home with a member of his family over sixteen (16) years of age, or by posting a copy on the door of his residence. The contestee shall file his answer within ten (10) days after service of summons. The answer may contain grounds of contest in favor of the contestee and against the contestant, but the grounds must be specifically set out. Any candidate who would have been qualified to bring a contest action under this section, who is a party to a recount proceeding brought under KRS 120.095, may, by filing an answer in the recount proceeding within the time allowed by this section for filing grounds of contest, set forth grounds of contest against the petitioner in the recount proceeding. No ground of contest by either party shall be filed or made more definite by amendment after the expiration of the time allowed by this section for filing the original pleading. The contestant may file a reply within five (5) days after answer is filed, which shall complete the pleading, and any affirmative matter in the reply shall be treated as controverted. Upon return of the summons, properly executed, to the office of the circuit clerk of the county in which the action is pending, the clerk shall immediately docket the cause and notify the presiding judge of the court that the contest has been instituted, and the judge shall proceed to a trial of the cause within five (5) days after the issue was joined. In judicial circuits [circuit court districts] having more than one (1) circuit judge the judge who shall hear the cause shall be determined by lot.

Section 88. KRS 120.075 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from a judgment entered under KRS 120.065. The appeal shall be in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that the notice of appeal shall be filed and a supersedeas bond executed in the circuit court, and the record shall be filed in the Court of Appeals, within ten (10) days after the entry of the judgment, or within such other time the Court of Appeals may, for cause shown, permit. The entire original record shall be filed and no designation of record shall be required.

(2) Upon the filing of the record, the clerk of the Court of Appeals shall immediately deliver it to the chief justice [, and the contest shall have precedence over all other business and causes then pending in the Court of Appeals and shall be heard and disposed of as speedily as the exigencies of the case will permit]. If the Court of Appeals is in vacation at the time the record is filed, the chief justice shall call together the judges or a majority thereof, who shall hear and determine the appeal in the same manner and with the same effect as if heard and tried by the court in regular session.

(3) The Court of Appeals in its discretion may issue its mandate forthwith after rendering its decision, but it shall be without prejudice to the right of the losing party to file a petition for rehearing or the power of the court to recall the mandate should the petition be sustained.

(4) If the judgment is reversed and the case remanded for trial or further action, the proceedings shall continue in the circuit court in like manner as when originally filed, beginning ten (10) days after the filing of the mandate with notice to the adverse party.

Section 89. KRS 156.146 is amended to read as follows:

If the parties cannot agree upon an attorney as provided in KRS 156.144 or if the regular judge determines that sufficient time is not available in which to ascertain if the parties can agree upon a member of the bar to act as judge, as provided in KRS 156.144, or if he determines that it is impracticable to attempt to obtain agreement because of the large number of parties to the action to be tried, or for any reason, the clerk shall at once certify the facts to the chief justice of the Supreme Court [of Appeals], who shall immediately designate a regular circuit judge, if one be available, and, if not, an attorney having the qualifications of a judge, to hold the court or try the action.

Section 90. KRS 156.240 is amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare for publication biennially, by the state board of education, the complete school laws of the state, including abstracts of decisions of the Court of Justice [ Appeals], and opinions and interpretations of the attorney general and the superintendent of public instruction. He shall explain the true intent and meaning of the school laws and the published rules and regulations of the state board of education, and in doing so he shall freely consult the attorney general.

Section 91. KRS 172.130 is amended to read as follows:

The members of the fiscal court shall be trustees of the county law library and shall see that the circuit clerk properly discharges his duties as librarian. The fiscal court may appropriate money out of the county treasury to pay for legal text books and decisions of the courts of other states, and to replace decisions of the Court of Justice [Appeals of Kentucky] furnished by the state which have been lost, mutilated or destroyed.

Section 92. KRS 172.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any clerk who is delinquent in making the inventory required in subsection (4) of KRS 172.110 shall be fined five dollars ($5.00) for each month or part of month he is delinquent.

(2) Any person who violates subsection (2) of KRS 172.140 shall, in addition to his civil liability, be fined not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00).

(3) Any clerk who knowingly permits any book of the laws of this state or reports of the Court of Justice [Appeals] to be taken from his office in such a manner that he cannot produce the book when called upon to do so, shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00).

Section 93. KRS 177.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any railroad company dissatisfied with a final order of the department directing the elimination of any grade crossing or change of existing overhead or underpass structure, or any order modifying or amending the final order may, within twenty (20) days after the receipt by the railroad company of a copy of the order directing the elimination of the grade crossing or a change, appeal from the order by filing a copy of the order, attested by an official of the department, in the clerk's office of the Franklin Circuit Court, together with a statement of the reasons why the order should not be enforced. On the filing of a copy of the order and the statement, the circuit clerk shall issue summons thereon in the same manner as summons is issued in equity actions in the circuit court. The [trial of all appeals under this section shall take precedence of all other civil business in the Franklin Circuit Court, and the] evidence shall be taken by depositions.

(2) On the hearing of the appeal the circuit court shall determine whether the elimination of the grade crossing, or the change in existing overhead or underpass structure, is reasonably necessary for the safety of the traveling public, and whether the plans and specifications prescribed by the order of the department are reasonably adequate to provide safety of operation for the trains of the railroad company, its employes and the public, and make reasonably adequate provisions for the future development of the railroad company's facilities.

(3) If the court finds from the evidence that the elimination of the grade crossing or change in existing overhead or underpass structure is not reasonably necessary for the safety of the traveling public, it shall, by final judgment, enjoin the department from enforcing its order.

(4) If the court finds from the evidence that the elimination of the grade crossing or change in existing overhead or underpass structure is reasonably necessary for the safety of the traveling public, it shall, by final judgment, either order the railroad company to proceed with the work in accordance with the order of the department, or in accordance with other plans and specifications prescribed by the court.

Section 94. KRS 177.200 is amended to read as follows:

Either the department or the railroad company affected by the final judgment of the circuit court may appeal to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The case shall be advanced.]

Section 95. KRS 178.375 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any railroad company dissatisfied with a final order of the fiscal court directing the elimination of any existing grade crossing or change of existing overhead or underpass structure under KRS 178.355, or a final order in respect of a new crossing under KRS 178.360, may, within twenty (20) days after receipt by the railroad company of a copy of the order, attested by the clerk of the fiscal court, file in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county, together with a statement of the reasons why the order should not be enforced. On the filing of a copy of the order and the statement, the circuit clerk shall issue summons thereon in the same manner as summons is issued in equity actions in the circuit court. The trial of all appeals under this section shall be by a chancellor [and shall take precedence of all other civil business in the circuit court], and the evidence shall be taken by depositions or as the circuit court may direct.

(2) On the hearing of the appeal, the circuit court shall determine whether under the standards hereinbefore prescribed, a grade separation or change in an existing overhead or underpass structure is reasonably necessary for the public safety, whether the plans and specifications prescribed by such order make reasonably adequate provision for present and future safety and convenience of highway traffic and present and future safety of operation of trains of the railroad company, its employes and passengers, and for future development of highway and railroad facilities.

(3) Upon submission of the case, the circuit court shall embody its findings and conclusions of law in a final judgment, which may enjoin the fiscal court from enforcing its order, or direct the railroad company to proceed with the work in accordance with the order of the fiscal court, or in accordance with other plans and specifications prescribed by the court, or direct the fiscal court to proceed with the work in accordance with plans and specifications prescribed by the court.

Section 96. KRS 178.380 is amended to read as follows:

Either the county or the railroad company dissatisfied with the final judgment of the circuit court may appeal to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The case shall be advanced.]

Section 97. KRS 183.620 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The applicant or the holder of any certificate shall have the right of an appeal from any action of the department by filing within forty (40) days after the rendition of the order of the department a petition of appeal with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court. Such petition shall state completely the grounds upon which the review is sought, and shall assign all errors relied on and shall be accompanied by a copy of the record certified by the department, or an abstract thereof, if agreed to by all parties to the hearing before said department.

(2) The person appealing shall furnish copies of the petition to each person who is a party to the hearing before such department.

(3) Summons shall be issued upon the petition directing the adverse party or parties to file answer within fifteen (15) days after service thereof.

(4) No new or additional evidence may be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some person engaged in the administration of KRS 183.530 to 183.620, or affecting the order, ruling or award, but the court shall otherwise hear the case upon the certified record or abstract thereof, and shall dispose of the case in a summary manner, its review being limited to determining whether or not:

(a) The department acted without or in excess of its power;

(b) The order, decree or award was secured by fraud;

(c) The order, decision or award is not in conformity with provisions of KRS 183.530 to 183.620;

(d) The finding of facts in issue is not supported by any substantial evidence.

(5) The department and each party shall have the right to appear in such review proceedings. The court shall enter judgment confirming, modifying or setting aside the order, decision or award, or in its discretion remanding the case to the department for proceedings in conformity with direction of the court.

(6) The court may advance a judgment, and upon a sufficient showing of facts, remand the cause to the department.

(7) Any party may appeal from the decision of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. [Such appeals from the order of the department or to the Court of Appeals shall have precedence over other cases pending.]

Section 98. KRS 199.473 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All persons other than a licensed child-placing agency or institution, the department or persons excepted by KRS 199.470 (4) or (5) who wish to place or receive a child shall make written application to the commissioner for permission to place or receive a child. Upon receipt of an application to place or receive a child the commissioner shall cause an investigation to be made of the home and the background of the person or persons wishing to receive the child. The purpose of the investigation shall be to determine the suitability of the applicants to receive a child, taking into account at all times the best interest of the child for whom application to receive has been made. The child welfare worker making the investigation shall make a finding in writing recommending either that the application be granted or that the application be denied. In either case reasons for the child welfare worker's recommendation shall be given in writing. The recommendation of the child welfare worker shall then be reviewed by the commissioner. Based on the report and recommendation of the child welfare worker making the investigation, the commissioner shall grant or refuse permission for the applicant to place or receive a child as early as practicable, but, in any case, the decision shall be made within sixty days after the receipt of the application. In reaching his decision the commissioner shall be guided by the ability of the persons wishing to receive the child to give the child a suitable home, and shall at all times consider the best interest of the child from a financial, medical, psychological and psychiatric standpoint. If the application is refused the commissioner shall in general terms furnish in writing the reasons for his refusal.

(2) In any case where the department refuses to approve the placement of a child for adoption when requested by the parent or parents of the child, or refuses the request of any person or persons that a child be placed with him or them for adoption, the decision of the commissioner in so refusing shall be final unless within ten days after notice of refusal, the natural or proposed adopting parent or parents shall appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the adoption is proposed, provided however that no placement shall be disapproved on the basis of the religious, ethnic, racial or inter-faith background of the adoptive applicant, if such placement is made with the consent of the parent. The department shall be made a party defendant to the appeal. In the hearing of an appeal the court shall review the findings of the commissioner and shall determine if the commissioner has acted arbitrarily, unlawfully, or in such a manner as to constitute an abuse of discretion.

(3) No person, association or organization, other than the department or a licensed child-placing institution or agency shall place a child or act as intermediary in the placement of a child for adoption or otherwise; except in the home of a stepparent, grandparent, sister, brother, aunt or uncle, or upon written approval of the commissioner. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit the Department of Economic Security in carrying out its aid to dependent children program in accordance with KRS Chapter 205.

(4) In the event a child who does not fall within the exception provided for in KRS 199.470 (4) or (5) is placed or received in a home without the permission of the Commissioner of Child Welfare, or in the event permission to receive a child has been denied, a representative of the department may petition the juvenile court of the county in which the child is found setting out the facts concerning the child. When such petition has been filed, the juvenile court shall take jurisdiction of the child and shall provide for it as it would provide for a needy, neglected or dependent child under KRS 208.020 except that the child may not be placed in the home of the applicants to receive him unless permission to do so is granted by the commissioner or such action is ordered by a circuit court, [or] the Kentucky Court of Appeals or Supreme Court of Kentucky.

(5) Nothing in this statute shall be construed to limit the authority of the department or a licensed child-placing institution or agency to determine the proper disposition of a child committed to it by the juvenile court or the circuit court, prior to the filing of an application to place or receive.

Section 99. KRS 199.600 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding involving a neglected or abandoned child, as defined in KRS 199.011, the circuit court may terminate all parental rights of the parents of such child, and declare the child to be a ward of the state, and may vest the care, custody and control of the child in the department, or in any licensed child-caring or child-placing agency or institution, if facilities are available to receive the child, if it is pleaded and proved in a private hearing that the parents have abandoned or deserted the child, or have substantially or continuously or repeatedly neglected the child or refused to give the child parental care and protection, or that the child is neglected and that the parents have been adjudged mentally incompetent and such judgment has been in effect for not less than one year.

(2) If the circumstances described in subsection (1) of this section exist with respect to only one of the two legitimate parents, the parental rights of that parent may be terminated, in which case the child shall not be declared to be a ward of the state, unless with the voluntary consent of the other parent, or if one of the two legitimate parents has willfully, substantially and continuously refused for a period of at least one year to give or pay any support, the parental rights of that parent may be terminated immediately by order of the court, in which case the child shall not be declared a ward of the state, unless with the voluntary consent of the other parent.

(3) In an action to terminate parental rights under this section the parents, if the child is legitimate, or if the child is born out of wedlock, the mother and the father if paternity is established in legal action or if an affidavit is filed stating that the affiant is father of the child, must be personally summoned; or where personal service cannot be made, must be constructively summoned as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) In the event the infant is made party defendant to the action, the boarding home or foster parent shall not be served with summons notwithstanding provisions of CR 4.04 (3).

(5) The court may be convened at any time wherever the judge thereof may be found within this judicial circuit [district], irrespective of the regular term for the purpose of terminating parental rights under this section, and shall complete the same as soon as possible.

(6) Proceedings under this section may be instituted upon petition by the department, any probation officer, any state or local law enforcement officer, any county or Commonwealth's attorney or parent.

(7) In the event a parent who is a defendant in an action for involuntary termination of parental rights is for financial reasons unable to obtain legal representation, the court shall appoint an attorney for such person if defendant requests counsel. The court may appoint counsel for any defendant under this statute if in the opinion of the court justice will be served. Unless the attorney appointed receives a salary or fee from another source, he shall be paid a reasonable fee for his services which shall be taxed as costs not to exceed $150.

(8) Unless one or both parents object thereto in writing within ten days after an abortion results in a live birth, the live born person shall become an abandoned ward of the state and the mother and father of such person shall have no parental rights or obligations whatsoever as relates to the abandoned, the same as if parental rights had been terminated pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 199.

Section 100. KRS 208.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No female child shall be transported to any institution, pursuant to order of any court or direction of the department, unless accompanied by a female attendant, or, when authorized in writing by the court or department, by a parent, grandparent, or adult brother or sister. Any such relative shall not be reimbursed out of public funds for travel or other expenses incurred in so accompanying the child.

(2) The agent of any institution who receives a female transported to the institution shall report any violation of subsection (1) of this section to the commonwealth's attorney of the judicial circuit [district] in which the institution is located.

Section 101. KRS 208.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An appeal to the circuit court may be taken as a matter of right from the juvenile session of the county court from all orders and judgments whereby any infant, or other person, shall be restrained of his liberty, or placed in the custody of any institution, or fined or punished in any manner. The appeal shall be taken in the manner provided in the Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the circuit court shall, in the best interest of the child, hear such cases as soon as reasonably possible.

(2) A child's right to release during the pendency of an appeal shall be determined by a hearing held in circuit court to decide whether the circumstances surrounding the child are such as to endanger its safety or welfare or that of the community, or to indicate that the child cannot reasonably be expected to be present for the hearing of the appeal. Release hearings shall be held within three days after the filing of the appeal. The child shall have a right to counsel at such a hearing. The Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof at such hearings and the decision shall be based upon a preponderance of the evidence. If the child is not released, the court shall order that a judgment of the juvenile court committing the child shall be effective pending appeal. Any party aggrieved by a denial of release pending appeal may appeal to the Court of Appeals [which shall, in the best interest of the child, expedite the decision in the same manner as in a habeas corpus proceeding].

(3) Any party aggrieved by the appellate decision of a circuit court made pursuant to subsection (1) may by right appeal to the Court of Appeals in the manner provided in the Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Court of Appeals shall, in the best interest of the child, hear such cases as soon as reasonably possible. A child's right to release pending this appeal shall be determined by the circuit court in the same manner described in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Any party aggrieved by a proceeding under KRS 208.020 (1) (d) may appeal from the juvenile court to the circuit court as a matter of right in the manner provided in Rule 72, Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure. The circuit court may order that the child may be removed to a suitable place, pending the appeal, if it appears by affidavit or sworn testimony that the child would be in imminent danger if left with or returned to its parents, guardian, or other person party to the appeal.

Section 102. KRS 217.390 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When any duly authorized officer mentioned in KRS 217.380 finds any article of food that is adulterated, or any other article or substance that is detrimental to public health, the article shall be tagged or otherwise properly marked, giving notice that the product is suspected of being adulterated or detrimental to public health and has been quarantined, and warning all persons not to remove it until given permission by the officer or the courts.

(2) No person shall remove or otherwise dispose of such article in violation of this section.

(3) The officer shall then petition the judge of the police, county or circuit court in the judicial circuit [district] in which the article is found, for the condemnation and destruction of the article. The owner or defender of the article shall be given the right to a hearing, first before the officer, if desired, and before the court. The notice of a hearing before the officer shall state the length of time within which the hearing may be had.

(4) If the finding of the court is with the officer, the article shall be destroyed at the expense of the owner, or by the owner under the supervision of the officer. The costs shall be taxed against the owner or defender of the property, if he appears. If no one appears, the costs shall be collected against the owner or agent properly ascertained.

Section 103. KRS 217A.190 is amended to read as follows:

The circuit courts of the commonwealth are vested with jurisdiction specifically to enforce, and to prevent and restrain violations of this chapter, and shall have jurisdiction in all other kinds of cases arising under this chapter. All proceedings for the enforcement or to restrain violations of this chapter shall be by and in the name of this commonwealth. Subpoenas for witnesses who are required to attend a court of this commonwealth in any judicial circuit [district] may run into any other judicial circuit [district] of this commonwealth in any such proceedings.

Any owner of real property in the proposed district who has not signed the original petition for the creation of the district and who wishes to object to the organization of the district shall, within sixty (60) days after the giving of notice by the commissioner, file his petition in the circuit court of the county in which the larger part of the proposed district is located, naming the commissioner defendant and setting out in the petition his objections to the organization of the district. The commissioner shall be represented in the circuit court by the county attorney and in the Court of Appeals by the attorney general, and he also may require his defense to be made by the petitioners or some of them. The issues may be made up and the case may be docketed for hearing as in an action for a declaration of rights. An appeal to the Court of Appeals may be taken in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure, but such appeals shall be docketed within sixty (60) days from the entry of judgment; unless the time be extended by a lower court, but in no event beyond one hundred and twenty (120) days from the entry of judgment. [The appeal may be advanced for immediate hearing and submission.] The burden of proof shall be upon the plaintiff to show cause why the district should not be organized. If the court renders judgment against the commissioner, judgment shall point out the changes required for the establishment of a district, which, if met by the commissioner, shall authorize the creation of the district. If the changes are not met by the commissioner, the proposed district shall not be organized unless new proceedings are instituted for the creation of a district, but such new proceedings shall not be instituted for a period of six (6) months after the date of judgment. If the court gives judgment against the plaintiff, the commissioner shall organize the district. An appeal taken as authorized in this section shall suspend the judgment until the case has been passed upon by the Court of Appeals and final judgment rendered. Either the plaintiff or the commissioner may appeal from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals, but the commissioner shall not be required to make any appeal bond. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the pleading and practice shall be the same as in other suits in equity.

Section 105. KRS 220.537 is amended to read as follows:

Any owner of real property in the territory proposed to be annexed who wishes to object to the annexation of the territory to the district shall, within sixty (60) days after the giving of notice by the commissioner, file his petition in the circuit court of the county in which the larger part of the territory proposed to be annexed is located, naming the commissioner defendant and setting out in his petition his objections to the annexation of the territory. The commissioner shall be represented in the circuit court by the county attorney and in the Court of Appeals by the attorney general, and he also may require his defense to be made by the district. The issues may be made up and the case may be docketed for hearing as in an action for a declaration of rights. An appeal to the Court of Appeals may be taken in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure, but such appeals shall be docketed within sixty (60) days from the entry of judgment, unless the time be extended by the lower court, but in no event beyond one hundred and twenty (120) days from the entry of judgment. [The appeal may be advanced for immediate hearing and submission.] The burden of proof shall be upon the plaintiff to show cause why the territory, or any portion of it, should not be annexed to the district. If the court renders judgment against the commissioner, the judgment shall point out the changes required for annexation of the territory, which, if met by the commissioner, shall authorize annexation of the territory. If the proposed changes are not met by the commissioner, the territory shall not be annexed unless new proceedings are instituted in the manner prescribed by KRS 220.535 and 220.536, but such new proceedings shall not be instituted for a period of six (6) months after the date of judgment. If the court gives judgment against the plaintiff, the board of directors may annex the territory. An appeal taken as authorized in this section shall suspend the judgment until the case has been passed upon by the Court of Appeals and final judgment rendered. Either the plaintiff or the commissioner may appeal from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals, but the commissioner shall not be required to make any appeal bond. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the pleading and practice shall be the same as in other suits in equity.

Section 106. KRS 220.563 is amended to read as follows:

Within sixty (60) days after the final publication of an order made under KRS 220.551, which dismisses a petition for creation of a construction subdistrict or within sixty (60) days after final publication of an order made under KRS 220.561 any person who would have been qualified to sign a petition described in KRS 220.551 may appeal such order of the district to the circuit court for the county in which the proposed construction subdistrict is located. All matters appealed from shall be tried de novo and as an equitable action. Decisions of the circuit court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals [, and such appeals shall be advanced on the appellate court's docket].

(1) The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the commission and is authorized to take any action or exercise any power given by this chapter to the commission, except the adoption of rules and regulations, and except as otherwise restricted by this section provided, however, any person aggrieved by any act or decision of the chairman may appeal to the full commission by filing written notice with the secretary of the commission within ten (10) days of the act or decision being appealed and the grounds for appeal, and the address of the appellant. Unless waived by the commission the notice must be accompanied by a list of the names and addresses of any persons the appellant wishes to have subpoenaed by the commission for the hearing and a list of any documents he desires to have produced.

(2) Upon receipt of the notice of appeal a hearing shall be set for a date not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days from the filing of the notice, and written notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be mailed to the appellant not less than five (5) days in advance of such hearing. Upon the mutual agreement of the commission and appellant an earlier or later date may be fixed, in which event no notice to appellant shall be required. All hearings shall be held at the office of the commission unless in the judgment of the commission it will be more expeditious to hold the hearing elsewhere within the commonwealth.

(3) The full commission may approve, set aside or modify the action or decision of the chairman. At least three (3) commissioners shall be required to conduct a hearing and the concurrence of a majority of those present at the hearing shall be necessary to render a decision. The chairman may participate at the hearing, including, if he so elects, participation in the deliberations of the commission and the determination of its decision. The commission shall furnish appellant with a statement of its findings of fact and the reasons for the decision reached. The findings of fact made by the commission shall, unless clearly arbitrary or capricious, be conclusive but any party aggrieved shall have the right of appeal as hereinbelow provided.

(4) Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commission may appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court provided notice of appeal is filed with the commission within ten (10) days from the date of the decision and provided that, at the time of filing such notice the appellant shall deposit with the commission a sum sufficient to pay for the cost of taking and transcribing the proceedings before the commission, to be retained by the commission unless its decision is ultimately reversed, and provided that during such ten (10) day period the appellant shall post a bond with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court to secure the costs of the action in such sum as may be approved by the clerk, with good and solvent surety. Thereafter, the commission shall forthwith transmit the original record of all of the proceedings before the commission. Upon receipt of such record the clerk shall docket the appeal. No formal pleadings shall be required in such appeals. [but the] The case shall be set down by the court for [as early] a [date as possible for such a] hearing, and after such hearing the court shall enter a judgment sustaining or setting aside the decision of the commission. Either party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from the judgment of the circuit court in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(1) The commission and each party may appear in the proceedings in the circuit court on an appeal.

(2) In case of appeals, no new or additional evidence may be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some person engaged in the administration of this chapter and affecting the order; the court shall hear the case upon the certified record or abstract thereof, and shall dispose of the case in a summary manner, its review being limited to determining whether or not the commission acted without or in excess of its power, the order was procured by fraud, the order is in conformity to the provisions of this chapter, and the findings of fact in issue are supported by any substantial evidence.

(3) The commission shall as soon as practicable after being served with summons file a copy of the record, the cost of such record to be taxed as costs upon appeal. In lieu of filing such record, an abstract thereof may be filed if agreed to by all parties to the hearing.

(4) The record shall consist of the initial determination of the commission or its representative, the transcript of the hearing before the commission and the decision of the commission. No pleadings other than the record shall be required of the commission, but the commission may in its discretion file such pleadings as it may choose within the time allowed by law in similar civil actions.

(5) The court shall enter judgment confirming, modifying or setting aside the order or, in its discretion, remanding the case to the commission for proceedings in conformity with the directions of the court.

(6) Any party may appeal from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure [, and subject to the rules of that court such appeal shall be advanced on the docket].

Section 109. KRS 243.590 is amended to read as follows:

Any party aggrieved by a judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court may appeal to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The appeal may be advanced for immediate hearing].

Section 110. KRS 271A.405 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporate action. If such proposed corporate action be approved by the required vote and such shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, such shareholder may, within ten (10) days after the date on which the vote was taken or if a corporation is to be merged without a vote of its shareholders into another corporation, any of its shareholders may, within fifteen (15) days after the plan of such merger shall have been mailed to such shareholders, make written demand on the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares, and, if such proposed corporate action is effected, such corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the ten-day period shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. Any shareholder making such demand shall thereafter be entitled only to payment as in this section provided and shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder.

(2) No such demand may be withdrawn unless the corporation shall consent thereto. If, however, such demand shall be withdrawn upon consent, or if the proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the shareholders shall revoke the authority to effect such action, or if, in the case of a merger, on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic and foreign, that are parties to the merger, or if no demand or petition for the determination of fair value by a court shall have been made or filed within the time provided in this section, or if a circuit court shall determine that such shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by this section, then the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares shall cease and his status as a shareholder shall be restored, without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken in the interim.

(3) Within ten (10) days after such corporate action is effected, the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, shall give written notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided, and shall make a written offer to each such shareholder to pay for such shares at a specified price deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof. Such notice and offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation the shares of which the dissenting shareholder holds, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve (12) months prior to the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement of such corporation for the twelve (12) months period ended on the date of such balance sheet.

(4) If within thirty (30) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the fair value of such shares is agreed upon between any such dissenting shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

(5) If within such period of thirty (30) days a dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not so agree, then the corporation, within thirty (30) days after receipt of written demand from any dissenting shareholder given within sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, shall, or at its election at any time within such period of sixty (60) days may, file a petition in the circuit court in the county in this state where the registered office of the corporation is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be found and determined. If, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, such petition shall be filed in the county where the registered office of the domestic corporation was last located. If the corporation shall fail to institute the proceeding as herein provided, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of the corporation. All dissenting shareholders, wherever residing, shall be made parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares quasi in rem. The corporation shall either (a) cause a copy of the petition to be served on each dissenting shareholder, or (b) mail a copy of the petition to each dissenting shareholder by registered or certified mail addressed to each shareholder at his last address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. In addition, each dissenting shareholder shall be served in accordance with law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. All shareholders who are parties to the proceeding shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of the fair value of their shares.

(6) Any action permitted hereunder shall be advanced [on the docket for an early hearing as actions for declarations of rights may be, and shall be heard and disposed of as expeditiously as is reasonably possible]. From any final judgment, rendered by a circuit court in any such action, an appeal may be taken to and heard by the Court of Appeals, in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure. [The appeal may be advanced for immediate hearing and submission].

(7) The circuit court may, if it so elects, appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have such power and authority as shall be specified in the order of their appointment or an amendment thereof. The judgment shall be payable only upon and concurrently with the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

(8) The judgment shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court may find to be fair and equitable in all the circumstances, from the date on which the vote was taken on the proposed corporate action to the date of payment.

(9) The costs and expenses of any such proceeding shall be determined by the court and shall be assessed against the corporation, but all or any part of such costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court may deem equitable against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding to whom the corporation shall have made an offer to pay for the shares if the court shall find that the action of such shareholders in failing to accept such offer was arbitrary or vexatious or not in good faith. Such expenses shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of the appraisers, but shall exclude the fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party; but if the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay therefor, or if no offer was made, the court in its discretion may award to any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding such sum as the court may determine to be reasonable compensation to any expert or experts employed by the shareholder in the proceeding.

(10) Within twenty (20) days after demanding payment for his shares, each shareholder demanding payment shall submit the certificate or certificates representing his shares to the corporation for notation thereon that such demand has been made. His failure to do so shall, at the option of the corporation, terminate his rights under this section unless a circuit court for good and sufficient cause shown shall otherwise direct. If shares represented by a certificate on which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of such shares, and a transferee of such shares shall acquire by such transfer no rights in the corporation other than those which the original dissenting shareholder had after making demand for payment of the fair value thereof.

(11) Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares, except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

Section 111. KRS 278.450 is amended to read as follows:

Upon final submission of any action brought under KRS 278.410, the circuit court shall enter a judgment either sustaining the order of the commission or setting it aside or vacating it in whole or in part, or modifying it, or remanding it to the commission with instructions. Any final order of the commission, on remand of the proceedings, shall be subject to court review in the same manner as any other final order of the commission. Either party to the action may appeal from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure [, and the appeal shall be advanced in the same manner as commonwealth cases].

Section 112. KRS 281.785 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department and each party may appear in the proceedings in the circuit court on an appeal.

(2) In case of appeals, no new or additional evidence may be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some person engaged in the administration of this chapter and affecting the order; the court shall hear the case upon the certified record or abstract thereof, and shall dispose of the case in a summary manner, its review being limited to determining whether or not the department acted without or in excess of its power, the order was procured by fraud, the order is in conformity to the provisions of this chapter, and the findings of fact in issue are supported by any substantial evidence. On such appeals, the court may, in advance of judgment and upon a sufficient showing of facts, remand the case to the department.

(3) The court shall enter judgment confirming, modifying or setting aside the order or, in its discretion, remanding the case to the department for proceedings in conformity with the directions of the court.

(4) Any party may appeal from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure [, and such appeal shall have precedence of other cases pending in the Court of Appeals].

Section 113. KRS 304.32-230 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall not make public the results of any examination or investigation of any corporation found to be insolvent, or with its capital impaired, prior to suspending or revoking the authority of the corporation to do business in this state. If the commissioner determines, after examination, hearing, or other evidence, that a corporation is in an unsound condition, or has failed to comply with the law, or with the provisions of this subtitle, or that its condition is, or its methods are, such as to render its operations hazardous to the public, or to its subscribers, or that its actual assets, exclusive of its capital, are less than its liabilities, or if its officers or agents refuse to submit to examination, or to perform any acts relative thereto, or refuse on behalf of the corporation to pay the examination charges, he shall suspend or revoke all certificates of authority granted to the corporation, and to its officers or agents, and shall cause notice to be published in accordance with KRS chapter 424, and no solicitation of new business shall be done by it or its agents in this state, while such default or disability continues, nor until its authority to do business is restored. Before suspending or revoking the certificate of authority of any corporation, unless it is insolvent or its capital impaired, the commissioner shall grant fifteen (15) days in which to show cause why action should not be taken.

(2) A corporation whose certificate of authority has been suspended or revoked by the commissioner, may appeal, within thirty (30) days to the Franklin County Circuit Court. Upon filing of the appeal, the court shall cause the records and orders of the commissioner to be brought before it, and upon hearing the case de novo, shall by its final decree either affirm, reverse, or vacate the order of the commissioner.

(3) The court shall have the power to make an order suspending or staying the order of the commissioner suspending or revoking the license of a corporation pending the appeal; but the corporation appealing shall furnish a bond, with sureties, satisfactory to the court, in any amount the court determines to be just and proper, conditioned to pay to the state and to any and all persons any and all loss that may be sustained by reason of the stay or suspension of the commissioner's order. During the period allowed for taking appeal, the publication of notice of the revocation or suspension of license of the corporation as provided by this section shall not be made. If the order of the commissioner is stayed or suspended by order of the court, publication shall not be made until after the discharge of the stay of order or until the affirmation of the order of revocation or suspension.

(4) If, upon appeal, trial is by jury, the court shall submit the cause to the jury upon special interrogatories covering the matters in issue, and if the jury finds the corporation is insolvent because of obligations which exceed its assets, the court may enjoin it from further exercising corporate rights, privileges, or franchises in this state.

(5) (a) If there is a finding of insolvency, the commissioner shall have and exercise all of the powers and authorities set forth in subtitle 33.

(b) If no charge of insolvency is made, or, if made, is not established by the verdict of the jury, but it shall be found by the verdict that the corporation has exceeded its corporate powers or failed to comply with any provision of this subtitle or has done or committed any act for which its license may be revoked or suspended under any provision of this subtitle, or has conducted its business unlawfully or fraudulently, the court may enjoin and restrain it from the commission of such further acts, and if the corporation fails to cease and desist within the time specified by the court, it may be perpetually enjoined from doing any further business in this state. Pending the trial if no bond is furnished as provided, upon motion of the attorney general and upon notice to the corporation, the court may appoint one or more temporary receivers, grant an injunction restraining it and its officers from collecting any debt or demand, and from paying out or in any way transferring or delivering to any person any money, property, or effects, during the pendency of the proceeding except by direction of the court. An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeals from the circuit court as in other cases [; and it shall be the duty of the circuit court and of the Court of Appeals to advance the hearing of matters as far as justice and the business of the court permit].

Section 114. KRS 311.595 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where such power has not been transferred by statute to some other board, commission or agency of this state, the board may deny an application for a license; place a licensee on probation for a period not to exceed five years; suspend a license for a period not to exceed five years; limit or restrict a license for an indefinite period; or revoke any license heretofore or hereafter issued by the board, upon proof that the licensee has:

(a) Knowingly made or presented, or caused to be made or presented, any false, fraudulent or forged statement, writing, certificate, diploma or other thing, in connection with an application for a license or permit.

(b) Practiced, or aided or abetted in the practice of fraud, forgery, deception, collusion or conspiracy in connection with an examination for a license.

(e) Become addicted to a drug habit.

(f) Become a chronic or persistent alcoholic.

(g) Developed such physical or mental disability, or other condition, that continued practice is dangerous to patients or to the public. In enforcing this paragraph the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by physicians designated by it. Failure of a physician to submit to such examination when directed shall constitute an admission of the allegations against him (unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond his control) consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician whose license has been suspended, limited, restricted or revoked under this paragraph shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that he can resume the competent practice of medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(h) Engaged in dishonorable, unethical, or unprofessional conduct of a character likely to deceive, defraud or harm the public or any member thereof.

(i) Knowingly made, or caused to be made, or aided or abetted in the making of, a false statement in any document executed in connection with the practice of his profession.

(k) Violated or attempted to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisted in or abetted the violation of, or conspired to violate any provision or term of any medical practice act, including but not limited to the code of conduct promulgated by the board under KRS 311.601 or any other valid regulation of the board.

(l) Violated any order of suspension, or the terms or conditions of any order of probation, issued by the board.

(m) Engaged in or attempted to engage in the practice of medicine or osteopathy under a false or assumed name.

(n) Obtained a fee or other thing of value on the fraudulent representation that a manifestly incurable condition could be cured.

(o) Willfully violated a confidential communication.

(p) Had his license to practice medicine or osteopathy in any other state, territory or foreign nation revoked, suspended, restricted or limited or has been subjected to other disciplinary action by the licensing authority thereof.

(q) Failed or refused, without legal justification, to practice medicine in a rural area of this state in violation of a valid medical scholarship loan contract with the Trustees of the rural Kentucky medical scholarship fund.

(r) Given or received, directly or indirectly, from any person, firm, or corporation, any fee, commission, rebate, or other form of compensation for sending, referring or otherwise inducing a person to communicate with a person licensed under KRS 311.530 to 311.620 in his professional capacity or for any professional services not actually and personally rendered; provided, however, that nothing contained in this subsection shall prohibit persons holding valid and current licenses under KRS 311.530 to 311.620 from practicing medicine in partnership or association or in a professional service corporation authorized by KRS Chapter 274, as now or hereafter amended, or from pooling, sharing, dividing or apportioning the fees and monies received by them or by the partnership, corporation or association in accordance with the partnership agreement or the policies of the board of directors of the corporation or association. Nothing contained in this subsection shall abrogate the right of two or more persons holding valid and current licenses under KRS 311.530 to 311.620 to receive adequate compensation for concurrently rendering professional care to a single patient and divide a fee, provided the patient has full knowledge of this division and provided the division is made in proportion to the services performed and responsibility assumed by each.

(2) In every proceeding for probation, suspension, limitation, restriction or revocation of a license, the secretary shall furnish the licensee with written notice setting out the substance of each offense charged, with sufficient detail to reasonably apprise such a person of the nature, time and place thereof. Proceedings and forms shall be in accordance with rules and regulations of the board, and hearings may be conducted by hearing officers of the board as provided in subsection (2)(b) of KRS 311.565, but no hearing shall be conducted until at least thirty days' written notice thereof has been given to the holder of the license, who shall have the right to be present, in person or by counsel, and to present evidence and to be heard in opposition to the charges which may be instituted by any individual, or organization, or by the board acting upon its own initiative or by the secretary on behalf of the board. Preliminary to the institution of any such proceeding, the secretary may refer the charge or charges to the state organization which represents the profession to which the holder of the license belongs, for investigation and recommendations as to adjustment, settlement or disciplinary action, and such professional organization may assist in the prosecution or defense of any such proceedings before the board, which shall not be bound to follow its recommendations.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, every order of the board suspending, limiting, restricting or revoking a license shall become effective thirty days after notice is given to the licensee, unless said licensee, within thirty days from the giving of such notice, appeals therefrom in the manner provided by subsection (4) of this section. Provided, however, that the board may, when in its opinion the continued practice by the licensee during the time allowed for appeal would be dangerous to the health, welfare and safety of the licensee's patients or the general public, provide in its order of suspension, limitation, restriction or revocation that said order shall become effective forthwith and the licensee shall not, after notice of same, engage or continue to engage in any prohibited practice under the license unless and until the order is reversed or modified by a final and unappealable order or judgment of a court made pursuant to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section.

(4) Any licensee who is aggrieved by an order of the board placing the licensee on probation, or suspending, limiting, restricting or revoking his license may procure a declaration of rights under the Declaratory Judgment Act by filing, within thirty days after notice of said order, a complaint against the board in the circuit court of the county in which the board's offices are located, together with a bond with good and sufficent sureties thereon to cover all costs, which complaint shall request judicial review of the order and the proceedings held by the board, or its hearing officer, and set out with particularity the grounds relied upon for reversal or modification of the order. Summons and a copy of the complaint may be served upon the secretary for and on behalf of the board, and the secretary shall, within thirty days after such service and the filing of said bond, file with the court a transcript of the record of hearing together with a certified copy of the order complained of. The board may file an answer, or such other pleadings as it considers appropriate, and the court shall, after considering the transcript of the record and the board's order and any arguments of counsel, enter judgment. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in the circuit court. In the event the action of the board is not sustained the court shall, upon request of the board, remand the case to the board for further proceedings. Any party aggrieved by the final judgment, order or decree rendered in the case may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky in the time, method and manner provided in the Declaratory Judgment Act [and the Court of Appeals shall docket and advance the appeal as provided in said act].

(5) Any notice, that is required to be given to a licensee by the board, or by its secretary or hearing officer, which is given by forwarding same by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, to the licensee at his last known address as it appears in the files of the board shall be sufficient.

(6) All members of the board, and its secretary and hearing officer, have authority to administer oaths, and to issue, in the name of the board, complaints, notices, summonses, subpoenas, and other process, in connection with any charge, proceeding or hearing relating to probation, suspension or revocation.

(7) The board may compel the attendance of witnesses at hearings in connection with disciplinary proceedings, and circuit and county courts are, upon petition of the board or its hearing officer, authorized and empowered to punish as contempt all failures to obey subpoenas and other process provided in subsection (6) of this section and all contemptuous or contumacious conduct directed to the board or its hearing officer in the course of disciplinary proceedings.

Section 115. KRS 321.410 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If an action is commenced against the board, as authorized in KRS 321.400, the board shall promptly cause a certified transcript of all proceedings had and testimony taken therein to be made and filed with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending. The cost of preparing and certifying the record shall be paid to the board by the party bringing the action, and taxed as part of the costs, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of the action. Copies of the transcript shall be furnished at cost to any party to the proceeding. The action or appeal shall be determined by the court upon the record certified and filed as herein provided, and no new or additional evidence shall be heard or considered by the court unless it appears to the court from said record that the complaining party was denied the opportunity of a fair hearing before the board.

(2) The court shall enter a judgment either sustaining the order of the board, or setting it aside, or vacating it in whole or in part. Either party to the action may, within sixty (60) days after the entry of the judgment of the circuit court, appeal to the Court of Appeals [, and the appeal when filed in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals shall be docketed and advanced in the same manner as commonwealth cases].

Section 116. KRS 323A.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person whose license is revoked by the board may appeal from the order of revocation by filing in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the circuit court in the judicial circuit [district] in which the licensee maintains his business a petition for appeal and a copy of the order of the board within sixty days of the date of entry of the order. He shall make bond for costs. The petition for appeal shall set forth with particularity the grounds upon which the appeal is taken. The licensee shall cause a copy of the petition for appeal to be served upon the secretary of the board.

Should the appellee or his counsel desire additional portions of the record incorporated into the record to be filed in the Court of Appeals, he may file with the clerk of the circuit court his schedule also within ten (10) days thereafter (unless the time is extended by order of the circuit court or the Court of Appeals), indicating the additional portions of the record desired by him. Provided, however, That if the original record of the workmen's compensation board is desired by either party on appeal to the Court of Appeals, it shall not be necessary for the clerk of the circuit court to copy said original record into the transcript, but the same shall be and become a part of the transcript and shall be forwarded to the clerk of the Court of Appeals as a part of the record upon appeal to said court. The clerk shall not be entitled to any transcript fee for such original record.

(3) The clerk of the circuit court will transmit to the Court of Appeals as the transcript of the record only those portions of the record of the lower court as are designated by the parties as above.

(2) The proceeding for review or enforcement is initiated by filing a complaint in the court. Copies of the complaint shall be served upon all parties of record. Within thirty (30) days after the service of the complaint upon the commission or its filing by the commission, or within such further time as the court may allow, the commission shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including a transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. The court shall follow the procedure set forth in subsection (2) so far as applicable.

(4) The court shall not consider any matter not considered by, nor any objection not raised before, the commission, unless the failure of a party to present such matter to or raise such objection before the commission is excused because of good cause shown. A party may move the court to remand the case to the commission in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon, provided he shows good cause for the failure to adduce such evidence before the commission.

(5) The jurisdiction of the circuit court shall be exclusive and its final judgment or decree shall be subject to review by the Court of Appeals as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available to all parties for examination without cost during business hours at the commission's office in Frankfort.

(6) A proceeding under this section must be initiated within thirty (30) days after a copy of the order of the commission is received, unless the commission is the petitioner or the petition is filed under subsection (3). If no proceeding is so initiated, the commission may obtain a decree of the court for enforcement of its order upon showing that a copy of the petition for enforcement was served on the respondent.

(2) The salary for each day which the justice serves shall be 1/250 of the annual salary of a justice of the Supreme Court, except that a retired justice or judge appointed pursuant to this section shall be compensated as provided by Section 12 of this Act and not under this section.

(3) Salary, and necessary expenses incidental to the performance of the duties of such assignment shall be paid out of the state treasury upon approval by the Chief Justice, or his designee.

SB 58, AN ACT relating to crime victims.

Section 1. KRS Chapter 346 is established and a new section thereof is created to read as follows:
The General Assembly hereby declares that it serves a public purpose and is of benefit to the state to indemnify those needy residents of the Commonwealth of Kentucky who are innocent victims of criminal acts and who suffer bodily injury or death as a consequence thereof. Such persons or their dependents may thereby suffer disability, incur financial hardships and become dependent upon public assistance. To that end, it is the General Assembly's intent that aid, care and support be provided by the state, as a matter of grace, for such victims of crime.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Board" means the crime victims compensation board.
(2) "Claimant" means any of the following claiming compensation under this Act: a victim, a dependent of a deceased victim, a third person other than a collateral source, or an authorized person acting on behalf of any of them.
(3) "Criminally injurious conduct" means conduct that occurs or is attempted in this jurisdiction; poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, and is punishable by fine, imprisonment or death. Acts which, but for the insanity or mental irresponsibility or lack of capacity of the perpetrator, would constitute criminal conduct shall be deemed to be criminally injurious conduct. The operation of a motor vehicle, motorcycle, train, boat aircraft or other vehicle in violation of law does not constitute a criminally injurious conduct unless the injury or death was intentionally inflicted or the operation thereof was part of the commission of another criminal act.
(4) "Family," when used with reference to a person, shall mean:
(a) Any person related to such person within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity;
(b) Any person maintaining a sexual relationship with such person; or
(c) Any person residing in the same house hold with such person.
(5) "Victim" means a resident of this state who suffers personal injury or death as a result of:
(a) Criminally injurious conduct;
(b) A good faith effort to prevent criminally injurious conduct; or
(c) A good faith effort to apprehend a person reasonably suspected of engaging in criminally injurious conduct.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
(1) There is hereby created a board, to be known as the crime victims compensation board. Such board shall consist of five members not all of whom shall be engaged in the same occupation or profession and the said board shall be appointed by the governor.
(2) The term of office of each such member shall be four (4) years, except that of the members first appointed two (2) shall serve for terms of four (4) years, two (2) shall serve for terms of three (3) years and one (1) shall serve for a term of two (2) years, respectively. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of a term shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(3) The governor shall designate one (1) member of the board as chairman thereof, to serve as such at the pleasure of the governor.

(4) The Governor shall establish the compensation of the members of the board pursuant to the provisions of KRS 64.640.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To establish and maintain necessary offices within this state, appoint employes and agents as necessary and prescribe their duties and compensation.

(2) To adopt, promulgate, amend and rescind suitable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions and purposes of this Act, including rules for the approval of attorney's fees for representation before the board or upon judicial review as provided for in Section 11 of this Act.

(3) To hear and determine all matters relating to claims for compensation, and the power to reinvestigate or reopen claims without regard to statutes of limitations.

(4) To request from prosecuting attorneys and law enforcement officers investigations and data to enable the board to determine whether, and the extent to which, a claimant qualifies for compensation. The statute providing confidentiality for juvenile court records does not apply to proceedings under this Act.

(5) To hold hearings, administer oaths or affirmations, examine any person under oath or affirmation and to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and giving of testimony of witnesses and require the production of any books, papers documentary or other evidence. The powers provided in this subdivision may be delegated by the board to any member or employe thereof. If necessary to carry out any of its powers and duties, the board may petition any Circuit Court for an order.

(6) To take or cause to be taken affidavits or depositions within or without the state.

(7) To make available for public inspection all board decisions and opinions, rules, written statements of policy and interpretations formulated, adopted, or used by it in discharging its functions.

(8) To publicize widely the availability of reparations and information regarding the claims therefor.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the following persons shall be eligible for awards pursuant to this Act:

(a) A victim of criminally injurious conduct;

(b) A surviving spouse, parent or child of a victim of criminally injurious conduct who died as a direct result of such conduct;

(c) Any other person dependent for his principal support upon a victim of criminally injurious conduct who died as a direct result of such crime.

(2) A person who is criminally responsible for the crime upon which a claim is based or an accomplice of such person or a member of the family of such persons shall not be eligible to receive an award with respect to such claim.

(3) No compensation of any kind shall be awarded when injury occurred while the victim was confined in any state, county, urban county, or city jail, prison or other correctional facility, or any state institution maintained and operated by the Department for Human Resources.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) A claim may be filed by a person eligible to receive an award, as provided in Section 5 of this Act, or, if such person is a minor, by his parent or guardian.

(2) A claim must be filed by the claimant not later than ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the criminally injurious conduct upon which such claim is based, or not later than ninety (90) days after the death of the victim, provided, however, that upon good cause shown, the board may extend the time for filing for a period not exceeding one (1) year after such occurrence.

(3) Claims shall be filed in the office of the board in person or by mail. The board shall accept for filing all claims submitted by persons eligible under subsection (1) of this section and alleging the jurisdiction requirements set forth in this Act and meeting the requirements as to form in the rules and regulations of the board.

(4) Upon filing of a claim pursuant to this Act, the board shall promptly notify the Commonwealth attorney or county attorney of the county wherein the crime is alleged to have occurred. If, within ten (10) days after such notification, such Commonwealth attorney or county attorney advises the board that a criminal prosecution is pending upon the same alleged crime and requests that action by the board be deferred, the board shall defer all proceedings under this Act until such time as such criminal prosecution has been concluded and shall so notify such commonwealth or county attorney and the claimant. When such criminal prosecution has been concluded such commonwealth or county attorney shall promptly so notify the board.

Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the board to grant emergency awards pursuant to Section 12 of this Act.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

No award shall be made on a claim unless the claimant has incurred a minimum out-of-pocket loss of one hundred dollars ($100) or has lost at least two (2) continuous weeks earning or support. Out-of-pocket loss shall mean unreimbursed and unreimbursable expenses or indebtedness reasonably incurred for medical care or other services necessary as a result of the injury upon which such claim is based.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) A claim, when accepted for filing, shall be assigned by the chairman to himself or to another member of the board. All claims arising from the death of an individual as a direct result of a crime shall be considered together by a single board member.

(2) The board member to whom such claim is assigned shall examine the papers filed in support of such claim. The board member shall thereupon cause an investigation to be conducted into the validity of such claim. Such investigation shall include, but not be limited to, an examination of police, court, and official records and reports concerning the crime.

(3) If the mental, physical, or emotional condition of a victim or claimant is material to a claim, the board member may order the victim or claimant to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or psychiatrist, and may order an autopsy of a deceased victim. A report upon such examination shall be filed with the board member setting out findings, including results of all tests made, diagnosis, prognosis and other conclusions.

(4) For purposes of this Act there is no privilege except privileges arising from the attorney-client relationship, as to communications or records relevant to an issue of the physical, mental, or emotional condition of the claimant or victim in a proceeding under this Act in which that condition is an element.

(5) Claims shall be investigated and determined, regardless of whether the alleged criminal has been apprehended or prosecuted for or convicted of any crime based upon the same incident, or has been acquitted, or found not guilty of the crime in question owing to criminal irresponsibility or other legal exemption.

(6) The board member to whom a claim is assigned may decide such claim in favor of a claimant in the amount claimed on the basis of the papers filed in support thereof and the report of the investigation of such claim. If the board member is unable to decide such claim upon the basis of such papers and such report, he shall order a hearing. At such hearing any relevant evidence, not legally privileged, shall be admissible.

(7) After examining the papers filed in support of such claim and the report of investigation, and after a hearing, if any, the board member to whom such claim was assigned shall make a decision either granting an award pursuant to Section 13 of this Act or deny the claim.

(8) The board member making a decision shall file a written report setting forth such decision and his reasons therefor and shall thereupon cause the claimant to be notified and furnish him a copy of such report.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) The claimant may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the report of the decision of the board member to whom his claim was assigned, make an application in writing to the board for consideration of such decision by the full board.

(2) Any member of the board may, within thirty (30) days after the filing of such report, make an application in writing to the board for consideration of such decision by the full board.

(3) Upon receipt of an application pursuant to subsections (1) or (2), the board shall review the record and affirm or modify the decision of the board member to whom the claim was assigned. The action of the board in affirming or modifying such decision shall be final. The board shall file with the secretary of the board a written report setting forth its decision, and if such decision varies in any respect from the report of the board member to whom the claim was assigned setting forth its reasons for such decision. If the board receives no application pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section the decision of the board member to whom the claim was assigned shall become the final decision of the board.

(4) The board shall promptly notify the claimant and the attorney general of the final decision of the board and furnish each with a copy of the report setting forth such decision.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

Following the initial filing of a claim, if a claimant or victim does not take such further steps as may be necessary to support or perfect the claim as may be required by the board within thirty (30) days after such requirement is made by the board, the claimant or victim shall be deemed in default. In such case the board shall summarily deny the claim and the claimant or victim shall be forever barred from reasserting the claim. The board may remit such proceedings on good cause shown that the failure to take the steps required by the board was totally and completely beyond the control of the claimant or victim.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the copy of the report containing the final decision of the board, the attorney general or claimant may commence a proceeding in the Franklin Circuit Court to review the decision of the board. Such proceeding shall be heard in a summary manner and shall have precedence over all other civil cases in such court.

(2) Any such proceeding shall be commenced by the service of notice thereof upon the claimant or attorney general and the board in person or by mail.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8 of this Act, if it appears to the board member to whom a claim is assigned, prior to taking action upon such claim that:

(a) Such claim is one with respect to which an award probably will be made; and

(b) Undue hardship will result to the claimant if immediate payment is not made. Emergency payment under subsection (2) of this section may be made.

(2) Upon such findings under subsection (1) of this section the board member may make an emergency award to the claimant pending a final decision in the case provided that:

(a) The amount of such emergency award shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500);

(b) The amount of such emergency award shall be deducted from any final award made to the claimant; and

(c) The excess of the amount of such emergency award over the amount of the final award, or the full amount of the emergency award if no final award is made, shall be repaid by the claimant to the board.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) No award shall be made unless the board or board member, as the case may be, finds that:

(a) Criminally injurious conduct occurred;

(b) Such criminally injurious conduct resulted in personal physical injury to or death of, the victim; and

(c) Police records show that such crime was promptly reported to the proper authorities; and in no case may an award be made where the police records show that such report was made more than forty-eight (48) hours after the occurrence of such crime unless the board for good cause shown, finds the delay to have been justified.

(2) The board upon finding that the claimant or victim has not fully cooperated with appropriate law enforcement agencies, shall exclude therefrom the initial one hundred dollars ($100) of losses incurred and shall deny, reconsider, or reduce an award.

(3) Any award made pursuant to this Act shall be in an amount not exceeding out-of-pocket expenses, including indebtedness reasonably incurred for medical or other services necessary as a result of the injury upon which the claim is based, together with loss of earnings or support resulting from such injury.

(4) Any award made for loss of earnings or support shall, unless reduced pursuant to other provisions of this article be in an amount equal to the actual loss sustained; provided, however, that no such award shall exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for each week of lost earnings or support. If there are two (2) or more persons entitled to an award as a result of the injury or death of a person which is the direct result of criminally injurious conduct the award shall be apportioned by the board among the claimants.

(5) Any award made under this Act shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any award made pursuant to this Act shall be reduced by the amount of any payments received or to be received by the claimant as a result of the injury from the following sources:

(a) From or on behalf of the person who committed the crime;

(b) Under insurance programs mandated by law;

(c) From public funds;

(d) Under any contract of insurance wherein the claimant is the insured or beneficiary; and

(e) As an emergency award pursuant to Section 12 of this Act.

(2) In determining the amount of an award, the board or board member, as the case may be shall determine whether, because of his conduct, the victim of such crime contributed to the infliction of his injury, and the board or board member shall reduce the amount of the award or reject the claim altogether, in accordance with such determination; provided, however, that the board or board member, as the case may be, may disregard for this purpose the responsibility of the victim for his own injury where the record shows that such responsibility was attributable to efforts by the victim to prevent a crime or an attempted crime from occurrence in his presence or to apprehend a person who had committed a crime in his presence or had in fact committed a felony.

(3) If the board or board member, as the case may be, finds that the claimant will not suffer serious financial hardships, as a result of the loss of earnings or support and the out-of-pocket expenses incurred as a result of the injury, if not granted financial assistance pursuant to this Act to meet such loss of earnings, support or out-of-pocket expenses, the board or board member shall deny an award. In determining such serious financial hardship, the board or board member shall consider all of the financial resources of the claimant. The board shall establish specific standards by rule for determining such serious financial hardships.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
(1) The award shall be paid in a lump sum, except that in the case of death or protracted disability the award shall provide for periodic payments to compensate for loss of earnings or support. No award made pursuant to this Act shall be subject to execution or attachment other than for expenses resulting from the injury which is the basis for the claim.
(2) The board shall reconsider at least annually every award being paid in installments. An order or reconsideration of an award shall not require refund of amounts previously paid unless the award was obtained by fraud.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
The record of a proceeding before the board or a board member shall be a public record; provided, however, that any record or report obtained by the board, the confidentiality of which is protected by any other law or regulation, shall remain confidential subject to such law or regulation.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
(1) No right of action at law against a person who has committed a criminal act for damages as a consequence of such act shall be lost as a consequence of receiving benefits under the provisions of this chapter. In the event any person receiving benefits under this chapter additionally seeks a remedy for damages from the person or persons who have committed the criminal act resulting in damages, then and in that event the board shall be subrogated to and have a lien upon any recovery so made to the extent of the payments made by the state to or on behalf of such person under this chapter.
(2) If compensation is awarded, the state is subrogated to all the claimant's rights to receive or recover benefits or advantages, for economic loss for which and to the extent only that compensation is awarded from a source which is, or, if readily available to the victim or claimant would be, a collateral source.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 346 is created to read as follows:
(1) Any payment of benefits to or on behalf of a victim under this chapter creates a debt due and owing to the state by any person found to have committed such criminal act in either a civil or criminal court proceeding in which he is a party.
(2) The Court when placing any convicted person, who owes a debt to the state as a consequence of a criminal act, on probation and conditional discharge as provided in KRS 533.020 may set as a condition of the probation or conditional discharge the payment of the debt to the state. The Court also may set the schedule or amounts of payments to be made subject to modification based on change of circumstances.
(3) The Parole Board shall also have the right to make payment of the debt to the state a condition of parole under the provisions of KRS Chapter 439 subject to modification based on change of circumstances.

HB 676, AN ACT relating to turnpike authority of Kentucky.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 175 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky determines as a legislative finding of fact that the economy of the commonwealth is, to a major degree, dependent upon the severance and production of coal, which is the most abundant and valuable mineral resource of Kentucky; that there is a serious shortage of transportation facilities for the transportation of coal from mines to market; that many of the roads, bridges and highways situated in the coal-producing areas of the commonwealth are obsolete and inadequate for the uses to which they are subjected, and have, in many cases deteriorated to the point where their use is hazardous and represents a potential threat to the safety and welfare of the traveling public; and that the shortage of modern, heavy-duty road systems in such areas is seriously retarding the continued economic growth of the commonwealth. The general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky further determines as a legislative finding of fact that the construction and financing of resource recovery roads through the turnpike authority of Kentucky utilizing coal severance tax allocations for the amortization of resource recovery road revenue bonds issued to provide funds to construct such roads will preserve and enhance the economic viability of the commonwealth, will protect and enhance the safety, health, convenience and general welfare of the traveling public, and will therefore constitute the performance of essential governmental and public purposes.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 175 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in this Act, and as applied to the financing of resource recovery roads by the turnpike authority of Kentucky, the following words and phrases shall have the following respective meanings, unless another or different meaning or intent shall be clearly indicated by the context.

(1) "Authority" shall mean the turnpike authority of Kentucky duly organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of KRS 175.410 to 175.990, inclusive.

(2) "Bonds" or "resource recovery road revenue bonds" shall mean resource recovery road revenue bonds of the authority issued under the provisions of this Act.

(3) "Department" shall mean the department of transportation of Kentucky or, if said department shall be abolished, the department, board, bureau, body or commission succeeding to the principal functions thereof or to whom the powers vested in the department shall be given or transferred by law.

(4) "Resource recovery road project" or "project" shall mean any express highway or superhighway, or such part or parts thereof, as may be constructed and financed under the provisions of this Act which shall be designed and constructed to serve as a modern, heavy-duty motorway facility capable of carrying in normal operations vehicles designed for the transportation of coal severed and produced in the commonwealth of Kentucky, which road shall also be designed to serve the traveling public, including all bridges, tunnels, overpasses, underpasses, interchanges, entrance plazas, approaches, connecting highways, tollhouses (if any), service stations, garages, restaurants, and administration, storage or other buildings and facilities which the authority may deem necessary for the operation of such resource recovery road project, together with all property, rights, easements and interests which may be acquired by the authority or by the department for the construction or the operation of such project.

(5) All words and phrases which are defined and used in KRS Sections 175.410 to 175.990, inclusive, shall have the same meaning or meanings when used in this Act, except that the words and phrases "turnpike project" or "project" as used in said identified sections shall mean and refer to resource recovery road projects constructed and financed pursuant to this Act.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 175 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the turnpike authority of Kentucky may initiate, plan, implement, acquire, construct and finance resource recovery road projects utilizing and employing all of the authority, rights and procedures granted to the authority by KRS Sections 175.410 to 175.990, inclusive.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 175 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In order to provide for the construction of resource recovery road projects, the authority is hereby authorized and empowered under and pursuant to the terms and provisions of a written agreement or agreements with the department to construct, finance, maintain, repair and operate resource recovery road projects, to lease such projects to the department, and to issue resource recovery road revenue bonds of the authority to finance such projects. In the planning, construction and financing of any resource recovery road project, the authority and the department shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have and use all authority, procedures and rights provided by the provisions of KRS Sections 175.410 to 175.990, inclusive.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 175 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In the event that the authority and the department shall undertake the planning, construction and financing of any resource recovery road project, it may be provided in connection with such financing that resource recovery road revenue bonds issued in respect of any such project shall be secured solely by income and revenues derived from the leasing by the authority of any such project to the department, and shall not be secured by a pledge of any motor fuel taxes and surtaxes collected by the commonwealth on gasoline and other motor fuels consumed by vehicles utilizing such resource recovery road project.

HB 677, AN ACT relating to revenue and taxation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

On and after July 1, 1976 [April 1, 1972], in addition to all other taxes imposed by law, a severance tax is hereby levied on every taxpayer measured by the coal severed. The tax shall be four and one-half percent (4 1/2%

(2) Not less than sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of each fiscal year of the commonwealth (July 1), the department of revenue shall direct the department of transportation in writing to certify to the department of revenue the aggregate amount of lease obligation payments required to be made by the department of transportation to the turnpike authority of Kentucky during such ensuing fiscal year in respect of all resource recovery road projects as to which the department of transportation has elected to renew leases with the turnpike authority of Kentucky incidental thereto. The department of transportation shall certify such information to the department of revenue not less than thirty (30) days prior to such ensuing July 1. From and after July 1 of such ensuing fiscal year, the department of revenue shall allocate, from the gross receipts first received from imposition of coal severance taxes, the aggregate amount so certified by the department of transportation, and shall earmark, allocate or segregate such severance tax receipts for the use and benefit of the department of transportation to enable the department of transportation to pay when due such lease payments in respect of resource recovery roads.

Section 1. KRS 247.220 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner of agriculture shall make grants of state funds to the North American Livestock Exposition, and to qualified local agricultural fairs on a matching basis, to be used by them to pay premium awards for exhibits and displays of domestic livestock, poultry, harness horse racing, other horse events, and agricultural products. The premiums actually awarded shall conform to those appearing on the premium list issued by the fair.

[(1) The commissioner of agriculture shall make grants of state funds to qualified local fairs to be used by them to pay premium awards for exhibits and displays of domestic livestock or other agricultural products. The grant of state funds made to any fair shall in no event exceed one-half (1/2) of the amount of premiums paid out for livestock shows and agricultural exhibits and in no instance shall the allotment exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000). The premiums actually awarded shall conform to those appearing on the premium list issued by the fair. Five hundred dollars ($500) of the grant may be used by the local fair board for new buildings or for improvements on old buildings to house livestock or other agriculture exhibits. No grant for such buildings shall be made until the local fair board has complied with the local fair program and qualified for the state grant as provided in subsection (4) of this section. Such grant for facilities shall be matched by the local fair board. In no event shall the allocation for facilities result in a decrease in the number of approved agricultural classes or premiums.]

(2) The state may provide funds for use in the establishment of new facilities and improvement of existing facilities for use in conducting events at local agricultural fairs as provided by this Act. No grant for such buildings shall be made until the local fair board has complied with the local fair program and qualified for the state grant as provided in subsection (5) of this section. Such grants for facilities shall be made under regulations promulgated by the fair council and the commissioner of agriculture. In no event shall the allocation for facilities result in a decrease in the number of approved agricultural classes or premiums.

(3) [(2)] There shall be a fair council in the department of agriculture. The council shall act in an advisory capacity to the commissioner in all matters pertaining to the administration of the department's fair program. It shall be called into session at such times as there are matters for its consideration. It shall meet at least twice each calendar year at Frankfort or at such other place that may be determined.

(c) Complies with all other rules and regulations which the department of agriculture is hereby authorized to promulgate;

(d) Appoints one or more members to its fair board from local [county] livestock [improvement] associations, horsemen's associations, and county farm bureaus and selects one or more county extension agents and vocational agriculture teachers for counties served by the fair as members of the board. Wherever local [county] livestock [improvement] associations, horsemen's associations, and farm bureaus are in existence, appointees are to be nominated to the fair board by these organizations. Where fairs serve an area, appointments may be made from all counties within the particular area. It shall be the responsibility of the appointees to aid in establishing [livestock] premium lists and planning agricultural exhibits.

(6) [(5)] Any fair receiving a grant of state funds shall file with the director of livestock shows and fairs in the department of agriculture, by December 1 of the year in which the grant is received, satisfactory proof that all state premium awards have been paid and a certified notarized financial report submitted by the treasurer of the local fair association [financial report by a certified public accountant].

Section 2. KRS 138.510 is amended to read as follows:

HB 697, AN ACT relating to strip mining.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 350.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Under the provisions of this chapter and regulations adopted by the department, an operator shall prepare and carry out a method of operation, plan of grading and backfilling and a reclamation plan for the area of land affected by his operation. In developing a method of operation, and the plans of backfilling, grading and reclamation, all measures shall be taken to eliminate damages to members of the public, their real and personal property, public roads, streams and all other public property from soil erosion, rolling stones and overburden, water pollution and hazards dangerous to life and property. The plan shall be submitted to the department and the department shall notify the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail within thirty (30) [twenty (20)] working days after receipt of the plan [plans] and complete application if it is or is not acceptable. If the plan is not acceptable, the department shall set forth the reasons for which the plan is not acceptable and it may propose modifications, delete areas or reject the entire plan. Should the applicant disagree with the decision of the department, he may, by written notice, request a hearing conducted by the department in the manner provided by KRS 224.083. The department shall notify the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail within twenty (20) days after the hearing of its decision. Any person aggrieved by a final order of the department may appeal through the courts as set forth in KRS 224.085.

(2) In addition to the method of operation, grading, backfilling and reclamation requirements of this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the operator, consistent with the directives of subsection (1) above, shall be required to perform the following:

(a) Cover the face of the coal with compacted nonacid bearing and nontoxic materials to a distance of at least four (4) feet above the seam being strip mined or by a permanent water impoundment;

(b) Bury under adequate fill all toxic materials, roof coal, pyritic coal or shale determined by the department to be acid producing, toxic, or creating a fire hazard;

(c) Seal off, as directed by regulations, any break through of acid water creating a hazard;

(d) Impound, drain or treat all runoff water so as to reduce soil erosion, damage to agricultural lands and pollution of streams and other waters;

(e) Remove or bury all metal, lumber, and other refuse resulting from the operation.

(3) No operator shall throw, dump, pile or permit the dumping, piling or throwing or otherwise placing any overburden, stones, rocks, coal, particles of coal, earth, soil, dirt, debris, trees, wood, logs, or any other materials or substances of any kind or nature beyond or outside of the area of land which is under permit and for which bond has been posted under KRS 350.060 or place such materials herein described in such a way that normal erosion or slides brought about by natural physical causes will permit such materials to go beyond or outside of the area of land which is under permit and for which bond has been posted under KRS 350.060.

Section 2. KRS 350.093 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On lands where the method of operation does not produce a bench (area strip mining), complete backfilling shall be required, beginning at or beyond the top of the highwall and sloped to the toe of the spoil bank at a maximum angle not to exceed the approximate original contour of the land with no depressions to accumulate water. Such backfilling shall eliminate all highwalls and spoil peaks. Whenever directed by the department, the operator shall construct in the final grading, such diversion ditches or terraces as will control the water runoff on long uninterrupted slopes. Additional restoration work may be required by the department according to regulations adopted by the department.

(2) On lands where the method of operation produces a bench (contour strip mining), terrace backfilling shall be required and performed as follows:

(a) All highwalls must be reduced or backfilled. The steepest slope of the reduced or backfilled highwall and of the outer slope of the fill bench shall be no greater than forty-five degrees (45) from the horizontal; provided, however, if the highwall is composed of solid rock and sufficient soil is not available to backfill or cover the solid rock suitable to establish vegetative cover, the department, by regulation, may make modifications to the requirements of this section;

(b) The table portion of the restored area shall be a terrace;

(c) Whenever excess spoil is placed in the head-of-the-hollow fills, it shall be compacted under regulations promulgated by the department;

(d) Ridge fills shall not exceed a depth of ten (10) feet;

(e) The restored area shall have a minimum depth of four (4) feet of fill over the floor of the pit from which the coal has been removed;

(f) There shall be no depressions to accumulate water but lateral drainage ditches connecting to natural or constructed waterways shall be constructed whenever directed by the department;

(g) Additional restoration work may be required by the department according to regulations adopted by the department;

(h) In addition to the backfilling and grading requirements above, the operator's method of operation on steep slopes shall be regulated and controlled according to regulations adopted by the department. Such regulations shall limit bench widths, shall limit the amount of overburden to be placed beyond the solid bench to forty percent (40%) or less of the material disturbed except where the mineral is recovered by the auger method of mining only and without blasting, may prohibit any overburden from being placed beyond the solid bench on precipitous slopes as defined by the department, or may require any measure whatsoever to accomplish the purpose of this chapter.

(3) An operator may propose alternative plans other than backfilling where a water impoundment is desired, if such restoration will be consistent with the purpose of this chapter. Such plans are to be submitted to the department, and if such plans are approved by the department and complied with within the time limits as may be determined by the department as being reasonable for carrying out such plans, the backfilling requirements of this chapter may be modified by the department.

(4) As determined by regulations of the department, time limits shall be established requiring backfilling, grading and planting to be kept current. All backfilling and grading shall be completed before necessary equipment is moved from the operation.

(5) If the operator or other person desires to conduct drift mining upon the premises or use the openings for haulageways or other lawful purposes, the operator may designate locations to be used for such purposes at which places it will not be necessary to backfill as herein provided for until such drift mining or other use is completed, during which time the bond on file for that portion of the operation shall not be released. That portion of such locations shall be described and designated on the map attached thereto.

(6) When the backfilling and grading have been completed and approved by the department and[,] the soil ph level required by department regulations has been satisfied, the secretary shall release the bond which was filed for that portion of such operation in its full amount less three hundred dollars ($300) [two hundred dollars ($200)] per acre, which shall be retained by the department until such time as the planting and revegetation is done according to law and approved by the department, at which time the secretary shall release the bond in the remaining amount of three hundred dollars ($300) [two hundred dollars ($200)] per acre.

Section 3. KRS 350.110 is amended to read as follows:

If the department authorizes an operator to defer planting to provide vegetative cover for an area of land, it shall set the time within which such planting shall be carried out. If the operator has carried out on that area of land the method of operation, backfilling, grading and reclamation plans approved by the department other than the planting, the department shall issue to the operator and to his surety a release of his surety bond or other securities held on deposit for each acre of land for which such method of operation, backfilling, grading, and reclamation have been carried out, and the soil ph level required by department regulations has been satisfied less the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) [two hundred dollars ($200)] for each acre, but in no case shall the bond be reduced below two thousand dollars ($2,000) except as provided in KRS 350.060. The remaining amount of the bond of three hundred dollars ($300) [two hundred dollars ($200)] for each acre of land affected shall remain in the possession of the department until a satisfactory planting plan has been carried out, or until it has been forfeited by the operator. If the remainder is forfeited, it shall be expended by the department in a planting program for the area of land for which it has been posted. If the operator does not meet the planting requirements but does not want his bond forfeited, he may pay to the department a sufficient sum to cover the remaining reclamation costs and the bond filed by him as surety may then be released by the department.

SB 155, AN ACT relating to the establishment of a Kentucky Nature Preserves System.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 146 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Kentucky Nature Preserves Act."

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 146 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

All areas within the borders of the Commonwealth, except those which are expressly dedicated by law for preservation and protection in their natural condition, are subject to alteration by human activity. As part of the continuing growth of the population and the economic development of the Commonwealth, it is necessary and desirable that the overall impact on the natural ecology be considered when major alterations are proposed affecting same, and that certain areas of unusual natural significance be set aside and preserved for the benefit of present and future generations. Such unique areas are valuable as laboratories for scientific research, as reservoirs of natural materials not all of the uses of which are now known, as habitats for plant and animal species and biotic communities, as living museums of the native landscape where people may observe nature's web of life and our natural heritage, as places of historic and natural interest and scenic beauty, and as reminders of the vital human dependence upon fresh air, clean water, and unspoiled natural areas.

It is therefore the public policy of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to secure for the people of present and future generations the benefits of an enduring resource of natural areas by establishing a system of nature preserves, protecting these areas and gathering and disseminating information regarding them, establishing and maintaining a registry of natural areas and otherwise encouraging and assisting in the preservation of natural areas and features.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 146 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in this Act:

(1) "Natural area" means any area of land or water, or of both land and water, in public or private ownership, which either retains, or has reestablished to some degree in the judgment of the commission its natural character, though it need not be completely natural and undisturbed, or which has natural flora, fauna, biological, ecological, geological, scenic or archaelogical features of scientific, esthetic, cultural or education interest;

(2) "Natural preserve" means a natural area, and land necessary for its protection, any estate, interest or right in which has been formally dedicated under the provisions of this Act to be maintained as nearly as possible in its natural condition and to be used in a manner and under limitations consistent with its continued preservation, without impairment, disturbance or artificial development, for the public purposes of present and future scientific research, education, esthetic enjoyment and habitat for plant and animal species and other natural objects;

(3) "Articles of Dedication" means the writing by which any estate, interest or right in a natural area is formally dedicated as provided in this Act;

(4) "Commission" means the Kentucky Nature Preserves Commission;
(5) "System" means the state system of nature preserves established under this Act;

No natural area shall be construed to be unworthy of preservation because it is not included in the register. Publication of the register is notice to all public agencies that the registered natural areas are worthy of preservation.

(3) To acquire the fee simple interest or any one or more lesser estates, interests and rights therein, including, but not limited to, leasehold estates, easements, and licenses either granting the Commonwealth specified rights of use or licenses denying to the grantor specified rights of use, or both. Lesser than fee simple estates, particularly scenic easements, should be sought in the establishment of trails or other narrow or elongated or extensive uses.

(4) For the purpose of protecting a nature preserve, adjoining land that is not otherwise suitable for dedication as part of the nature preserve may be dedicated as buffer area in the same manner as provided in this Act for the dedication of a nature preserve. A dedicated buffer area shall have the same protection under this Act as a nature preserve.

(5) An estate, interest or right in a natural area may be dedicated by any agency of the Commonwealth having jurisdiction thereof, by any other unit of government within the state having jurisdiction thereof, and by private owners thereof in the same manner as the ordinary conveyance of land. A dedication shall be deemed effective, and a natural area shall become a nature preserve only upon the acceptance of the articles of dedication by the commission. Articles of dedication shall be placed on public record in the proper place for recording deeds in the county or counties in which the area is located, and with the commission at its Frankfort office.

(6) Articles of dedication may contain restrictions relating to management, use, development, transfer, and public access, as well as such other provisions as may be necessary to further the purposes of this Act. Specifically, the donor, devisor or grantor of the preserve may prescribe the places where, and the means by which, the public may secure access to the preserve so as to protect the preserve from overuse and maintain the unencumbered private use of undedicated lands adjoining the preserve. The articles may likewise provide penalties and procedures to be applied in case of violation of their provisions. The articles may recognize and create reversionary rights, transfers upon conditions, and gifts. The articles may vary in provisions from one nature preserve to another in accordance with differences in the characteristics and conditions of the areas involved, or for other reasons found necessary by the commission and the landowner.

(7) Upon such terms and conditions as the commission may determine, the commission may enter into amendments of any articles of dedication upon a finding by the commission that such amendments will not permit an impairment, disturbance, use or development of the area inconsistent with the purposes of the articles of dedication or of this Act; provided, however, that if the fee simple interest in the area is not held by the Commonwealth of Kentucky under this Act, no amendment shall be made without the written consent of the owner or owners of the other interests therein.

HR 65, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION petitioning the Congress of the United States to adopt a resolution submitting an amendment to the Constitution of the United States concerning recall of federal judiciary, initiative and referendum.

WHEREAS, the right of the American people to petition the government for redress of grievances is a basic Constitutional right; and

WHEREAS, the federal judiciary is removed from the redress of grievances of the people except through the drastic and limited measure of impeachment by the Congress; and

WHEREAS, the people should have the opportunity to reject or implement legislation if the elected officials do not respond to the convictions of the majority of the electorate; and

WHEREAS, democracy shall be strengthened when the people know that the power of their votes can bring direct results when the system of government does not reflect the majority's voice;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. That Congress shall adopt a resolution submitting an amendment to the Constitution of the United States granting the right of initiative and referendum to the people and providing for recall of the members of the federal judiciary, including, but not limited to the members of the Supreme Court.

Section 2. That a duly attested copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, each member of the Congress from this state and to each House of each state legislature in the United States.

HR 75, A JOINT RESOLUTION ratifying the thirteenth, the fourteenth and the fifteenth amendments to the United States Constitution.

WHEREAS, the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments of the United States Constitution have been duly ratified and have been a part of the United States Constitution since 1865, 1868 and 1870 respectively; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky rejected the fourteenth amendment on January 10, 1867 and has not ratified the thirteenth and fifteenth amendments; and

WHEREAS, the thirteenth amendment abolishes slavery; the fourteenth amendment grants citizenship to all persons born or naturalized in the United States, guarantees due process of law and equal protection under the law to citizens of the United States; and the fifteenth amendment requires that no person be denied the right to vote on account of race or color; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky is long overdue in ratifying these amendments so vital to our democracy, although, fortunately, the effectiveness of these amendments does not depend on Kentucky's ratification or lack of it; and

WHEREAS, this Bicentennial Year is an appropriate time to erase this shadow on Kentucky's history;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which reads as follows, is hereby ratified:

(2) Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

(3) No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

(4) The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

(5) The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

If facilities are available and an authorized staff physician agrees, the person may be lodged in a hospital rather than a jail pending a hearing as provided in this section. If the physician after an examination of the individual certifies in writing that in his opinion the individual is a mentally ill person and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others as a result of mental illness and can reasonably benefit from treatment, and that hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment, then he shall be taken before a judge of a circuit, county or police court within forty-eight (48) hours of detention (excluding weekends and holidays). The hearing may be held by the court in chambers if feasible. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the respondent is (a) a mentally ill person, (b) because of his illness presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, (c) that the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment requires hospitalization, and (d) that treatment which can reasonably benefit the respondent is available in the hospital, then the court shall order the individual hospitalized in a hospital selected by the department for a period not to exceed seven (7) consecutive days.

(4) If at the end of seven (7) consecutive days a formal application has not been made for a further hospitalization under the provisions of this Act, then the patient shall be discharged and the court issuing the hospitalization order notified of the date of release.

(5) When a formal application has been made for a further involuntary hospitalization under the provisions of this Act, the patient shall not be retained in the hospital longer than twenty-one (21) days from the date of application without a hearing and order of the appropriate court pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Act unless the patient agrees to remain voluntarily.

(2) The person signing the complaint must state under oath that he believes that the individual to be restrained is mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others if not restrained. If, from the complaint, it appears to the judge that there is probable cause to believe that the person named is mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, he shall issue a warrant of arrest for the person named. After the warrant and arrest have been executed, the named individual shall be taken to a physician for examination, or if facilities are available and an authorized staff physician agrees, the person may be lodged in a hospital rather than a jail pending a hearing. The court issuing the warrant under this statute shall hold a hearing within forty-eight (48) hours (excluding weekends and holidays) to determine whether the individual should be involuntarily committed to a hospital for a period of seven (7) days.

(3) Respondent's presence at the hearing may be waived by the respondent.

(4) The respondent shall be represented at this hearing by an attorney either retained by respondent or provided by the Commonwealth. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses against him. The court may in its discretion receive the testimony of any other persons. The hearing shall be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers if feasible. If upon the completion of the hearing the court finds that the respondent is (a) a mentally ill person, (b) because of this illness presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, (c) that the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment requires hospitalization, and (d) that treatment which can reasonably benefit the respondent is available in the hospital, then the court shall order the respondent hospitalized in a hospital selected by the department for a period not to exceed seven (7) consecutive days.

(5) If at the end of seven (7) consecutive days a formal application has not been made for a further hospitalization under the provisions of this Act, then the patient shall be discharged and the court issuing the hospitalization order notified of the release date.

(6) When a formal application has been made for a further involuntary hospitalization under the provisions of this Act, the patient shall not be retained in the hospital longer than twenty-one (21) days from the date of application without a hearing and order of the appropriate court pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Act, unless the patient agrees to remain voluntarily.

(1) Any friend, relative, spouse or guardian of an individual may file a petition with the circuit court for a determination of the mental condition of the individual located in the county, setting forth facts verified by affidavit that allege that the petitioner believes that the named individual is mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others if not immediately restrained.

(2) The petition shall request a hearing to determine the mental condition of an individual under the provisions of this Act. The petition shall set forth: (a) the name, residence and location, if known, of the person concerning whom the petition is filed; (b) the name and residence of the parents, if living and if known to the petitioner, or his legal guardian, if any, and if known to the petitioner; (c) the name and residence of the husband or wife, if any, if known to the petitioner; (d) the name and residence of the person having custody of such person, or if no such person is known, the name and residence of a near relative or that such person is unknown; (e) such facts and any other pertinent data that led the petitioner to believe that the named individual is mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others if not immediately restrained.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Proceedings for involuntary hospitalization of an individual for sixty (60) consecutive days may be initiated by filing a petition as described in this Act in the appropriate circuit court or county court if the circuit court is not in session.

(2) Upon receipt of the petition the court shall give notice to the respondent, to his legal guardian, if any, and to his spouse, parent, or nearest known relative or friend concerning the allegations and contents of the petition and proposed hearing.

(3) As soon as practicable, after notice of the commencement of the proceedings is given to the respondent, the court shall appoint two (2) physicians to examine the respondent and certify to the court their findings as to whether the respondent is a mentally ill person who presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others as a result of mental illness and who can reasonably benefit from treatment. Each physician shall also certify as to whether in his opinion hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment presently available. The examination shall be held at a hospital or other medical facility or any other suitable place not likely to have a harmful effect on the patient's health.

(4) The court may, after reviewing the allegations contained in the petition, issue a warrant for the arrest of the person named in the petition. Such person if arrested on such warrant shall be conveyed immediately to any hospital, medical facility or institution approved by the secretary and shall be there examined by two (2) physicians. The physicians shall certify to the court their findings as to whether the respondent is a mentally ill person who presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others as a result of mental illness and who can reasonably benefit from treatment. Each physician shall also certify as to whether in his opinion hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment presently available.

(5) If after their examination the physicians certify that the respondent is a mentally ill person who presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others as a result of mental illness and that he can reasonably benefit from treatment and that hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment presently available, then such person may be retained in the hospital pending a hearing and order of the appropriate court, or may be transported to an appropriate hospital for retention. In no case shall the patient be retained in a hospital longer than twenty-one (21) days from the date of the examination without a hearing and order of the appropriate court.

(6) If the criteria for involuntary hospitalization as set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section are not certified, the court may, without taking any further action, terminate the proceedings and dismiss the application. Otherwise, the court shall forthwith fix a date and notice of a hearing and render an order within twenty-one (21) days from the date of the examination of the respondent.

(7) The respondent shall be represented at such hearing by an attorney either retained by the respondent or provided by the Commonwealth. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses against him. The court may in its discretion receive the testimony of any other person. The hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place.

(8) Respondent's presence at the hearing may be waived by the respondent or respondent may be excused from the hearing upon a finding that respondent's presence would seriously disrupt the proceedings or that the respondent's presence at the hearing would be harmful to respondent.

(9) If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the respondent is (a) a mentally ill person, (b) because of this illness presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, (c) that the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment requires hospitalization, and (d) that treatment which can reasonably benefit the respondent is available in the hospital, then the court shall order the individual hospitalized in a hospital selected by the department for a period not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days.

(10) The hospitalization under this section shall be for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) consecutive days from the date of the court order. Release shall be by writ of habeas corpus pursuant to the provisions of this section except that a staff physician may release the patient subject to the provisions of this Act.

(11) When a formal application has been made for a further involuntary hospitalization under the provisions of this Act, the patient shall not be retained in the hospital longer than twenty-one (21) days from the date of application without a hearing and order of the appropriate court pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Act, unless the patient agrees to remain voluntarily.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If an individual has been hospitalized for a period of thirty (30) days under the provisions of this Act, proceedings for involuntary hospitalization of an individual for three hundred sixty (360) consecutive days may be initiated by filing a petition in the appropriate circuit court or county court if the circuit court is not in session.

(2) As soon as practicable, after notice of the commence of the proceedings is given to respondent, the court shall appoint two (2) physicians to examine the respondent and certify to the court their findings as to whether the respondent is a mentally ill person who presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others as a result of mental illness and who can reasonably benefit from treatment. Each physician shall also certify as to whether in his opinion hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment presently available. The examination shall be held at a hospital or other medical facility or any other suitable place not likely to have a harmful effect on the patient's health.

(3) If the criteria for involuntary hospitalization as set forth in subsection (2) of this section are not certified, the court may, without taking any further action, terminate the proceedings and dismiss the application. Otherwise, it shall forthwith fix a date and notice of a hearing and render an order within twenty-one (21) days from the date of the filing of the petition.

(4) The respondent shall be represented at such hearing by an attorney either retained by the respondent or provided by the Commonwealth. The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present, and cross-examine witnesses against him. The court may in its discretion receive the testimony of any other persons. The hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental health of the respondent. The court shall impanel a jury unless waived by the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a hospital, or other suitable place.

(5) Respondent's presence at the hearing may be waived by the respondent or respondent may be excused from the hearing upon the finding that respondent's presence would seriously disrupt the proceedings or that the respondent's presence at the hearing would be harmful to respondent.

(6) If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the respondent is (a) a mentally ill person, (b) because of this illness presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, (c) that the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment requires hospitalization, and (d) that treatment which can reasonably benefit the respondent is available in the hospital, then the court shall order the individual hospitalized in a hospital selected by the department, for a period not to exceed three hundred sixty (360) consecutive days.

(7) The hospitalization under this section shall be for a period of time not to exceed three hundred sixty (360) consecutive days from the date of the court order. Hospitalization for a period of time to exceed three hundred sixty (360) days requires a new hearing and court order under the provisions of this section. Release shall be by writ of habeas corpus pursuant to the provisions of this section except that an authorized staff physician may release the patient subject to the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The certificate referred to in this Act shall be in the form prescribed by the department. The certificate shall state that the respondent has been examined by each of the examining physicians making the certificate within three (3) days prior to the date of the certificate. It shall state the facts and circumstances upon which the judgment of the examining physician is based and shall be sworn to before a notary or the clerk or judge of the court.

(2) When a person has been hospitalized under the provisions of this Act requiring a petition and certification of two (2) physicians, said certification may be accepted by the circuit or county court as evidence in lieu of direct testimony from the physicians, whenever the presence of the two (2) physicians at the hearing is waived by the respondent.

(3) Where possible the persons selected by the court to perform examinations as described in this Act and KRS Chapters 203 and 210 shall have made a special study of mental illness. The examiner shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for such examination and certification, to be paid by the county in which the petition is filed, upon a certified copy of an order of allowance made by the court holding the hearing.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The court which orders any person to a hospital, selected by the department, under the provisions of this Act, shall at once notify the department that such order has been made, advising of the sex and condition of the person.

(2) After the department has been so notified, the court shall order the sheriff of the county to transport the patient within forty-eight (48) hours (excluding weekends and holidays) from the county in which the person is located to the hospital designated by the department. The actual traveling expenses of persons transporting the patient to the institution shall be paid by the department. Each female committed to an institution shall be accompanied by a female attendant, unless accompanied by her mother, father, sister, brother, husband, daughter, or son.

(3) In returning any patient to the county from which he is sent, the cost of returning him shall be paid in the same manner, when necessary.

(4) Whenever an individual is involuntarily hospitalized by a court order the patient shall be transported to the hospital designated by the department and accompanied by the following documents: (a) a copy of the petition for involuntary hospitalization, unless hospitalization takes place pursuant to Section 5 of this Act, (b) the certificate of examining physicians, and (c) the order of involuntary hospitalization.

(5) The hospital may refuse to receive any person who has been ordered to be involuntarily hospitalized by a court order if the papers presented with such person at the hospital do not comply with the provisions of this Act or if it does not receive notification of the order of involuntary hospitalization as required by this Act.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any person admitted to a hospital pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be initially examined by an authorized staff physician of the hospital as soon as practicable but not later than thirty-six (36) hours and a report entered into the medical record not later than forty-eight (48) hours after his admission.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An authorized staff physician of a hospital shall discharge an involuntary patient when he concludes that the patient no longer is mentally ill, no longer presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, or when he believes that the patient can no longer reasonably benefit from treatment in the hospital.

SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An authorized staff physician may release an involuntary patient on convalescent status when the physician concludes that the patient would not present an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others if provided with continued medical supervision in a less restrictive alternative mode of treatment. Release on convalescent status shall include notification to the hospitalizing court. Release on convalescent leave status does not terminate the involuntary hospitalization order and shall include provisions for a continuing responsibility by the hospital, and will include a plan of treatment by the hospital.

(2) The hospital from which such patient is given convalescent status may at any time readmit the patient without additional court proceedings. If there is reason to believe that it is to the best interest of the patient to be rehospitalized, the secretary or an authorized staff physician of the hospital may issue an order for the immediate rehospitalization of the patient. Such an order, if not voluntarily complied with, shall upon the endorsement by a judge of any court of the county in which the patient is a resident or is present, authorize any health or police officer to take the patient into custody and transport him to the responsible hospital. Notice of rehospitalization under this section shall be given to the originating court as soon as practicable and simultaneously with the order directing the rehospitalization if possible.

(3) Release on convalescent status shall not apply to persons held under hospitalization orders arising out of criminal offense unless consent of the appropriate court is obtained.

SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Legal residents of the state who have become public charges in other states and have been returned to Kentucky because they have been adjudged mentally ill by the state returning them may be immediately admitted to a hospital at the request of the secretary or his designated representative.

(2) Within seventy-two (72) hours (excluding holidays) of the admission date, the staff of the hospital shall determine the need of the person for further hospitalization. If two authorized staff physicians conclude that the patient is mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, and can reasonably benefit from treatment in a hospital, and hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment available, they shall file in the appropriate court a certification requesting involuntary hospitalization procedures to be initiated under the provisions of this Act or KRS Chapter 203 or 210, unless the patient has agreed to remain voluntarily.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If an individual ordered to be hospitalized pursuant to this Act is eligible for hospital care or treatment by any agency of the United States, the court, upon receipt of certificate from such agency showing that facilities are available and that the individual is eligible for care or treatment therein, may order him to be placed in the custody of such agency for hospitalization. When any such individual is admitted pursuant to the order of such court to any hospital or institution operated by any agency of the United States within or without the state, he shall be subject to the rules and regulations of such agency. The chief officer of any hospital or institution operated by such agency and in which the individual is so hospitalized shall with respect to such individuals be vested with the same powers as the chief medical officers of hospitals within the state with respect to detention, custody, transfer, conditional release or discharge of patients. Jurisdiction is retained in the appropriate courts of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of an individual so hospitalized and to determine the necessity for continuance of the hospitalization, and every order of hospitalization issued pursuant to this section is so conditioned.

(2) An order of court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia authorizing hospitalization of an individual by any agency of the United States shall have the same force and effect as to the individual while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the order; the courts or the district issuing the order shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the individual so hospitalized for the purpose of inquiring into his mental condition and determining the necessity for continuance of his hospitalization as is provided in subsection (1) of this section with respect to individuals ordered hospitalized by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the district in which is located the court issuing the order for hospitalization with respect to the authority of the chief officer of any hospital or institution operated in this state by any agency of the United States to retain custody, transfer, conditionally release, or discharge the individual hospitalized.

SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Upon receipt of a certificate of the United States Public Health Service or such other agency of the United States Government that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore hospitalized in any mental hospital or other institution in this state for the care of mentally ill persons and that such person is eligible for such care or treatment, the secretary, upon recommendation by any such hospital or institution in this state, is hereby authorized to cause the transfer of any such person to the United States Public Health Service or other agency of the United States Government for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the hospitalizing court shall be notified thereof by the secretary.

(2) Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be placed in the custody of the United States Public Health Service or other agency of the United States Government pursuant to the original hospitalization the same as if he had been originally so hospitalized.

(3) No person shall be transferred to any agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of mental illness unless prior to transfer the court issuing the confining order shall enter an order for transfer after the motion and hearing. Any person transferred as provided in this section to any agency of the United States shall be hospitalized by such agency pursuant to the original order of hospitalization.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The chief medical officer of the hospital shall provide reasonable means and arrangements for informing voluntary and involuntary patients of their rights as provided in this Act.

(2) Voluntary patients shall be informed of their rights to release under this Act and arrangements shall be made for assisting voluntary patients in making and presenting requests for release.

(3) Any individual who has been involuntarily hospitalized under the provisions of this Act or KRS Chapter 203 or 210 shall be entitled to a writ of habeas corpus upon proper petition by himself or a friend to any court generally empowered to issue the writ of habeas corpus in the county in which he is detained.

(4) Subject to the general rules and regulations of the hospital any patient voluntarily or involuntarily hospitalized under any section of this Act or KRS Chapter 203 or 210 may exercise all civil rights including but not limited to the right to dispose of property, execute instruments, make purchases, enter into contractual relationships and vote unless he has been adjudicated incompetent and has not been restored to legal capacity. Each patient has the right to communicate by sealed mail. Each patient, notwithstanding any limitations authorized under this section on the right of communication, shall have the right to communicate by sealed mail with his attorney, the court, and the office of the secretary at the expense of the department.

SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The secretary shall adopt rules and regulations for the proper administration and enforcement of this Act. Such rules and regulations shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(1) rights of patients to be adequately informed as to their individual treatment program;
(2) rights of patients to assist in the planning of their treatment program;
(3) rights of patients under certain conditions to refuse treatment offered to them by the hospital;
(4) rights of patients to maintain, keep and use personal possessions and money;
(5) rights of patients to meet with friends and relatives;

(9) the rights of patients who are minors to seek relief from actions for or against hospitalization and discharge approved by their parents or guardians;
(10) the use of seclusion and other mechanical restraints in hospitals;
(11) the transfer of patients between hospitals or between hospitals and forensic phychiatric facilities;
(12) the release of patients to less restrictive alternative modes of treatment on convalescent status; and
(13) provisions for alternate methods for involuntary hospitalization.

SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Whenever an inmate of any penal and correctional institution is reported by the staff of that institution to the secretary as being so mentally ill that he cannot be properly treated with the facilities at the disposal of the staff, the secretary shall have an examination conducted on such inmate by a physician.

(2) If this examination reveals that the inmate is mentally ill and appropriate treatment cannot be properly carried out in the institution in which he is incarcerated, the secretary may then order his transfer to a hospital or forensic phychiatric facility, where he shall remain until the staff of the facility which received him advises the secretary that his condition has so far improved that he may be returned to the institution from which he came. The secretary shall then authorize his return. If the prisoner's sentence expires during his stay in the facility, and he is still mentally ill and presents an immediate danger or an immediate threat of danger to self or others, and he can reasonably benefit from treatment in a hospital, and hospitalization is the least restrictive alternative mode of treatment available, then the staff of the facility shall notify the court which sentenced the individual to the penal institution and petition said court for involuntary commitment of the patient under provisions of this Act.

(3) During the time of the prisoner's stay in a facility his legal status as a prisoner shall remain unchanged until the termination of his sentence. The facility staff shall have no authority to parole, grant permission to visit relatives or friends outside the facility, or discharge the individual. The time the prisoner spends in the facility shall be counted as a part of the prisoner's sentence.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Persons carrying out duties or rendering professional opinions as provided in this Act shall be free of personal liability for such actions, provided that such activities are performed in good faith within the scope of their official duties and in a manner consistent with accepted professional practices.

Any person who wilfully causes or conspires with or assists another in causing:

(1) the unwarranted hospitalization of any individual under the provisions of this Act, KRS Chapters 203 and 210; or

(2) the denial of any individual of any of the rights accorded to him under the provisions of this Act, KRS Chapters 203 and 210 shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned for a term not to exceed five (5) years or both.

Section 23. KRS 210.005 is amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, "mentally retarded" and "mentally defective" have the same meaning. They apply to one or more "mentally retarded persons," as the singular of that term is defined in KRS Chapter 202B [202.010].

Section 24. KRS 210.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Pursuant to agreement entered into by the heads of the departments concerned, a patient or inmate of a state institution operated by one state department may be transferred to a state institution operated by another state department, except that:

(a) An inmate may be transferred from a penal or correctional institution only as provided in KRS Chapter 202A [202.380] and KRS 431.240;

(b) No patient or inmate may be transferred to a penal or correctional institution unless he has been committed to such institution by judgment of a court;

(c) No patient or inmate may be transferred to an institution for the mentally ill or mentally retarded except for a period of observation not to exceed sixty (60) days, unless he has been hospitalized in accordance with Section 9 of this Act [for an indeterminate period]. However, this shall not apply to transfers under Section 20 of this Act or KRS [202.380 or] 431.240.

In addition to the specific authority granted by other provisions of KRS chapters 202A, 202B [202], 203 and 210, the department for human resources shall have authority to prescribe the form of applications, records, reports, and medical certificates provided for under KRS chapters 202A, 202B [202], 203 and 210 and the information required to be contained therein; to require reports from the head of any hospital relating to the admission examination, diagnosis, release or discharge of any patient; to visit hospitals regularly to review the hospitalization procedures of all new patients admitted between visits; to investigate by personal visit complaints made by any persons on behalf of any patients or by any patients themselves; and to adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of KRS chapters 202A, 202B [202], 203 and 210 as it may find to be reasonably necessary for proper and efficient hospitalization of the mentally ill.

Section 26. KRS 210.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department for human resources may be appointed and act as executor, administrator, guardian, or committee, as provided in this section. (3) Upon the death of a person for whom the department has been appointed committee, or upon the death of a person who has been committed to the department leaving an estate and having no relatives at the time residing within the state, the department may apply for appointment as administrator and upon appointment shall close the administration of the estate.

(4) The department may invest funds held as fiduciary in bonds or other securities guaranteed by the United States, and may sell or exchange such securities in its discretion.

(5) The department shall receive such fees for its fiduciary services as provided by law. These fees shall be placed in a trust and agency account, from which may be drawn expenses for filing fees, court costs and other expenses incurred in the administration of estates. Claims of the department against the estates shall be considered in the same manner as any other claim.

(6) An officer designated by the secretary may act as legal counsel for any patient in a state mental hospital or institution against whom a suit of any nature has been filed, without being appointed as committee.

(7) Patients hospitalized pursuant to KRS chapters 202A and 202B [chapter 202] who are not adjudged mentally incompetent may authorize the department for human resources to handle personal funds received by them at the hospital in the same manner as prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

Section 27. KRS 210.991 is amended to read as follows:

(3) The department may accept gifts, bequests, contributions and patient fees, at its discretion, and use such funds to further the purposes of this section.

(4) The department may establish rules and regulations for the admission of patients to its facilities and may set fees for treatment. Except as otherwise provided by law, all provisions of KRS chapters 202A, 202B [202], 203 and 210 relating to charges and collections for treatment of the mentally ill shall apply to fees and collection of fees for treatment of alcoholics, drug abusers or drug addicts.

The execution shall take place before sunrise on the day designated in the judgment.

(2) If the condemned person is insane or pregnant with child on the day designated for the execution, the execution shall be suspended until the condemned is restored to sanity or is delivered of child. The execution shall then take place under the warrant of the Governor and at the time designated by him, unless stayed by due process of law. If execution is suspended on the ground of insanity, the Commissioner of Corrections may, after an examination as provided in KRS Chapter 202A [202.380], transfer the condemned person to one of the state institutions for the treatment of the mentally afflicted, until such time as he is restored to sanity.

(3) If the condemned person escapes from custody and is recaptured after the expiration of the date fixed for the execution, the Governor, upon receiving written notice of the recapture from the superintendent of the penitentiary, shall send his warrant of execution to the superintendent by special messenger and shall name therein the day of execution. The superintendent shall then proceed to the execution thereof according to the provisions of KRS 431.215 to 431.270.

(4) Whenever a judgment of death has not been executed on the day appointed therefor by the court, from any cause whatever, the Governor, by a warrant under his hand and the seal of the Commonwealth, shall fix the day of the execution, which warrant shall be obeyed by the superintendent of the penitentiary.

(2) To facilitate the procedure established in subsection (1), the court, if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant will cause injury to himself or others if not immediately restrained, may order him to be hospitalized in a state hospital for a period not to exceed seven consecutive days. The order of commitment under this subsection shall be pursuant to and under the authority of KRS Chapter 202A or 202B [202.027 and shall be subject to all of the provisions of that statute].

Section 32. KRS 504.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person who, as a result of mental disease or defect, lacks capacity to appreciate the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to participate rationally in his own defense shall be tried, convicted or sentenced for the commission of an offense, so long as such incapacity endures.

(2) When a defendant is found to have a mental disease or defect, as described in subsection (1), the court may on motion of the prosecuting attorney or on its own motion proceed immediately to have the defendant committed for examination and possible detention pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 202A or 202B [202].

(2) As soon as the board has determined that an applicant has successfully passed the examination, a license to practice dental hygiene in this state shall be issued by the board to such applicant. The license shall be for one (1) calendar year or for the remaining portion thereof if issued as of a date after January 1. Each license shall be renewed from year to year, except for cause as herein provided.

The board may at any time proceed against a licensee on its own initiative either on the basis of information contained in its own records or on the basis of information obtained through its informal investigation. When a formal complaint verified by affidavit is filed with the board by a responsible citizen or organization and containing allegations that if true would warrant suspension or revocation of a license, the board shall proceed against the licensee within three (3) months.*

(4) A written notice stating grounds for possible suspension or revocation of the license, setting forth with reasonable particularity the facts constituting the alleged offense and the time and place of the hearing before the board on the charges, shall be served on the charged licensee not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the hearing either personally or by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested to the address of the licensee last known to the board.

The board shall keep a record of said hearing, the testimony so taken and its findings on the charges. If the board by a majority affirmative vote shall sustain the charges, it may revoke or suspend the license of the respondent licensee [person suspended], in which event the board shall thereupon give written notice [in the same manner as provided for the giving of notice of suspension,] to the holder of the license which has been revoked or suspended.

(2) The person whose license has been revoked or suspended shall have the right within thirty (30) [twenty (20)] days or receipt of notice of the board's action to appeal to the Franklin County Circuit Court. In the event the person whose license has been revoked or suspended shall fail to so appeal, the action of the board [in revoking his license] shall be final.

(3) The action of the board shall be recorded in the same manner as licenses are recorded, and the name of the person whose license is revoked or suspended shall be stricken either indefinitely or for the period of the suspension from the list of license holders [,] and he shall be disqualified from practicing chiropractic in this state until such time as the revocation or suspension is terminated.

Section 18. KRS 312.165 is amended to read as follows:

Satisfactory evidence of attendance of post graduate study at an institution approved by the board shall be considered equivalent. Provided, however, That licenses may be renewed by the board, at its discretion, and the applicant may be excused from paying the renewal fee or attending the annual educational program or both in instances where the [:

(1) The] applicant submits an affidavit to the board evidencing that he or she, for good cause assigned, suffered a hardship which prevented the applicant from renewing the license or attending the educational program at the proper time.

(2) *The executive secretary of the board shall send a written notice to every person holding a valid license to practice chiropractic within this state at least thirty (30) days prior to the first day of March in each year, directed to the last known address of the licensee, and shall enclose with the notice proper blank forms for application for annual license renewal. The executive secretary shall, within thirty (30) days, notify every person failing to renew his license after it is due that he is delinquent. Each adjustment or treatment shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any advertisement or sign of whatsoever nature to induce the public to believe that one is a chiropractor or practices chiropractic shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this Chapter [KRS 312.015 to 312.185], provided the person displaying such sign or causing such advertisement has not been licensed to practice chiropractic as provided in this Chapter [KRS 312.015 to 312.185].

*(3) Whenever in the judgment of the board any person has engaged or is about to engage in the acts or practices that constitute, or will constitute, a violation of any of the provisions of this Chapter or the rules and regulations adopted by the board, the board may make application to the Franklin Circuit Court for an order enjoining such acts or practices. Upon determination that any employer under this chapter has failed to comply with these provisions the board shall promptly notify interested government agencies of said failure and with particular reference to employers engaged in coal mining the board shall promptly report any such failures to the department of mines and minerals so that appropriate action may be undertaken pursuant to KRS 351.175.

Cancellation of insurance shall automatically revoke any and all elections by the employer to operate under the provisions of this chapter.*

In no case shall the fee exceed $6,500.00. Provided, however, the board, in making an allowance of attorney fees, shall in each case examine the record to ascertain the extent of the services rendered, and fix a reasonable fee for the services rendered, not to exceed the maximum authorized by this section. The board may reduce the attorney's fee to an amount commensurate with the services performed, or may deny or reduce an attorney's fee upon proof of solicitation of employment. (4) The board shall approve any contract between attorney and client if the limits on fees enumerated below are followed:

(3) Every employer or insurer subject to this chapter shall file additional reports as are required by the workmen's compensation board for the determination of the promptness of voluntary payment and validity and fairness of agreements. In addition, the board may require additional information as may be necessary to comply with a federal statute or regulation or any state statute.

(4) Upon the termination of the disability of the injured employe, or if the disability extends beyond a period of sixty (60) days, then also at the expiration of such period the employer shall make a supplementary report to the board on blanks procured from the board for the purpose.

Section 6. KRS 342.390 is amended to read as follows:

Election to operate under this chapter shall be effected by the employer purchasing workmen's compensation insurance or qualifying as a self insured. The proof of election shall be the proof of insurance coverage provided for in KRS 342.340(2).

"(Name of employer) elects to operate under the workmen's compensation law (KRS chapter 342). This election is effective as of the day of ...."

(2) In addition each employer shall at the time of filing notice furnish the following information:

(a) Its location and address of chief office;

(b) Average number of employes during preceding twelve (12) months;

(c) Kind of business being conducted; and

(d) Method of securing payments of compensation to employes that the employer elects to adopt.

(3) The notice shall be in writing signed by the employer, if an individual, by any partner, if a partnership, or by the chief officer or agent within this state, if a corporation.

Section 7. KRS 342.395 is amended to read as follows:

Where an employer is subject to this chapter [In the event an employer elects to operate under this chapter], then every employe of such employer, as a part of his contract of hiring or who may be employed at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of this chapter by such employer, shall be deemed to have accepted all the provisions of this chapter and shall be bound thereby unless he shall have filed, prior to the injury or incurrence of occupational disease, written notice to the contrary with the employer; and such acceptance shall include all of the provisions of this chapter with respect to traumatic personal injury, silicosis and any other occupational disease. However, before an employe's written notice of rejection shall be considered effective, the employer must file the employe's notice of rejection with the workmen's compensation board. The workmen's compensation board shall not give effect to any rejection of this chapter not voluntarily made by the employe. If an employe withdraws his rejection, the employer shall notify the workmen's compensation board.

Until such notice to the contrary is so given to the employer, the measure of liability of such employer shall be determined according to the compensation provisions of this chapter. Any such employe, may, without prejudice to any existing right or claim, withdraw his election to reject this chapter by filing with the employer a written notice of withdrawal, stating the date when the withdrawal is to become effective. Following the filing of such notice, the status of the party withdrawing shall become the same as if the former election to reject this chapter had not been made, except that withdrawal shall not be effective as to any injury sustained or disease incurred less than one (1) week after the notice is filed.

Section 8. KRS 342.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All taxes and assessments imposed by KRS 342.450 and 342.475 shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to a maintenance fund for the board. The maintenance fund shall be used for ordinary recurring expenses of operation including the Division of Occupational Safety and Health and for any other purpose allowed by statute [no other purpose] and shall be expended by the board under the supervision of the Commissioner of Labor and by allotments made by the budgetary officer of the executive department for finance and administration. The fund shall not lapse at the end of any fiscal year.

(2) At such intervals as may be determined by the board, the director may compile and publish for distribution all or any part of its official proceedings, and may charge a subscription fee sufficient to defray the expenses of such operation.

(3) If the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration finds that there are insufficient funds in the maintenance fund to meet the needs and obligations of the division of occupational safety and health or the uninsured employers' fund, he shall advise the commissioner of revenue in writing of such fact. The commissioner of revenue shall then levy additional assessments against all insurance companies writing workmen's compensation insurance in Kentucky, including every employer carrying his own risk.

(4) The amount of each insurance company's assessment shall be in the proportion that each company's annual workmen's compensation premium writings in Kentucky bears to the total of all annual workmen's compensation premiums written in Kentucky. Such assessment will be based upon information contained in the insurance company's last filed annual statement with the department of insurance. Such assessments against every employer carrying his own risk will be based upon that proportion which the "adjusted cost" of such own risk carrier bears to the total "adjusted cost" of all such own risk carriers. "Adjusted cost" reports filed with the department of revenue in accordance with KRS 342.475 will be the basis of such determination. Such additional assessment against insurance companies and employers carrying their own risk shall be apportioned between the two classes as the total of premiums and the total "adjusted cost" each bears to the combined total.

Section 9. KRS 342.730 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Income benefits for disability shall be paid to the employe as follows, subject to the maximum and minimum limits specified in KRS 342.740:

(a) For total disability, 55 per cent of his average weekly wage during such disability, and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage for each dependent up to a maximum of three.

(b) In all other cases of permanent partial disability, including any disfigurement which will impair the future usefulness or occupational opportunities of the injured employe, or employe disabled by an occupational disease, compensation shall be determined according to the percentage of disability, taking into account, among other things, any previous disability, the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employe and age at the time of injury or at the time the disability from an occupational disease began. The compensation paid therefor shall be 55 per cent of the average weekly earnings of the employe at the time of his injury and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage at the time of injury for each dependent up to a maximum of three, subject to the limitations contained in KRS 342.740, multiplied by the percentage of disability caused by the injury or occupational disease; provided, however, the individual entitled to benefits under permanent partial disability shall be entitled to compensation based on lost wages or body functional disability benefits, whichever is greater.

20. Two or more digits: For loss of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, of a hand or foot, scheduled income benefits may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby, but shall not exceed the scheduled income benefits for loss of a hand or foot.

21. Total loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

22. Partial loss or partial loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent partial loss of use of a member shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total loss or total loss of use of the member as such partial loss bears to total loss.

23. Loss of hearing or partial loss of bilateral vision: Scheduled income benefits for partial loss of vision in one or both eyes, or total loss of hearing in one ear, or partial loss of hearing in one or both ears shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total bilateral loss of vision or total binaural loss of hearing as such partial loss bears to total loss. The provisions of paragraphs (d) to (h) of subsection (2) of this section shall app may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby, but shall not exceed the scheduled income benefits for loss of a hand or foot.

21. Total loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

24. In any case in which there shall be a loss or loss of use of more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in subparagraphs 1. to 23. of this subsection, scheduled income benefits shall be for the loss of use of each such member or part thereof, with the periods of benefits to run consecutively.

25. Other losses: Proper and equitable scheduled income benefits shall be paid for serious permanent disfigurement of face, head, neck or other area normally exposed and for loss or loss of function of a major member or organ when such disfigurement or loss is of a kind likely to handicap the employe in securing or holding employment.

26. In any case of total or partial loss of use of a member or organ, of hearing or vision, or in any case of disfigurement, determination of the period for which scheduled income benefits are payable shall not be made until the maximum of healing and of restoration function has been attained.

27. If the effects of any of the injuries, or disabilities, from occupational diseases, or losses, mentioned in this section adversely affect a workman's ability to labor, or limit his occupational opportunities to obtain the kind of work he is customarily able to do; his compensation benefits shall not be limited to the amounts provided by this section, and he shall be awarded compensation benefits under some other applicable or appropriate section of this chapter which would provide more compensation benefits for his disability.

(2) Occupational deafness means permanent partial or permanent total loss of hearing of one or both ears caused by prolonged exposure to harmful noise in employment. The following provisions shall apply exclusively to loss of hearing compensable under this subsection:

(a) No claim for scheduled income benefits shall be heard until the lapse of six full consecutive calendar months after the termination of exposure to harmful noise in employment. The time limitation for the filing of claims for occupational deafness shall not begin to run earlier than the day following the termination date of such six months' period. The time for filing claim as provided under this paragraph shall be applicable not only in respect of the last employer, but also in respect of any prior employer who may have liability to pay compensation for the occupational deafness.

(b) No employer shall be liable for the payment of scheduled income benefits for occupational deafness unless the employe claiming benefits shall have worked for such employer in employment exposing the employe to harmful noise for a total period of at least 90 days.

(c) An employer, otherwise liable under this subsection, whose employment has contributed to any extent to an employe's occupational deafness shall be liable for the full extent of the deafness of the employe, unless such employer shall establish by competent evidence (including the results of a professionally controlled hearing test) the extent of the employe's deafness as it existed prior to exposure to harmful noise in the employer's employment. Upon such showing the employer shall be liable to the employe only for the proportion of the deafness attributable to employment by him. An employer liable to the employe for the full extent of the employe's occupational deafness may implead, in a compensation proceeding on the employe's claim, any prior employer or employers in whose employment the employe had been exposed to harmful noise, and if it should be found that the impleaded employer would have been liable to the employe under this subsection, had the employe proceeded against him, under the claim being adjudicated, the employer held liable shall be entitled to an award against the impleaded employer. The impleading of an employer shall be accomplished by notice on a form prescribed by the board. Such notice shall be sent to the impleaded employer and to the board. An award may be made in favor of the employer liable to the employe, and against the impleaded employer or employers, which award may be enforced in the same manner as awards to employes. The impleaded employer or employers shall bear equal shares with the employer of the employer's liability to the employe, unless the evidence warrants a different apportionment.

(d) Losses of hearing due to industrial noise for compensation purposes shall be confined to the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Loss of hearing ability for frequency tones above 2,000 cycles per second are not to be considered as constituting disability for hearing.

(e) The percent of hearing loss, for purposes of the determination of compensation claims for occupational deafness, shall be calculated as the average, in decibels, of the thresholds of hearing for the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Pure tone air conduction audiometric instruments, approved by nationally recognized authorities in this field, shall be used for measuring hearing loss. If the losses of hearing average 15 decibels or less in the three frequencies, such losses of hearing shall not then constitute any compensable hearing disability. If the losses of hearing average 82 decibels or more in the three frequencies, then the same shall constitute and be a total or 100 percent compensable hearing loss.

(f) In measuring hearing impairment, the lowest measured losses in each of the three frequencies shall be added together and divided by three to determine the average decibel loss. For every decibel of loss exceeding 15 decibels an allowance of one and one-half percent shall be made up to the maximum of 100 percent which is reached at 82 decibels.

(g) In determining the binaural percentage of loss, the percentage of impairment in the better ear shall be multiplied by five. The resulting figure shall be added to the percentage of impairment in the poorer ear and the sum of the two divided by six. The final percentage shall represent the binaural hearing impairment.

(h) Before determining the percentage of hearing impairment, in order to allow for the average amount of hearing loss from non-occupational causes found in the population at any given age, there shall be deducted from the total average decibel loss, one-half decibel for each year of the employe's age over 40 at the time of last exposure to industrial noise.

(i) No consideration shall be given to the question of whether or not the ability of an employe to understand speech is improved by the use of a hearing aid.

(3) The period of any scheduled income benefits payable under this section on account of any injury shall be reduced by the period of income benefits paid or payable under this chapter on account of a prior injury if scheduled income benefits in both cases are for disability of the same member or function, or different parts of the same member or function, and the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the subsequent disability in whole or in part would duplicate the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the pre-existing disability.

(4) When an employe, who has sustained disability compensable under KRS 342.730 and who has filed a valid claim in his lifetime, dies from causes other than the injury or occupational disease, the income benefits specified under an award made before or after his death shall be paid to same persons and in the same proportions and upon the same conditions, as persons entitled to income benefits under KRS 342.750.

[(4) When an employe, who has sustained disability compensable under this section, and who has filed a valid claim in his lifetime, dies from causes other than the injury before the expiration of the compensable period specified, the income benefits specified and unpaid at the individual's death, whether or not accrued or due at his death, shall be paid, under an award made before or after such death, for the period specified in this section, to and for the benefit of the persons within the classes at the time of death and in the proportions and upon the conditions specified in this section and in the order named:

(a) To the widow or widower, if there is no child under the age of 18 or incapable of self-support; or

(b) If there are both such a widow or widower and such a child or children one-half to such widow or widower and the other half to such child or children; or

(c) If there is no such widow or widower but such a child or children, then to such child or children; or

(d) If there is no survivor in the above classes, then the parent or parents wholly or partly actually dependent for support upon the decedent, or to other wholly or partly actually dependent relatives listed in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of KRS 342.750 or to both, in such proportions as the board may provide by regulation.]

Section 10. KRS 342.760 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby authorized in the state treasury an uninsured employers' fund for the purpose of making payments in accordance with the provisions of subsection (4) of this section. [The fund shall be administered by the board.] The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the fund and all moneys and securities in the fund shall be held in trust by the state treasurer and shall not be considered a part of the general funds of the state.

(2) The state treasurer is authorized to disburse moneys from the fund only upon written order of the board.

(3) All amounts collected as fines and penalties under this chapter shall be paid into the uninsured employers' fund. There shall initially be transferred to the fund from the maintenance fund beginning January 1, 1973, the sum of $100,000.

(4) Upon the action taken in subsection (3) the uninsured employers' fund will become operative, compensation thereafter shall be paid from it when there has been default in the payment of compensation due to the failure of an employer to secure payment of compensation as provided by this chapter. Such employer shall be liable for payment into the fund of the amounts authorized to be paid therefrom under the authority of this subsection and for the purposes of enforcing this liability the board, for the benefit of the fund, shall be subrogated to all the rights of the person receiving such compensation.

(5) [The board shall be charged with the conservation of the assets of the fund.] In furtherance of this purpose, the attorney general shall appoint a member or members of his staff or special counsel to represent the fund in all proceedings brought to enforce claims against or on behalf of the fund. Necessary expenses for this purpose including salaries of said staff or special counsel shall be borne by the fund. The attorney general's office shall be responsible for the administration of the uninsured employers' fund and shall be charged with the conservation of the assets of the fund.

(6) If at any time the charges against the uninsured employers' fund exceed the assets of said fund, the board, with approval of the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration and commissioner of labor, may transfer sufficient moneys from the maintenance fund to the uninsured employers' fund in order to honor claims filed against said uninsured employers' fund and to provide for the administration of the fund.

(1) The auditor constitutes an agency independent of the administrative departments enumerated in KRS 12.020, it being the policy of the general assembly to provide for the independent auditing of the accounts and financial transactions of all spending agencies of the state through a disinterested auditor, who is entirely independent of the state administration whose affairs he is called upon to audit.

(2) The auditor shall:

(a) Audit annually, and at such other times as may be deemed expedient, the accounts of all state agencies, all private and semiprivate agencies receiving state aid or having responsibility for the handling of any state funds, the accounts, records and transactions of the budget units, and the general accounts of the state.

(b) Make a complete audit and verification of all moneys handled for the account of the state government by local officials charged with the collection of fees or other money for or on behalf of the state, when such an audit is demanded in writing by the legislative research commission, the commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration or the governor, and may make such an audit when it is not so demanded.

(c) Examine annually the management, conduct and condition of all asylums, prisons, feeble-minded and eleemosynary institutions and public works owned, operated or partly owned by the state, or in the conduct or management of which the state has any financial interest or legal power, giving special attention to the faithful and economical application of any money appropriated by the state to the institution or public works examined, or of any money in which the state has an interest.

(d) Examine annually the management and condition of the offices of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, the state treasurer and the superintendent of public instruction, to determine whether the laws regulating their duties are being fully complied with, and all money received by them for the state fully accounted for.

(i) Report immediately in writing to the governor, each member of the legislative research commission, and the commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, any unauthorized, illegal, irregular or unsafe handling or expenditure of state funds, or other improper practice of financial administration, or evidence that any such handling, expenditure or practice is contemplated, and any obstruction of the auditor or his agents during the conduct of any audit or investigation of a state agency.

(j) Assist the legislative research commission at hearings and investigations conducted by it and cooperate with the legislative research commission in the preparation of its reports to the general assembly.

(k) Keep accounts showing the costs of his own operations and of each separate audit and investigation made by him, and such accounts as he deems necessary to provide a record of warrants of the state outstanding as of the end of each calendar month.

(3) The auditor may investigate and examine into the conduct of all state and county officers who are authorized to receive, collect or disburse any money for the state, or who manage or control any property belonging to the state or in which the state is interested, or who make estimates or records that are used as a basis by any state agency in the disbursement of public funds.

(4) The auditor shall not be responsible for the keeping of any accounts of the state, except accounts relating to his own operations, and records of outstanding warrants. He shall not be responsible for the collection of any money due the state, or for the handling or custody of any state funds or property except in the process of counting and verifying the amounts of such funds or property in the course of the audits provided for in this section.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any agency which is the subject of any audit, examination or investigation required by this section shall bear the actual costs incurred by the auditor of public accounts or his agent in any such audit, examination or investigation. The auditor shall bill the agency within a reasonable time after the report of any audit, examination or investigation has been submitted as required by law and the agency shall pay the bill and settle the transaction immediately as provided by KRS 45.300(4) and any regulations promulgated thereunder by the executive department for finance and administration. Any controversy over the amount of the bill shall be submitted and decided in accordance with KRS 43.070(4).

(3) Within a reasonable time after the completion and distribution of the audit reports authorized by subsection (1) of this section, the auditor of public accounts shall bill the county for the expenses incurred pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. A copy of this bill shall be forwarded to the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration. If the amount billed has not been paid within ninety (90) days from date of billing, the auditor shall notify the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration and the commissioner of revenue who shall cause said amount to be deducted from the next payment or return of moneys provided by KRS 47.110 and 431.110 by the state to the county or counties. Deductions shall continue until the total amount due the auditor's office has been paid. All moneys received pursuant to this section shall be credited to the trust and agency account of the auditor of public accounts.

(4) Any controversy over the amount of the bill for the actual expenses incurred shall be submitted to the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration and the state treasurer for a decision as to the proper amount. The commissioner shall be free to use any investigation of education and experience and any test of capacity, knowledge, manual skill, character, personal traits, or physical fitness which in his judgment serves the need to discover the relative fitness of applicants; guilty of infamous or disgraceful conduct; who are addicted to alcohol to excess or to narcotics, or who have attempted any deception or fraud in connection with an examination;

(7) For the appointment of a person whose score is included in the five (5) [three (3)] highest scores earned on the examination;

(8) For a period of probation not to exceed one (1) year before appointment or promotion may be made complete, and during which period a probationer may be discharged or reduced in class or rank, or replaced on the eligible list. Unless the appointing authority notifies the employe prior to the end of the probationary period that the employe's services are not satisfactory, the employe shall have status in the classified service. The notice shall be in writing and as provided by personnel rules; [The appointing authority shall, within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of an employe's probationary period, notify the commissioner in writing whether the probationary employe is recommended for permanent status. Only if the appointing authority certifies to the satisfactory nature of the probationary employe's services, shall permanent status be conferred;]

(9) For emergency employment for not more than thirty (30) working days with or without examination, with the consent of the commissioner;

(10) For provisional employment without competitive examination when there is no appropriate eligible list available. No such provisional employment shall continue longer than six (6) months, nor shall successive provisional appointment be allowed to the same position;

(11) For transfer from a position in one (1) department to a similar position in another department involving similar qualifications, duties, responsibilities, and salary ranges;

(12) For reinstatement within not more than five (5) years, only with the approval of the commissioner, of persons who resign in good standing or who are laid off from their positions without fault or delinquency on their part;

(15) For imposition as disciplinary measures of a fine of not more than ten (10) working days' pay or for suspension from the service without pay for not longer than thirty (30) working days; and for the manner of notification of the employe of the discipline and his right of appeal;

(16) For discharge or reduction in rank or grade only for cause, after the person to be discharged or reduced has been presented with the reasons for such discharge or reduction stated in writing, and has been allowed a reasonable time to reply thereto in writing, or, upon request, to appear personally with counsel and reply to the head of the department or his deputy. The statement of reasons and the reply shall be filed as a public record with the commissioner;

Also, if the veteran's military service was peacetime service, his spouse loses the right to preference if he dies.

The executive department for finance and administration, within budgetary limits fixed by any appropriations made by the general assembly for such purpose, shall contract with the city of Frankfort for the provision by the city to state agencies located at the seat of government for fire and police protection of state-owned property and other municipal services as are provided by the city to commercial and industrial taxpayers resident in the city of Frankfort.

HB 712, AN ACT relating to health care malpractice claims.

WHEREAS, there currently exists a crisis in the medical center of the University of Kentucky in the area of the cost and availability of health care malpractice liability insurance; and

WHEREAS, this crisis has made it extremely difficult for said medical center to attract and retain qualified professional personnel to provide quality health care and to teach, train and educate students enrolled in its educational institution in the skills of rendering medical care; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the foregoing the ability of the aforesaid medical center to perform its public functions and to render the public service for which it was created is in serious jeopardy; and

WHEREAS, the general assembly recognizes that the quality of education offered by the medical center of said university and the quality of the health care rendered to patients by said medical center and hospital staff members of the University of Kentucky are all matters that affect the health of the people of the state of Kentucky, and that the authorization of the creation of a basic coverage compensation fund by said university for its benefit with funds derived by it from sources other than general tax revenues of the state, and the providing of loans to said fund by the state, when and if necessary to pay health care malpractice claims, is for a public purpose and within the province of the commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, unless legislative action is taken to alleviate this crisis, the quality of education offered and furnished by the aforesaid medical center and the quality of health care furnished at the hospital that is staffed by the faculty of the medical center of the University of Kentucky will be substantially reduced, all of which will have a materially adverse effect on the public health of the people of this state;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

It is the purpose of this Act to promote the health and general welfare of the people of the commonwealth by authorizing the University of Kentucky to establish from its own funds other than general tax revenues a basic coverage compensation fund to assure itself that health care malpractice claims or judgments against itself, or its agents will be satisfied. Such purpose is hereby declared to be a public purpose for which public funds may be expended.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) "Basic coverage compensation fund" means the fund which may be established by the University of Kentucky for the purpose of paying claims or judgments for personal injury or death to patients resulting from any tort or breach of duty based on health care services rendered or which should have been rendered by the University or its agents. This fund shall also include all annual contributions made to the fund by the University together with any loans that may be made to it out of the state treasury from time to time.

(2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration.

(3) "Agents" means members of the board of trustees of the university, its faculty, hospital staff, nurses, nurses' aides, volunteer workers, employes and students and all other persons involved in furnishing health care within the scope of their duties or courses of study in connection with the University of Kentucky. Employed physicians and dentists are agents of the University and within the scope of their duties when rendering professional services in emergencies and other special circumstances so long as such services do not constitute private practice for which the physician or dentist derives income.

(4) "University" means the University of Kentucky.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The board of trustees of the university may, at its election, establish a basic coverage compensation fund for the benefit and protection from liability of itself and its agents. Promptly after the board of trustees of said university has elected to establish a basic coverage compensation fund, the university shall pay to the state treasurer the sum of $350,000.00.

(2) Upon receipt of said payment of $350,000.00 the state treasurer shall create a separate account to be designated as the "basic coverage compensation fund, University of Kentucky" and there shall be credited to said fund the initial payment of $350,000.00, all income thereafter earned from the investment of said fund, all contributions thereafter made by the university and all sums loaned to said fund from the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this Act. Unexpended and unencumbered balances in any fund created hereunder shall be carried forward and be available for expenditure in succeeding fiscal years notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 45.230 or any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. No portion of said fund shall ever lapse to the general fund and income earned from the investment of funds standing to the credit of said account shall accrue and be credited thereto, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 41.380 or any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(3) The funds held in any fund created under this Act shall be expended solely in payment of claims for liability arising in favor of any patient from treatment performed or furnished, or treatment that should have been performed or furnished by the university or its agents. The liabilities which said fund shall be created to discharge are all liabilities from acts or omissions to act which may have occurred since July 1, 1975 and which may occur in the future which no entity other than the university and its agents is or will be obligated either by law or contract to pay and discharge.

(4) No settlement shall be made of any claim for personal injury or death to any claimant arising out of the furnishing or failure to furnish medical care by the university and its agents, until and unless the board of trustees of the university, or its duly delegated agent or body has first approved of such settlement. The board of trustees of the university shall also have the right to determine whether or not an appeal shall be taken from any judgment rendered against it or its agents, when such claim is founded upon or arises out of the furnishing or failure to furnish medical care. Provided, however, that if the payment of a settlement or a judgment would involve a loan from the commonwealth under the provisions of subsection (8) of this section or if at the time of any such proposed payment of any settlement or judgment there is in existence an outstanding loan from the commonwealth, then any payment from said fund must also be approved by the commissioner, or his delegate.

(5) Funds held in an account created hereunder may be disbursed by the commissioner only upon the written certification of the university, or its duly designated agent, of the amount to be disbursed and the name of the person or persons to whom such funds shall be paid.

(6) Annual contributions to said fund shall be made by the university in an amount which will be not less than one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the average amounts actually paid in each year on medical malpractice claims for the five (5) years next preceding the making of the annual contribution. Provided, however, that if the university and the commissioner shall at any time in the future mutually determine that an annual contribution in a lesser amount will not impair the adequacy of the fund to satisfy existing and potential health care malpractice claims for a period of one year, then an annual contribution in such lesser amount as may be determined may be made.

(7) The university shall be solely responsible for the investigation and servicing of all claims made against it arising out of medical malpractice and all costs, expenses and fees incurred in the investigation, servicing and defense of all such claims shall be borne and paid by the university.

(8) Claims certified to be paid by the university shall be paid in the order received by the commissioner. If any fund created hereunder shall not at any time have sufficient funds to pay all such claims, claims received after the funds are exhausted shall be paid out of the general fund of the commonwealth upon certification of the obligation by the commissioner. Any such funds drawn from the general fund shall be repaid with interest at the legal rate by the university at the earliest practicable time as determined by the commissioner.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any fund created hereunder may be terminated upon written application made to the commissioner by the university and a finding by the commissioner that other satisfactory and adequate arrangements have been made by the university to assure that both existing and future health care malpractice claims or judgments against itself will be paid and satisfied. Upon the termination of any fund pursuant to this section, the full amount remaining in said fund upon termination less any outstanding indebtednesses shall promptly be repaid to the university.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The creation of a basic coverage compensation fund pursuant to this Act and the compliance with all other provisions of this Act shall qualify the university as a self insurer under the terms of Section 11(4) of the Act entitled "An Act Relating to Health Care Malpractice Insurance and Claims."

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The board of trustees of the University of Kentucky is hereby authorized to take all action that may be necessary to avail itself of the benefits of this Act.

(4) When a natural or adoptive parent, having lawful custody of a child, marries or remarries and consents that the stepfather or stepmother may adopt the child, the consent shall not relieve the parent so consenting of any parental duty toward the child nor shall the consent or the order of adoption affect the rights of the consenting spouse and the adoptive child to inherit from and through each other and the natural and adopted kindred of the consenting spouse.

(5) The right of inheritance of an adoptive child extends to the distributees of the child and the distributees shall be the same as if he were the natural child of the adoptive parent.

(6) Adoptive children and natural children shall have all the rights of fraternal relationship including the right of inheritance from each other. The right of inheritance extends to the distributees of the adoptive

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 199 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The provisions of Section 1 of this Act shall apply only to the intestate descent and distribution of real and personal property and shall not affect the right of any child to distribution of property under the will of his natural parents or their natural or adopted kindred whether the natural parent or kindred shall have died heretofore or shall die hereafter or under any inter vivos instrument heretofore or hereafter executed by the natural parent or his kindred.

(5) If the right of a person to testify for himself be founded upon the fact that one who is dead or of unsound mind has testified against him, the testimony of such person shall be confined to the facts or transactions to which the adverse testimony related.

(6) A person may testify for himself as to the correctness or original entries made by him against persons who are under no disability—ther than infancy—n an accounting, according to the usual course of business though the person against whom they were made may have died or have become of unsound mind; but no person shall testify for himself concerning entries in a book, or the contents or purport of any writing, under the control of himself, or of himself and others jointly, if he refuse or fail to produce such book or writing, and to make it subject to the order of the court for the purposes of the action, if required to do so by the party against whom he offers to testify.

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this chapter, any employer may pay the proceeds where same are not in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars of any profit sharing, stock bonus, thrift, or pension plan due at the death of the decedent to the person entitled thereto as soon as it has mailed to the department of revenue a notice, in such form as the department may prescribe, setting forth the fact of such payment. The department may by regulation dispense with the requirement for this notice as to payment of proceeds amounting to one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less.

HB 98, AN ACT relating to decedents' estates.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

As used in this Act, "court" means either the appropriate county court or appropriate circuit court which under the laws of Kentucky has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the particular proceeding.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

The trustee of a trust having its principal place of administration in this state shall register the trust in the court of this state at the principal place of administration. Unless otherwise designated in the trust instrument, the principal place of administration of a trust is the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept, or at the trustee's residence if he has no such place of business. In the case of co-trustees, the principal place of administration, if not otherwise designated in the trust instrument, is (1) the usual place of business of the corporate trustee if there is but one corporate co-trustee, or (2) the usual place of business or residence of the individual trustee who is a professional fiduciary if there is but one such person and no corporate co-trustee, and otherwise (3) the usual place of business or residence of any of the co-trustees as agreed upon by them. The duty to register under this section does not apply to the trustee of a trust if registration would be inconsistent with the retained jurisdiction of a foreign court from which the trustee cannot obtain release, nor does the duty to register under this section apply to intervivos trusts, whether revocable or irrevocable, unless the settlor of the trust so directs.

Registration shall be accomplished by filing a statement indicating the name and address of the trustee in which it acknowledges the trusteeship. The statement shall indicate whether the trust has been registered elsewhere. The statement shall identify the trust: (1) in the case of a testamentary trust, by the name of the testator and the date and place of domiciliary probate; (2) in the case of a written intervivos trust, by the name of each settlor and the original trustee and the date of the trust instrument; or (3) in the case of an oral trust, by information identifying the settlor or other source of funds and describing the time and manner of the trust's creation and the terms of the trust, including the subject matter, beneficiaries and time of performance. If a trust has been registered elsewhere, registration in this state is ineffective until the earlier registration is released by order of the court where prior registration occurred, or an instrument executed by the trustee and all beneficiaries, filed with the registration in this state.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

(1) By registering a trust, or accepting the trusteeship of a registered trust, the trustee submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding under Section 6 of this Act relating to the trust that may be initiated by any interested person while the trust remains registered. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the trustee, or mailed to him by ordinary first class mail at his address as listed in the registration or as thereafter reported to the court and to his address as then known to the petitioner.

(2) To the extent of their interests in the trust, all beneficiaries of a trust properly registered in this state are subject to the jurisdiction of the court of registration for the purposes of proceedings under Section 6 of this Act, provided notice is given pursuant to subsection 3 of this section.

(3) The petitioner shall cause notice of the time and place of hearing of any petition to be given to any interested person or his attorney if he has appeared by attorney or requested that notice be sent to his attorney. Notice shall be given:

(a) by mailing a copy thereof in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure by certified, registered or ordinary first class mail addressed to the person being notified at the post office address given in his demand for notice, if any, or at his office or place of residence, if known;

(b) by delivering a copy thereof to the person being notified personally in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure; or

(c) if the address, or identity of any person is not known and cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence, by publishing at least once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks, a copy thereof in a newspaper having general circulation in the county where the hearing is to be held, the last publication of which is to be at least ten (10) days before the time set for the hearing.

(4) The court for good cause shown may provide for a different method of time of giving notice for any hearing.

(5) Proof of the giving of notice shall be made on or before the hearing and filed in the proceeding as provided in KRS 424.170.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

A trustee who fails to register a trust in a proper place as required by this Act, for purposes of any proceedings initiated by a beneficiary of the trust prior to registration, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of any court in which the trust could have been registered. In addition, any trustee who, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written demand by a settlor or beneficiary of the trust, fails to register a trust as required by this Act is subject to removal and denial of compensation or to surcharge as the court may direct.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

(1) Judicial proceedings may be initiated by interested parties concerning the internal affairs of trusts. Proceedings which may be maintained under this section are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights and the determination of other matters involving trustees and beneficiaries of trusts. These include, but are not limited to, proceedings to:

(a) appoint or remove a trustee;

(b) review trustees' fees and to review and settle interim or final accounts;

(c) ascertain beneficiaries, determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust including questions of construction of trust instruments, to instruct trustees, and determine the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty or right; and

(d) release registration of a trust.

(2) Neither registration of a trust nor a proceeding under this section result in continuing supervisory proceedings. The management and distribution of a trust estate, submission of accounts and reports to beneficiaries, payment of trustee's fees and other obligations of a trust, acceptance and change of trusteeship, and other aspects of the administration of a trust shall proceed expeditiously consistent with the terms of the trust, free of judicial intervention and without order, approval or other action of any court, subject to the jurisdiction of the court as invoked by interested parties or as otherwise exercised as provided by law.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Venue for proceedings under Section 6 involving registered trusts is in the place of registration. Venue for proceedings under Section 6 involving trusts not registered in this state is in any place where the trust properly could have been registered, and otherwise by the venue statutes of Kentucky.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

The court will not, over the objection of a party, entertain proceedings under Section 6 involving a trust registered or having its principal place of administration in another state, unless (1) when all appropriate parties could not be bound by litigation in the courts of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration or (2) when the interests of justice otherwise would seriously be impaired.

The court may condition a stay or dismissal of a proceeding under this section on the consent of any party to jurisdiction of the state in which the trust is registered or has its principal place of business, or the court may grant a continuance or enter any other appropriate order.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
The court of the place in which the trust is registered has concurrent jurisdiction with the other courts of this state of actions and proceedings to determine the existence or nonexistence of trusts created other than by will, of actions by or against creditors or debtors of trusts, and of other actions and proceedings involving trustees and third parties. Venue is determined by the rules generally applicable to civil actions.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
On petition of an interested person, after notice to all interested persons, the court may review the propriety of employment of any person by a trustee including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor or other specialized agent or assistant, and the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, and the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the trustee for his own services. Any person who has received excessive compensation from a trust may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
Proceedings under Section 6 are initiated by filing a petition in the court and giving notice pursuant to subsection 3 of Section 4 of this Act to interested parties. The court may order notification of additional persons. A decree is valid as to all who are given notice of the proceeding though fewer than all interested parties are notified.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
Except as specifically provided, the general duty of the trustee to administer a trust expeditiously for the benefit of the beneficiaries is not altered by this Act.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
Except as otherwise provided by the terms of the trust, the trustee shall observe the standards in dealing with the trust assets that would be observed by a prudent man as defined in Section 44(3) of this Act.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
The trustee shall keep the beneficiaries of the trust reasonably informed of the trust and its administration. In addition:

(1) Within thirty (30) days after his acceptance of the trust, the trustee shall inform in writing the current beneficiaries and if possible, one or more persons who may represent beneficiaries with future interests, of the court in which the trust is registered and of his name and address.

(2) Upon reasonable request, the trustee shall provide the beneficiary with a copy of the terms of the trust which describe or affect his interest and with relevant information about the assets of the trust and the particulars relating to the administration.

(3) Upon reasonable request, a beneficiary is entitled to a statement of the accounts of the trust annually and on termination of the trust or change of the trustee.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
A trustee need not provide surety on his bond to secure performance of his duties unless required by the terms of the trust, reasonably requested by a beneficiary or found by the court to be necessary to protect the interests of the beneficiaries who are not able to protect themselves and whose interests otherwise are not adequately represented.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the trust at a place appropriate to the purposes of the trust and to its sound, efficient management. If the principal place of administration becomes inappropriate for any reason, the court may enter any order furthering efficient administration and the interests of beneficiaries, including, if appropriate, release of registration, removal of the trustee and appointment of a trustee in another state. Trust provisions relating to the place of administration and to changes in the place of administration or of trustee control unless compliance would be contrary to efficient administration or the purposes of the trust. Views of adult beneficiaries shall be given weight in determining the suitability of the trustee and the place of administration.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a trustee is not personally liable on contracts properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the trust estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the trust estate in the contract.

(2) A trustee is personally liable for obligation arising from ownership or control of property of the trust estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the trust estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts entered into by a trustee in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the trust estate, or on torts committed in the course of trust administration may be asserted against the trust estate by proceeding against the trustee in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the trustee is personally liable therefor.

(4) The question of liability as between the trust estate and the trustee individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge or indemnification or other appropriate proceeding.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Unless previously barred by adjudication, consent or limitation, any claim against a trustee for breach of trust is barred as to any beneficiary who has received a final account or other statement fully disclosing the matter and showing termination of the trust relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary unless a proceeding to assert the claim is commenced within six (6) months after receipt of the final account or statement. In any event and notwithstanding lack of full disclosure a trustee who has issued a final account or statement received by the beneficiary and has informed the beneficiary of the location and availability of records for his examination is protected after three (3) years. A beneficiary is deemed to have received a final account or statement if, being an adult, it is received by him personally or if, being a minor or disabled person, it is received by his representative.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person having a financial or property interest in a decedent's estate, may file a demand for notice with the Court at any time after the death of the decedent, stating the name of the decedent, the nature of the demandant's interest in the estate, and his address or that of his attorney.

(2) If a personal representative has been appointed at the time of filing of the demand, the Court shall advise the demandant of the appointment and transmit a copy of each order entered, regarding the estate to the demandant.

(3) After the filing of a demand, no order or filing to which the demand relates shall be entered until the person seeking such order certifies as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure that the demandant or his attorney has been given written notice. The requirement for notice arising from a demand under this provision may be waived in writing by the demandant and in any event shall cease upon the termination of his interest in the estate.

Section 20. KRS 387.280 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever a person under disability, having no guardian or committee, is entitled to receive a sum not exceeding $5,000 [$2,000] exclusive of interest, in any action wherein real estate has been sold or in the settlement of any estate or from any other source, the court in which the action is pending, or, if the sum does not derive from such action, the county court, may order the sum to be paid to the persons having custody of such ward. Before entering the order, the court shall be satisfied by affidavit or oral testimony that the ward is in the custody of the person to whom it is proposed to pay the money, and the latter, upon withdrawal of the money, shall be under obligation as trustee to expend it, for the support, maintenance or education of the ward. When the order is made no bond shall be required of the person having custody of the ward and the purchaser of the real property may pay the share into court, and no lien shall remain on the property therefor and the money may be withdrawn by the person mentioned in the order without his giving bond. A release executed by the person to whom the court has ordered the sum paid shall have the same effect as a release by a duly appointed guardian or committee.

Section 21. KRS 395.200 is amended to read as follows:

[(1)] At any time after the appointment of a fiduciary, [whenever it shall be necessary to secure authority to sell personal property belonging to an estate,] the fiduciary [county court], when satisfied that it would be for the best interests of the estate, may [authorize such fiduciary to] sell, at public or private sale, at [a fixed price or for] the best price obtainable, and for cash or on such terms as the fiduciary [court] may determine, any part or all of the personal property belonging to the estate, including dividend-paying and interest-bearing securities, except:

(1) [(a)] Such tangible personal property as has been set apart to the surviving spouse as exempt.

(2) [(b)] Property specifically bequeathed, when sale of such property is not necessary for the payment of debts, provided that such property may be sold with the consent of the person entitled thereto.

(3) [(c)] Property as to which distribution in kind has been demanded prior to the sale by the surviving spouse or other beneficiary entitled to such distribution in kind, or property which the court may determine to be suitable for distribution in kind.

(4) [(d)] Property, the sale of which is contrary to the wish of the testator, as shown by his will, unless the court finds that the sale is necessary to pay debts, funeral and burial expense, and costs of administration, or that the retention of it will probably cause great loss to the estate.

[(2) If the court directs any of such personal property to be sold at public sale, the court shall direct the nature and extent of the advertising of such sale. Nothing herein shall limit or qualify the powers granted by will to executors and trustees.]

Section 22. KRS 395.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A curator appointed under subsection (1) of KRS 395.410 shall collect and safely keep the estate of the decedent, and make and return to court, within three (3) months, a full and complete inventory of the estate and deliver up the estate, when required, to the executor or administrator. He may pay debts, sue and be sued and sell [such] perishable and other goods [as the county court may order to be sold].

(2) A curator appointed under subsection (2) of KRS 395.410 shall collect and safely keep the estate of an absent person; make and return to the court, within three (3) months, a full and complete inventory of the estate and deliver up the estate, including the income from the estate, when required, to the absent person upon his return, or to the executor or administrator, when one is appointed. He may pay debts, sue and be sued, invest or reinvest any funds coming into his hands and sell [such] perishable and other goods [as the county court or the circuit court may order to be sold].

Section 23. KRS 25.172 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the sworn application of any fiduciary [for appointment, as required by KRS 395.015], that the fiduciary is the sole beneficiary of any estate, the court may dispense with the requirements of KRS 25.175 through 25.215 and may dispense with the requirements of a surety for the fiduciary and shall accept from the fiduciary an informal settlement. The informal settlement shall be made, under oath, by the fiduciary and shall state that the estate was solvent; that all legal claims and debts have been paid, or if not paid, the manner in which said claims and debts have been provided for; that all inheritance, estate or similar death taxes have been paid and a duplicate or photocopy of such tax releases shall be attached, if available; that all court costs have been paid; the name of the attorney(s), if any, representing the fiduciary, and the amount of the attorney's fee, and that the beneficiary has received his share. An informal settlement may be filed at any time after the period for filing claims against decedent's estate has elapsed, subject to the requirements of time for filing settlements as set out in KRS 25.175. Upon the filing of the informal settlement, the court may enter an order discharging the fiduciary, and his surety, if any. When a settlement is effected in the informal manner, no notice to any person shall be required by KRS 25.195, nor shall the court be compelled to inquire into detailed items of income or disbursements.

(2) If the application for the appointment of a fiduciary is accompanied by a verified waiver executed by all of the beneficiaries of an estate, and none of the beneficiaries is under a disability, the court shall accept from the fiduciary an informal settlement which meets the requirements of subsection (1) of this section. The court may require the fiduciary to execute bond with or without surety to insure the application of the estate assets to the debts of the decedent.

(3) In the event that the appointment of a fiduciary is required under this section and one or more of the beneficiaries of the estate is under a disability, the court may allow the filing of an informal settlement if the court is of the opinion that the best interests of the person under the disability would be served.

Section 24. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Except as restricted or otherwise provided by the will, or by KRS 395.200, a personal representative, acting reasonably for the benefit of the interested persons, may properly:

(1) retain assets owned by the decedent pending distribution or liquidation including those in which the representative is personally interested or which are otherwise improper for trust investment;

(2) receive assets from fiduciaries, or other sources;

(3) perform, compromise or refuse performance for proper cause of the decedent's contracts that continue as obligations of the estate, as he may determine under the circumstances;

(4) satisfy written charitable pledges of the decedent irrespective of whether the pledges constituted binding obligations of the decedent or were properly presented as claims, if in the judgment of the personal representative the decedent would have wanted the pledges completed under the circumstances;

(5) if funds are not needed to meet debts and expenses currently payable and are not immediately distributable, deposit or invest liquid assets of the estate, including moneys received from the sale of other assets, in federally insured interest-bearing accounts, readily marketable secured loan arrangements or other prudent investments which would be reasonable for use by trustees generally;

(6) acquire or dispose of an asset, other than land, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; and manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, change the character of, or abandon an estate asset;

(7) enter for any purpose into a lease for personal property as lessor or lessee, with or without option to purchase or renew, for a term within or extending beyond the period of administration;

(8) abandon personal property when, in the opinion of the personal representative, it is valueless, or is so encumbered, or is in condition that it is of no benefit to the estate;

(9) vote stocks or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy;

(10) pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities, unless barred by the provisions relating to claims;

(11) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the interest of the estate but the personal representative is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held;

(12) insure the assets of the estate against damage, loss and liability and himself against liability as to third persons;

(13) borrow money with or without security to be repaid from the probatable assets or otherwise; and advance money for the protection of the estate;

(14) effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor, or extend, renew or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate. If the personal representative holds a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property or another person, he may, in lieu of foreclosure, accept a conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner thereof in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by lien;

(15) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the personal representative, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate;

(16) sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise;

(17) allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as permitted or provided by law;

(18) employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or agents, to advise or assist the personal representative in the performance of his administrative duties; act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and instead of acting personally, employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

(19) prosecute or defend claims, or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the personal representative in the performance of his duties;

(20) sell or mortgage any personal property or any interest therein for cash, credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances;

(21) provide for exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate;

Section 25. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

The powers set forth in Section 24 of this Act are not intended to be exclusive but rather in addition to any powers which the personal representative has at the time of enactment of the provisions of this Act.

Section 26. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

As used in Sections 27 through 38 of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account and other like arrangement;

(2) "beneficiary" means a person named in a trust account as one for whom a party to the account is named as trustee;

(3) "financial institution" means any organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to financial institutions, including, without limitation, banks and trust companies, savings banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan companies or associations, and credit unions;

(4) "joint account" means an account payable on request to one or more of two or more parties whether or not mention is made of any right of survivorship;

(5) A "multiple-party account" is any of the following types of account: (i) a joint account, (ii) a P&O&D& account, or (iii) a trust account. It does not include accounts established for deposit of funds of a partnership, joint venture, or other association for business purposes, or accounts controlled by one or more persons as the duly authorized agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association, charitable or civic organization or a regular fiduciary or trust account where the relationship is established other than by deposit agreement;

(6) "net contribution" of a party to a joint account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits thereto made by or for him, less all withdrawals made by or for him which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The term includes, in addition, any proceeds of deposit life insurance added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question;

(7) "party" means a person who, by the terms of the account, has a present right, subject to request, to payment from a multiple-party account. A P&O&D& payee or beneficiary of a trust account is a party only after the account becomes payable to him by reason of his surviving the original payee or trustee. Unless the context otherwise requires, it includes a guardian, conservator, personal representative, or assignee, including an attaching creditor, of a party. It also includes a person identified as a trustee of an account for another whether or not a beneficiary is named, but it does not include any named beneficiary unless he has a present right of withdrawal;

(8) "payment" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment on check or other directive of a party, and any pledge or sums on deposit by a party and any set-off, or reduction or other disposition of all or part of an account pursuant to a pledge;

(9) "proof of death" includes a death certificate or record or report which is prima facie proof of death;

(10) "P&O&D& account" means an account payable on request to one person during lifetime and on his death to one or more P&O&D& payees, or to one or more persons during their lifetimes and on the death of all of them to one or more P&O&D& payees;

(11) "P&O&D& payee" means a person designated on a P&O&D& account as one to whom the account is payable on request after the death of one or more persons;

(12) "request" means a proper request for withdrawal, or a check or order for payment, which complies with all conditions of the account, including special requirements concerning necessary signatures and regulations of the financial institution; but if the financial institution conditions withdrawal or payment on advance notice, for purposes of this part the request for withdrawal or payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for withdrawal;

(13) "sums on deposit" means the balance payable on a multiple-party account including interest, dividends, and in addition any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of a party;

(14) "trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account; it is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A trust account does not include a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement which has significance apart from the account, or a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client;

(15) "withdrawal" includes payment to a third person pursuant to check or other directive of a party.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

The provisions of Sections 28 to 30 of this Act concerning beneficial ownership as between parties, or as between parties and P&O&D& payees or beneficiaries of multiple-party accounts, are relevant only to controversies between these persons and their creditors and other successors, and have no bearing on the power of withdrawal of these persons as determined by the terms of account contracts. The provisions of Sections 33 to 38 of this Act govern the liability of financial institutions who make payments pursuant thereto, and their set-off rights.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

(1) A joint account belongs, during the lifetime of all parties, to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

(2) A P&O&D& account belongs to the original payee during his lifetime and not to the P&O&D& payee or payees; if two or more parties are named as original payees, during their lifetimes rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Unless a contrary intent is manifested by the terms of the account or the deposit agreement or there is other clear and convincing evidence of an irrevocable trust, a trust account belongs beneficially to the trustee during his lifetime, and if two or more parties are named as trustee on the account, during their lifetimes beneficial rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section. If there is an irrevocable trust, the account belongs beneficially to the beneficiary.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

(1) Sums remaining on deposit at the death of a party to a joint account belong to the surviving party or parties as against the estate of the decedent unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intention at the time the account is created. If there are two or more surviving parties their respective ownerships during lifetime shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under Section 28 of this Act augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before his death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

(2) If the account is a P&O&D& account, on death of the original payee or of the survivor of two or more original payees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P&O&D& payee or payees if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original payee; if two or more P&O&D& payee survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of a P&O&D& payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(3) If the account is a trust account, on death of the trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent; if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(4) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of his estate.

(5) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P&O&D& payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

Section 30. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

The provisions of Section 29 of this Act as to rights of survivorship are determined by the form of the account at the death of a party. This form may be altered by written order given by a party to the financial institution to change the form of the account or to stop or vary payment under the terms of the account. The order or request must be signed by a party, received by the financial institution during the party's lifetime, and not countermanded by other written order of the same party during his lifetime.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Any transfers resulting from the application of Section 29 of this Act are effective by reason of the account contracts involved and this statute and are not to be considered as testamentary.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Financial institutions may enter into multiple-party accounts to the same extent that they may enter into single-party accounts. Any multiple-party account may be paid, on request to any one or more of the parties. A financial institution shall not be required to inquire as to the source of funds received for deposit to a multiple-party account, or to inquire as to the proposed application of any sum withdrawn from an account, for purposes of establishing net contributions.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Any sums in a joint account may be paid, on request, to any party without regard to whether any other party is incapacitated or deceased at the time the payment is demanded; but payment may not be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased party unless proofs of death are presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the last surviving party or unless there is no right of survivorship under Section 4 of this Act.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Any P&O&D& account may be paid, on request, to any original party to the account. Payment may be made, on request, to the P&O&D& payee or to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased P&O&D& payee upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the P&O&D& payee survived all persons named as original payees. Payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased original payee if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased original payee was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as an original payee or as P&O&D& payee.

Section 35. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Any trust account may be paid, on request, to any trustee. Unless the financial institution has received written notice that the beneficiary has a vested interest not dependent upon his surviving the trustee, payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased trustee if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased trustee was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as trustee or beneficiary. Payment may be made, on request, to the beneficiary upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the beneficiary or beneficiaries survived all persons named as trustees.

Section 36. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Payment made pursuant to Sections 32 through 35 of this Act discharges the financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid whether or not the payment is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the account as between parties, P&O&D& payees, or beneficiaries, or their successors. The protection here given does not extend to payments made after a financial institution has received written notice from any party able to request present payment to the effect that withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the account should not be permitted. Unless the notice is withdrawn by the person giving it, the successor of any deceased party must concur in any demand for withdrawal if the financial institution is to be protected under this section. No other notice or any other information shown to have been available to a financial institution shall affect its right to the protection provided here. The protection here provided shall have no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of funds in, or withdrawn from, multiple-party accounts.

Section 37. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Without qualifying any other statutory right to set-off or lien and subject to any contractual provision, if a party to a multiple-party account is indebted to a financial institution, the financial institution has a right to set-off against the account in which the party has or had immediately before his death a present right of withdrawal. The amount of the account subject to set-off is that proportion to which the debtor is, or was immediately before his death, beneficially entitled, and in the absence of proof of net contributions, to an equal share with all parties having present rights of withdrawal.

Section 38. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any of the following provisions in an insurance policy, contract of employment, bond, mortgage, promissory note, deposit agreement, pension plan, trust agreement, conveyance or any other written instrument effective as a contract, gift, conveyance, or trust is deemed to be nontestamentary, and this Act does not invalidate the instrument or any provision;

(a) that money or other benefits theretofore due to, controlled or owned by a decedent shall be paid after his death to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently;

(b) that any money due or to become due under the instrument shall cease to be payable in event of the death of the promisee or the promissor before payment or demand; or

(c) that any property which is the subject ot the instrument shall pass to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently.

(2) Nothing in this section limits the rights of creditors under other laws of this state.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Person of unsound mind" means any person who is impaired by reason of mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, advanced age, chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, or other cause to the extent that he lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate responsible decisions concerning his person or to manage his estate. [means an idiot, lunatic, one who from confirmed bodily infirmity is unable to make known to others by speech, sign, or otherwise his thoughts or desires, and by reason thereof is incompetent to manage his estate, or one whose mind because of an infirmity or old age has become so imbecile or unsound as to render him incompetent to manage his estate.]

(2) In all inquests relating to persons alleged to be of unsound mind, the court shall cause an oath to be administered to the jury in such form as to ascertain by the verdict whether the person, by reason of unsound mind, is incompetent to manage his estate, and also what estate he owns in possession, reversion or remainder, and the value thereof.

*(3) The court prior to the inquest may appoint a visitor to interview the person alleged to be of unsound mind. The court may also cause the visitor to interview the person seeking appointment and visit the present place of abode of the person alleged to be of unsound mind and the place it is proposed that he will be detained or reside if the requested appointment is made. (9) The allegations of the pleading shall not be taken as confessed but shall be proved by competent evidence heard on deposition or orally by the chancellor or commissioner. A transcript thereof shall be filed as part of the record.

(10) The proceeds of any sale may be paid to the guardian or committee provided that he shall have executed in the circuit court a bond with surety to the Commonwealth for the use and benefit of the person under disability that he will faithfully discharge his trust and will account for, pay and deliver to said person all money and other property due or belonging to him when he shall reach his majority, or if he be a person of unsound mind when he shall be legally restored, or to his heirs or personal representative, or in compliance with an order of any court of competent jurisdiction. The court shall endorse its approval on said bond, which shall be recorded on the order book; provided, that if the circuit court, upon examination of a certified copy of the bond executed in the county court of his appointment by the guardian or committee, which copy shall be filed in the circuit court, should determine, in its discretion, that said bond is adequate and sufficient, the above bond to be executed in the circuit court shall not be required. The circuit court shall enter an order in the order book that it has personally examined the certified copy of the bond executed in the county court, and found it adequate and sufficient and that no additional bond shall be required in that circuit court. The copy of the bond shall be certified as a true and correct copy of the bond by the clerk of the county court in which it was executed.

(12) Provided, that (a) the court may in its discretion in an ex parte or adversary proceeding authorize the guardian or committee of such person or the commissioner of the court to make said sale at public auction upon such terms and conditions as the court may order, and to convey title thereto; or (b) if the land or interest to be sold be of an appraised value of less than twenty-five hundred dollars, the court may in the judgment authorize such fiduciary to make the sale privately and convey title; subject, however, to the approval of the chancellor before consummation.

(13) Without previous judicial proceeding or judgment the guardian of an infant or the committee of a person of unsound mind may sell privately or at public auction and convey any interest in real estate owned by a ward for such reasons and purposes and upon such terms and conditions as he shall deem best for the interest of said ward. Provided, however, that no such sale shall be consummated until same shall have been approved by the judge of the circuit court in the county where the land or a portion thereof is situated in a suit in equity filed by the guardian or committee against said infant or person of unsound mind. The petition shall set forth the reason and purposes of the sale and the terms thereof.

(14) If the person under disability be brought before the court by service of summons, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for such person. Proof shall be taken only on notice to said guardian ad litem or, if the person under disability be constructively summoned, on notice to his warning order attorney. Proof may be taken by depositions or orally before the chancellor and thereafter transcribed and filed in the record of the case. The guardian ad litem or warning order attorney shall make a defense or file a report stating that after careful examination of the case he is unable to make a defense.

(15) If the chancellor shall deem the sale advisable and the terms and price satisfactory, he shall enter an order approving the same; provided, however, that the judgment shall not be entered until the guardian or committee shall have executed a bond with approved surety in an amount not less than the sum due, or to become due, his ward from said sale providing that he will faithfully discharge all his duties as such guardian or committee and will comply with the judgment and orders of the court, and account for, pay and deliver the proceeds of the sale or property in which it shall be invested to his ward or other person entitled thereto. The bond shall be approved by the court and recorded in the order book; provided, if the share of the infant in the proceeds does not exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, no bond shall be required of the guardian; provided further, that if the circuit court, upon examination of a certified copy of the bond executed in the county of his appointment by the guardian or committee, which copy shall be filed in the circuit court; should determine in its discretion that said bond is adequate or sufficient the above bond to be executed in the circuit court shall not be required. The circuit court shall enter an order in the order book that it has personally examined the certified copy of the bond executed in the county court and found it adequate and sufficient and that no additional bond shall be required in that circuit court. The copy of the bond shall be certified as a true and correct copy of the bond by the clerk of the county court in which it was executed. This proceeding shall be tried and judgment rendered in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(16) The court shall at all times enter such orders as will conserve and protect the rights of the person under disability.

(17) No defect or error in the proceeding shall render the judgment or sale void unless the same is of the nature and character that would render the proceeding void if all parties were sui juris.

HB 98, AN ACT relating to probate and related matters.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
As used in this Act, "court" means the appropriate county court, district court, or circuit court which under the laws of Kentucky has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the particular proceeding.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
The trustee of a trust having its principal place of administration in this state shall register the trust in the court of this state at the principal place of administration. Unless otherwise designated in the trust instrument, the principal place of administration of a trust is the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept, or at the trustee's residence if he has no such place of business. In the case of co-trustees, the principal place of administration, if not otherwise designated in the trust instrument, is (1) the usual place of business of the corporate trustee if there is but one corporate co-trustee, or (2) the usual place of business or residence of the individual trustee who is a professional fiduciary if there is but one such person and no corporate co-trustee, and otherwise (3) the usual place of business or residence of any of the co-trustees as agreed upon by them. The duty to register under this section does not apply to the trustee of a trust if registration would be inconsistent with the retained jurisdiction of a foreign court from which the trustee cannot obtain release, nor does the duty to register under this section apply to intervivos trusts, whether revocable or irrevocable, unless the settlor of the trust so directs.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
Registration shall be accomplished by filing a statement indicating the name and address of the trustee in which he acknowledges the trusteeship. The statement shall indicate whether the trust has been registered elsewhere. The statement shall identify the trust: (1) in the case of a testamentary trust, by the name of the testator and the date and place of domiciliary probate; (2) in the case of a written intervivos trust, by the name of each settlor and the original trustee and the date of the trust instrument; or (3) in the case of an oral trust, by information identifying the settlor or other source of funds and describing the time and manner of the trust's creation and the terms of the trust, including the subject matter, beneficiaries and time of performance. If a trust has been registered elsewhere, registration in this state is ineffective until the earlier registration is released by order of the court where prior registration occurred, or an instrument executed by the trustee and all beneficiaries is filed with the registration in this state.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:
(1) By registering a trust, or accepting the trusteeship of a registered trust, the trustee submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding under Section 6 of this Act relating to the trust that may be initiated by any interested person while the trust remains registered. Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the trustee, or mailed to him by ordinary first class mail at his address as listed in the registration or as thereafter reported to the court and to his address as then known to the petitioner.
(2) To the extent of their interests in the trust, all beneficiaries of a trust properly registered in this state are subject to the jurisdiction of the court of registration for the purposes of proceedings under Section 6 of this Act, provided notice is given pursuant to subsection 3 of this section.
(3) The petitioner shall cause notice of the time and place of hearing of any petition to be given to any interested person or his attorney if he has appeared by attorney or requested that notice be sent to his attorney. Notice shall be given:

(a) by mailing a copy thereof in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure by certified, registered or ordinary first class mail addressed to the person being notified at the post office address given in his demand for notice, if any, or at his office or place of residence, if known;

(b) by delivering a copy thereof to the person being notified personally in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure; or

(c) if the address, or identity of any person is not known and cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence, by publishing at least once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks, a copy thereof in a newspaper having general circulation in the county where the hearing is to be held, the last publication of which is to be at least ten (10) days before the time set for the hearing.

(4) The court for good cause shown may provide for a different method or time of giving notice for any hearing.

(5) Proof of the giving of notice shall be made on or before the hearing and filed in the proceeding as provided in KRS 424.170.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

A trustee who fails to register a trust in a proper place as required by this Act, for purposes of any proceedings initiated by a beneficiary of the trust prior to registration, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of any court in which the trust could have been registered. In addition, any trustee who, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written demand by a settlor or beneficiary of the trust, fails to register a trust as required by this Act is subject to removal and denial of compensation or to surcharge as the court may direct.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

(1) Judicial proceedings may be initiated by interested persons concerning the internal affairs of trusts. Proceedings which may be maintained under this section are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights and the determination of other matters involving trustees and beneficiaries of trusts. These include, but are not limited to, proceedings to:

(a) appoint or remove a trustee;

(b) review trustees' fees and to review and settle interim or final accounts;

(c) ascertain beneficiaries, determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust including questions of construction of trust instruments, to instruct trustees, and determine the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty or right; and

(d) release registration of a trust.

(2) The management and distribution of a trust estate, submission of accounts and reports to beneficiaries, payment of trustee's fees and other obligations of a trust, acceptance and change of trusteeship, and other aspects of the administration of a trust shall proceed expeditiously consistent with the terms of the trust, free of judicial intervention and without order, approval or other action of any court, subject to the jurisdiction of the court as invoked by interested parties or as otherwise exercised as provided by law.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Venue for proceedings under Section 6 involving registered trusts is in the place of registration. Venue for proceedings under Section 6 involving trusts not registered in this state is in any place where the trust properly could have been registered, and otherwise by the venue statutes of Kentucky.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

The court will not, over the objection of a party, entertain proceedings under Section 6 involving a trust registered or having its principal place of administration in another state, unless (1) when all appropriate parties could not be bound by litigation in the courts of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration or (2) when the interests of justice otherwise would seriously be impaired. The court may condition a stay or dismissal of a proceeding under this section on the consent of any party to jurisdiction of the state in which the trust is registered or has its principal place of business, or the court may grant a continuance or enter any other appropriate order.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

The court of the place in which the trust is registered has concurrent jurisdiction with the other courts of this state of actions and proceedings to determine the existence or nonexistence of trusts created other than by will, of actions by or against creditors or debtors of trusts, and of other actions and proceedings involving trustees and third parties. Venue is determined by the rules generally applicable to civil actions.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

On petition of an interested person, after notice to all interested persons, the court may review the propriety of employment of any person by a trustee including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor or other specialized agent or assistant, and the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed, and the reasonableness of the compensation determined by the trustee for his own services. Any person who has received excessive compensation from a trust may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Proceedings under Section 6 are initiated by filing a petition in the court and giving notice pursuant to subsection 3 of Section 4 of this Act to interested persons. The court may order notification of additional persons. A decree is valid as to all who are given notice of the proceeding though fewer than all interested persons are notified.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Except as specifically provided, the general duty of the trustee to administer a trust expeditiously for the benefit of the beneficiaries is not altered by this Act.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided by the terms of the trust, the trustee shall observe the standards in dealing with the trust assets that would be observed by a prudent man as defined in Section 44(3) of this Act.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

The trustee shall keep the beneficiaries of the trust reasonably informed of the trust and its administration. In addition:

(1) Within thirty (30) days after his acceptance of the trust, the trustee shall inform in writing the current beneficiaries and if possible, one or more persons who may represent beneficiaries with future interests, of the court in which the trust is registered and of his name and address.

(2) Upon reasonable request, the trustee shall provide the beneficiary with a copy of the terms of the trust which describe or affect his interest and with relevant information about the assets of the trust and the particulars relating to the administration.

(3) Upon reasonable request, a beneficiary is entitled to a statement of the accounts of the trust annually and on termination of the trust or change of the trustee.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

A trustee need not provide surety on his bond to secure performance of his duties unless required by the terms of the trust, reasonably requested by a beneficiary or found by the court to be necessary to protect the interests of the beneficiaries who are not able to protect themselves and whose interests otherwise are not adequately represented.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the trust at a place appropriate to the purposes of the trust and to its sound, efficient management. If the principal place of administration becomes inappropriate for any reason, the court may enter any order furthering efficient administration and the interests of beneficiaries, including, if appropriate, release of registration, removal of the trustee and appointment of a trustee in another state. Trust provisions relating to the place of administration and to changes in the place of administration or of trustee control unless compliance would be contrary to efficient administration or the purposes of the trust. Views of adult beneficiaries shall be given weight in determining the suitability of the trustee and the place of administration.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a trustee is not personally liable on contracts properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the trust estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the trust estate in the contract.

(2) A trustee is personally liable for obligation arising from ownership or control of property of the trust estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the trust estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts entered into by a trustee in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the trust estate, or on torts committed in the course of trust administration may be asserted against the trust estate by proceeding against the trustee in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the trustee is personally liable therefor.

(4) The question of liability as between the trust estate and the trustee individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge or indemnification or other appropriate proceeding.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 386 is created to read as follows:

Unless previously barred by adjudication, consent or limitation, any claim against a trustee for breach of trust is barred as to any beneficiary who has received a final account or other statement fully disclosing the matter and showing termination of the trust relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary unless a proceeding to assert the claim is commenced within six (6) months after receipt of the final account or statement. In any event and notwithstanding lack of full disclosure a trustee who has issued a final account or statement received by the beneficiary and has informed the beneficiary of the location and availability of records for his examination is protected after three (3) years. A beneficiary is deemed to have received a final account or statement if, being an adult, it is received by him personally or if, being a minor or disabled person, it is received by his representative.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person having a financial or property interest in a decedent's estate, may file a demand for notice with the Court at any time after the death of the decedent, stating the name of the decedent, the nature of the demandant's interest in the estate, and his address or that of his attorney.

(2) If a personal representative has been appointed at the time of filing of the demand, the Court shall advise the demandant of the appointment and transmit a copy of each order entered, regarding the estate to the demandant.

(3) After the filing of a demand, no order or filing to which the demand relates shall be entered until the person seeking such order certifies as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure that the demandant or his attorney has been given written notice. The requirement for notice arising from a demand under this provision may be waived in writing by the demandant and in any event shall cease upon the termination of his interest in the estate.

Section 20. KRS 387.280 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever a person under disability, having no guardian or committee, is entitled to receive a sum not exceeding $5,000 [$2,000] exclusive of interest, in any action wherein real estate has been sold or in the settlement of any estate or from any other source, the court in which the action is pending, or, if the sum does not derive from such action, the county court, may order the sum to be paid to the persons having custody of such ward. Before entering the order, the court shall be satisfied by affidavit or oral testimony that the ward is in the custody of the person to whom it is proposed to pay the money, and the latter, upon withdrawal of the money, shall be under obligation as trustee to expend it, for the support, maintenance or education of the ward. When the order is made no bond shall be required of the person having custody of the ward and the purchaser of the real property may pay the share into court, and no lien shall remain on the property therefor and the money may be withdrawn by the person mentioned in the order without his giving bond. A release executed by the person to whom the court has ordered the sum paid shall have the same effect as a release by a duly appointed guardian or committee.

Section 21. KRS 395.200 is amended to read as follows:

[(1)] At any time after the appointment of a fiduciary, [whenever it shall be necessary to secure authority to sell personal property belonging to an estate,] the fiduciary [county court], when satisfied that it would be for the best interests of the estate, may [authorize such fiduciary to] sell, at public or private sale, at [a fixed price or for] the best price obtainable, and for cash or on such terms as the fiduciary [court] may determine, any part or all of the personal property belonging to the estate, including dividend-paying and interest-bearing securities, except:

(1) [(a)] Such tangible personal property as has been set apart to the surviving spouse as exempt.

(2) [(b)] Property specifically bequeathed, when sale of such property is not necessary for the payment of debts, provided that such property may be sold with the consent of the person entitled thereto.

(3) [(c)] Property as to which distribution in kind has been demanded prior to the sale by the surviving spouse or other beneficiary entitled to such distribution in kind, or property which the court may determine to be suitable for distribution in kind.

(4) [(d)] Property, the sale of which is contrary to the wish of the testator, as shown by his will, unless the court finds that the sale is necessary to pay debts, funeral and burial expense, and costs of administration, or that the retention of it will probably cause great loss to the estate.

[(2) If the court directs any of such personal property to be sold at public sale, the court shall direct the nature and extent of the advertising of such sale. Nothing herein shall limit or qualify the powers granted by will to executors and trustees.]

Section 22. KRS 395.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A curator appointed under subsection (1) of KRS 395.410 shall collect and safely keep the estate of the decedent, and make and return to court, within three (3) months, a full and complete inventory of the estate and deliver up the estate, when required, to the executor or administrator. He may pay debts, sue and be sued and sell [such] perishable and other goods [as the county court may order to be sold].

(2) A curator appointed under subsection (2) of KRS 395.410 shall collect and safely keep the estate of an absent person; make and return to the court, within three (3) months, a full and complete inventory of the estate and deliver up the estate, including the income from the estate, when required, to the absent person upon his return, or to the executor or administrator, when one is appointed. He may pay debts, sue and be sued, invest or reinvest any funds coming into his hands and sell [such] perishable and other goods [as the county court or the circuit court may order to be sold].

Section 23. KRS 25.172 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the sworn application of any fiduciary [for appointment, as required by KRS 395.015], that the fiduciary is the sole beneficiary of any estate, the court may dispense with the requirements of KRS 25.175 through 25.215 and may dispense with the requirements of a surety for the fiduciary and shall accept from the fiduciary an informal settlement. The informal settlement shall be made, under oath, by the fiduciary and shall state that the estate was solvent; that all legal claims and debts have been paid, or if not paid, the manner in which said claims and debts have been provided for; that all inheritance, estate or similar death taxes have been paid and a duplicate or photocopy of such tax releases shall be attached, if available; that all court costs have been paid; the name of the attorney(s), if any, representing the fiduciary, and the amount of the attorney's fee, and that the beneficiary has received his share. An informal settlement may be filed at any time after the period for filing claims against decedent's estate has elapsed, subject to the requirements of time for filing settlements as set out in KRS 25.175. Upon the filing of the informal settlement, the court may enter an order discharging the fiduciary, and his surety, if any. When a settlement is effected in the informal manner, no notice to any person shall be required by KRS 25.195, nor shall the court be compelled to inquire into detailed items of income or disbursements.

(2) If a proposed settlement of a fiduciary is accompanied by a verified waiver executed by all of the beneficiaries of an estate, and none of the beneficiaries is under a disability, the court shall accept from the fiduciary an informal settlement which meets the requirements of subsection (1) of this section. The court may require the fiduciary to execute bond with or without surety to insure the application of the estate assets to the debts of the decedent.

(3) In the event that one or more of the beneficiaries of the estate is under a disability, the court may allow the filing of an informal settlement if the court is of the opinion that the best interests of the person under the disability would be served.

Section 24. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

Except as restricted or otherwise provided by the will, or by KRS 395.200, a personal representative, acting reasonably for the benefit of the interested persons, may properly:

(1) retain assets owned by the decedent pending distribution or liquidation including those in which the representative is personally interested or which are otherwise improper for trust investment;

(2) receive assets from fiduciaries, or other sources;

(3) perform, compromise or refuse performance for proper cause of the decedent's contracts that continue as obligations of the estate, as he may determine under the circumstances;

(4) satisfy written charitable pledges of the decedent irrespective of whether the pledges constituted binding obligations of the decedent or were properly presented as claims, if in the judgment of the personal representative the decedent would have wanted the pledges completed under the circumstances;

(5) if funds are not needed to meet debts and expenses currently payable and are not immediately distributable, deposit or invest liquid assets of the estate, including moneys received from the sale of other assets, in federally insured interest-bearing accounts, readily marketable secured loan arrangements or other prudent investments which would be reasonable for use by trustees generally;

(6) acquire or dispose of an asset, other than land, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; and manage, exchange, or change the character of an estate asset;

(7) enter for any purpose into a lease for personal property as lessor or lessee, with or without option to purchase or renew, for a term within or extending beyond the period of administration;

(8) abandon personal property when, in the opinion of the personal representative, it is valueless, or is so encumbered, or is in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate;

(9) vote stocks or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy;

(10) pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities, unless barred by the provisions relating to claims;

(11) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the interest of the estate but the personal representative is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held;

(12) insure the assets of the estate against damage, loss and liability and himself against liability as to third persons;

(13) borrow money with or without security to be repaid from the probatable assets or otherwise; and advance money for the protection of the estate;

(14) effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor, or extend, renew or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate. If the personal representative holds a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property of another person, he may, in lieu of foreclosure, accept a conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner thereof in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by lien;

(15) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the personal representative, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate;

(16) sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise;

(17) allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as permitted or provided by law;

(18) employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or agents, to advise or assist the personal representative in the performance of his administrative duties; act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and instead of acting personally, employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

(19) prosecute or defend claims, or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the personal representative in the performance of his duties;

(20) sell or mortgage any personal property or any interest therein for cash, credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances;

(21) provide for exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate;

(22) satisfy and settle claims and distribute the estate as provided by law.

Section 25. A new section of KRS Chapter 395 is created to read as follows:

The powers set forth in Section 24 of this Act are not intended to be exclusive but rather in addition to any powers which the personal representative has at the time of enactment of the provisions of this Act.

Section 26. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

As used in Sections 27 through 38 of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account and other like arrangement;

(2) "beneficiary" means a person named in a trust account as one for whom a party to the account is named as trustee;

(3) "financial institution" means any organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to financial institutions, including, without limitation, banks and trust companies, savings banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan companies or associations, and credit unions;

(4) "joint account" means an account payable on request to one or more of two or more parties whether or not mention is made of any right of survivorship;

(5) A "multiple-party account" is any of the following types of account: (i) a joint account, (ii) a P&O&D& account, or (iii) a trust account. It does not include accounts established for deposit of funds of a partnership, joint venture, or other association for business purposes, or accounts controlled by one or more persons as the duly authorized agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association, charitable or civic organization or a regular fiduciary or trust account where the relationship is established other than by deposit agreement;

(6) "net contribution" of a party to a joint account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits thereto made by or for him, less all withdrawals made by or for him which have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The term includes, in addition, any proceeds of deposit life insurance added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question;

(7) "party" means a person who, by the terms of the account, has subject to request, a present right, exercisable alone or jointly with one or more other parties, to payment from a multiple-party account. A P&O&D& payee or beneficiary of a trust account is a party only after the account becomes payable to him by reason of his surviving the original payee or trustee. Unless the context otherwise requires, it includes a guardian, conservator, personal representative, or assignee, including an attaching creditor, of a party. It also includes a person identified as a trustee of an account for another whether or not a beneficiary is named, but it does not include any named beneficiary unless he has a present right of withdrawal;

(8) "payment" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment on check or other directive of a party, and any pledge of sums on deposit by a party and any set-off, or reduction or other disposition of all or part of an account pursuant to a pledge;

(9) "proof of death" includes a death certificate or record or report which is prima facie proof of death;

(10) "P&O&D& account" means an account payable on request to one person during lifetime and on his death to one or more P&O&D& payees, or to one or more persons during their lifetimes and on the death of all of them to one or more P&O&D& payees;

(11) "P&O&D& payee" means a person designated on a P&O&D& account as one to whom the account is payable on request after the death of one or more persons;

(12) "request" means a proper request for withdrawal, or a check or order for payment, which complies with all conditions of the account, including special requirements concerning the necessary signature or number of signatures of the parties to the account which may be required for a proper request and regulations of the financial institution; but if the financial institution conditions withdrawal or payment on advance notice, for purposes of Sections 27 through 38 of this Act, the request for withdrawal or payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for withdrawal;

(13) "sums on deposit" means the balance payable on a multiple-party account including interest, dividends, and in addition any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of a party;

(14) "trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account; it is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A trust account does not include a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement which has significance apart from the account, or a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client;

(15)"withdrawal" includes payment to a third person pursuant to check or other directive of a party;

(16) A financial institution "receives" an order or notice under this Act when it is duly delivered at the place of business at which the multiple-party account was originally established or at any other place held out by the financial institution as the place for receipt of such communication.

Section 27. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

The provisions of Sections 28 to 30 of this Act concerning beneficial ownership as between parties, or as between parties and P&O&D& payees or beneficiaries of multiple-party accounts, are relevant only to controversies between these persons and their creditors and other successors, and have no bearing on the power of withdrawal of these persons as determined by the terms of account contracts. The provisions of Sections 33 to 38 of this Act govern the liability of financial institutions who make payments pursuant thereto, and their set-off rights.

Section 28. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

(1) A joint account belongs, during the lifetime of all parties, to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

(2) A P&O&D& account belongs to the original payee during his lifetime and not to the P&O&D& payee or payees; if two or more parties are named as original payees, during their lifetimes rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Unless a contrary intent is manifested by the terms of the account or the deposit agreement or there is other clear and convincing evidence of an irrevocable trust, a trust account belongs beneficially to the trustee during his lifetime, and if two or more parties are named as trustee on the account, during their lifetimes beneficial rights as between them are governed by subsection (1) of this section. If there is an irrevocable trust, the account belongs beneficially to the beneficiary.

Section 29. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

(1) Sums remaining on deposit at the death of a party to a joint account belong to the surviving party or parties as against the estate of the decedent unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intention at the time the account is created. If there are two or more surviving parties their respective ownerships during lifetime shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under Section 28 of this Act augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before his death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

(2) If the account is a P&O&D& account, on death of the original payee or of the survivor of two or more original payees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P&O&D& payee or payees if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original payee; if two or more P&O&D& payees survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of a P&O&D& payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(3) If the account is a trust account, on death of the trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent; if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(4) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of his estate.

(5) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P&O&D& payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

Section 30. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

The provisions of Section 29 of this Act as to rights of survivorship are determined by the form of the account at the death of a party. This form may be altered by written order from any party able to request present payment without the joinder of any other party given to the financial institution to change the form of the account or to stop or vary payment under the terms of the account. The order must be signed by said party, received by the financial institution during the party's lifetime, and not countermanded by other written order of the same party during his lifetime.

Section 31. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

Any transfers resulting from the application of Section 29 of this Act are effective by reason of the account contracts involved and this statute and are not to be considered as testamentary.

Section 32. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

Financial institutions may enter into multiple-party accounts to the same extent that they may enter into single-party accounts. Any multiple-party account may be paid, on request to any one or more of the parties. A financial institution shall not be required to inquire as to the source of funds received for deposit to a multiple-party account, or to inquire as to the proposed application of any sum withdrawn from an account, for purposes of establishing net contributions.

Section 33. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

Any sums in a joint account may be paid, on request, to any party without regard to whether any other party is incapacitated or deceased at the time the payment is demanded; but payment may not be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased party unless proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the last surviving party or unless there is no right of survivorship under Section 29 of this Act.

Section 34. A new section of KRS Chapter 391 is created to read as follows:

Any P&O&D& account may be paid, on request, to any original party to the account. Payment may be made, on request, to the P&O&D& payee or to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased P&O&D& payee upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the P&O&D& payee survived all persons named as original payees. The circuit court shall enter an order in the order book that it has personally examined the certified copy of the bond executed in the county court, and found it adequate and sufficient and that no additional bond shall be required in that circuit court. (15) If the chancellor shall deem the sale advisable and the terms and price satisfactory, he shall enter an order approving the same; provided, however, that the judgment shall not be entered until the guardian or committee shall have executed a bond with approved surety in an amount not less than the sum due, or to become due, his ward from said sale providing that he will faithfully discharge all his duties as such guardian or committee and will comply with the judgment and orders of the court, and account for, pay and deliver the proceeds of the sale or property in which it shall be invested to his ward or other person entitled thereto. The bond shall be approved by the court and recorded in the order book; provided, if the share of the infant in the proceeds does not exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, no bond shall be required of the guardian; provided further, that if the circuit court, upon examination of a certified copy of the bond executed in the county of his appointment by the guardian or committee, which copy shall be filed in the circuit court; should determine in its discretion that said bond is adequate or sufficient the above bond to be executed in the circuit court shall not be required. The circuit court shall enter an order in the order book that it has personally examined the certified copy of the bond executed in the county court and found it adequate and sufficient and that no additional bond shall be required in that circuit court. The copy of the bond shall be certified as a true and correct copy of the bond by the clerk of the county court in which it was executed. This proceeding shall be tried and judgment rendered in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(16) The court shall at all times enter such orders as will conserve and protect the rights of the person under disability.

(17) No defect or error in the proceeding shall render the judgment or sale void unless the same is of the nature and character that would render the proceeding void if all parties were sui juris.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 164 is created to read as follows:

(1) When any person sixty-five (65) years of age or older, who is a resident of the Commonwealth, is admitted and enrolls as a student in any state-supported institution of higher learning in this Commonwealth, the Board of Trustees of the institution or other appropriate institution officials shall waive all tuition charges and fees for such student, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In the event that classes are full or the granting of free admission requires additional units, the institution may deny admission under this section.

HB 640, AN ACT relating to education.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 156.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of education shall consist of the state board of education and the superintendent of public instruction, who shall be the head of the department.

(2) The department of education shall exercise all the administrative functions of the state in relation to the management and control of the public common schools, [of] vocational education, vocational [and] rehabilitation [of West Kentucky Vocational School], the Kentucky School for the Blind and the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and may exercise the general [certain] powers and functions relating to state vocational schools and area vocational educational centers for young people who are enrolled in regular day schools and for out-of-school youth and adults, both employed and unemployed. The department of education shall exercise also those powers [area vocation schools, and] relating to television in aid of education and other proper public functions, as provided in KRS 156.070.

(3) The Kentucky School for the Deaf advisory board and the state textbook commission are included in the department of education and constitute divisions thereof, but each shall continue to exercise all the functions conferred upon it by law.

Section 2. KRS 156.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall have the management and control of the common schools, public vocational education for young people who are enrolled in regular day schools and for out-of-school youth and adults, both employed and unemployed, [and] vocational rehabilitation, [West Kentucky Vocational School,] and the Kentucky School for the Blind.

(2) (a) It is hereby authorized to lease from the state property and buildings commission, or others, whether public or private, any lands, buildings, structures, installations and facilities suitable for use in establishing and furthering television and related facilities as an aid or supplement to classroom instruction, throughout the commonwealth, and for incidental use in any other proper public functions. Any such lease may be for any initial term commencing with the date of such lease and ending with the next ensuing June 30 which is the close of the then current fiscal biennium of the commonwealth with exclusive options in favor of the board to renew the same for successive ensuing bienniums (July 1 in each even year to June 30 in the next ensuing even year); and the rentals may be fixed at such sums in each biennium, if renewed, as will be sufficient to enable the state property and buildings commission to pay therefrom the maturing principal of and interest on (and provide reserves for) any revenue bonds which said state property and buildings commission may determine to be necessary and sufficient, in agreement with the board, to provide the cost of acquiring such television and related facilities, with appurtenances and such costs as may be incident to the issuance of such bonds.

(b) Each such option of the state board of education to renew the lease for succeeding biennial term may be exercised at any time after the adjournment of the session of the general assembly at which appropriations shall have been made for the operation of the state government for such succeeding biennial term, by notifying the state property and buildings commission in writing, signed by the superintendent of public instruction, and delivered to the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration as a member of said commission; Provided, however, That such option shall be deemed automatically exercised, and the lease automatically renewed for the succeeding biennium, effective on the first day thereof, unless a written notice of the board's election not to renew shall have been delivered in the office of the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration before the close of business on the last working day in April immediately preceding the beginning of such succeeding biennium.

(c) The board shall not itself operate such leased television facilities, or undertake the preparation of the educational presentations or films to be transmitted thereby, but may enter into one or more contracts to provide therefor, with any public agency and instrumentality of the commonwealth having, or able to provide, a staff with proper technical qualifications, upon which agency and instrumentality the board, through the superintendent of public instruction and the department of education, is represented in such manner as to coordinate matters of curriculum with the curricula prescribed for the public schools of the commonwealth. Any such contract for the operation of the leased television or related facilities may permit limited and special uses of the television or related facilities for other programs in the public interest, subject to such reasonable terms and conditions as the board and the operating agency and instrumentality may agree upon; but any such contract shall affirmatively forbid the use of the television or related facilities, at any time or in any manner, in the dissemination of political propaganda or in furtherance of the interest of any political party or candidate for public office, or for commercial advertising. No lease between the board and the state property and buildings commission shall bind the board to pay rentals for more than one fiscal biennium at a time, subject to the aforesaid renewal options. The board may receive and may apply to rental payments under any such lease and to the cost of providing for the operation of such television or related facilities not only appropriations which may be made to it from state funds, from time to time, but also contributions, gifts, matching funds, devises and bequests from any source, whether federal or state, and whether public or private, so long as the same are not conditioned upon any improper use of the television or related facilities in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection.

(3) The state board of education may, on the recommendation and with the advice of the superintendent of public instruction, prescribe, print, publish and distribute at public expense such rules, regulations, courses of study, curriculums, bulletins, programs, outlines, reports and placards as it deems necessary for the efficient management, control and operation of the schools under its jurisdiction. All rules and regulations published or distributed by the board shall be inclosed in a booklet or binder on which the words "informational copy" shall be clearly stamped or printed.

[(4) In its capacity as a board of control for the West Kentucky School, the board may receive by any legal mode of conveyance, and hold and enjoy, property of any description.]

The superintendent of public instruction may attend educational associations, conventions and conferences within or without the state for the purpose of keeping informed upon and familiar with progressive educational policies and practices. When thus engaged his traveling expenses shall be paid [, but his total expenses for that purpose shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) in any one (1) year].

Section 4. KRS 163.085 is amended to read as follows:

HB 4, AN ACT relating to the collection and distribution of taxes for education and other purposes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
It is the intention of the General Assembly in adopting this Act to encourage local supplement of the funds distributed from the public common school foundation program fund by providing districts with substantially equal power to generate funds for this purpose through a program of district power equalization.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
(1) There is hereby established a public common school district power equalization program fund consisting of appropriations for distribution to districts in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
(2) The resources of the public common school district power equalization program fund shall be paid into the state treasury, and shall be drawn out or appropriated only in aid of public schools as provided by statute.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
On or before January 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue shall determine the equalized fair cash value, as of the previous January 1, of all property subject to taxation for school purposes in each district, and shall certify such information to the superintendent of public instruction for use in determining the amount of state power equalization support for each school district.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall calculate the amount of state power equalization support for each district in the following manner:
(a) Determine the equalized fair cash value of property per pupil in each district by dividing the district's equalized fair cash value of property by its average daily attendance.
(b) Determine the current maximum local discretionary revenue yield per pupil in each district by multiplying the district's equalized fair cash value of property per pupil by the district's total school tax rate, less any special voted building fund tax rate and any sinking fund tax rate. The net rate used in this calculation shall not exceed the supported rate as provided for in Section 5 of this Act.
(c) Determine the guaranteed local discretionary revenue yield per pupil in each district by multiplying the equalized fair cash value of property per pupil of the county district with the highest fair cash value of property per pupil in the state by each district's total school tax rate less any special voted building fund tax rate and any sinking fund tax rate. The net rate used in this calculation shall not exceed the supported rate as provided for in Section 5 of this Act.
(d) Multiply the difference between each district's current maximum local discretionary revenue yield per pupil (as determined in subparagraph (b) of this section) and its guaranteed local discretionary revenue yield per pupil (as determined in subparagraph (c) of this section) by its average daily attendance. The result shall be the amount of state power equalization support for each district.
(2) Equalized fair cash value of property and average daily attendance as used in this section shall be the prior year's equalized fair cash value of property and average daily attendance. School tax rates as used in this section shall be the current year's school tax rates.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
(1) Prior to July 1 of each fiscal year the superintendent of public instruction shall determine the maximum tax rate which the available fund will support, and the superintendent will fix that rate as the maximum rate to be supported by the district power equalization program. The rate to be supported by the district power equalization program shall always be an identical rate for all districts.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
(1) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, the board of education of any district in any year in which the total school tax rate, less any special voted building fund tax rate and any sinking fund tax rate, is less than the maximum rate supported by the district power equalization program as provided for in Sections 4 and 5 of this Act, may request the local tax levying authority to increase the rate in any amount not to exceed the maximum rate supported by the district power equalization program. The levying authority shall adopt an ordinance or resolution submitting to the qualified voters of the district, in the manner of submitting and voting as prescribed in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of KRS 160.477, the question whether a rate which would produce revenues in excess of the maximum provided by subsection (2) of KRS 160.470 shall be levied. If a majority of those voting on the question favor the increased rate, the tax levying authority shall, when the next tax rate for the district is fixed, levy the rate requested by the board not to exceed the rate authorized by the voters.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

For each school year the executive department for finance and administration, on the certification of the superintendent of public instruction, shall draw warrants as specified hereinafter on the state treasurer for the amount of the state power equalization support due each district. Checks shall be issued by the state treasurer and transmitted to the Department of Education for distribution to the proper officials of the school districts when the districts have fully complied with the school laws and rules and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. The superintendent of public instruction shall determine on or before July 1 of each year the tentative allotment of school funds to which each district is entitled under the provisions of this Act. This allotment will be based on the prior year's school tax rate. Beginning July 1 of each year and on the first of each month thereafter, one-twelfth (1/12) of each district's share of the state power equalization support shall be distributed. On or before March 1 of each year, the superintendent of public instruction shall determine the exact amount of the state power equalization support to which each district is entitled and the remainder of the amount due each district for the year shall be distributed in equal installments beginning the first month after completion of the final calculation and for each successive month thereafter.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 157 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) No district shall be eligible for the state power equalization support provided for in this Act during any fiscal year in which the district board of education specifies in its budget for that fiscal year a total school tax rate, less any special voted building fund tax rate and any sinking fund tax rate, which would produce less revenue than was produced by the application of that district's total school tax rate for fiscal year 1976-77, less thirty cents (30¢), and less any special voted building fund tax rate and sinking fund tax rate for fiscal year 1976-77, to that district's 1976 assessment specified under KRS 160.460(3).

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall not certify to the executive department for finance and administration for payment of the state power equalization support for any fiscal year a school district which has become ineligible for such support as provided in subsection (1) above.

(3) Any district receiving a tentative allotment under Section 7 of this Act which does not meet the requirement of subsection (1) above shall return all funds received to the District Equalization Program Fund.

Section 9. KRS 132.020 is amended to read as follows:

(b) The average daily attendance referred to in this subsection shall be the prior year average daily attendance of the district adjusted proportionally for any increase in classroom units allotted the district under provisions of subsection (4) of KRS 157.360.

(c) The classroom unit requirement under this subsection relating to classroom units under subsections (5) and (6) of KRS 157.360 may be waived for any district by the superintendent of public instruction when it is shown that the need for these educational services no longer exists.

Section 16. KRS 160.470 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each district board of education shall prepare a general school budget on forms prescribed and furnished by the state board of education, showing the amount of money needed for current expenses, debt service, capital outlay, and other necessary expenses of the schools during the succeeding fiscal year, the estimated total amount that will be received from the common school fund and other sources, the assessed valuation of property subject to local taxation in the school district furnished as provided in subsection (3) of KRS 160.460, an estimate made by the department of revenue of public service company assessments and assessments of other property in the school district not furnished under the provisions of subsection (3) of KRS 160.460, and the amount that will be needed to be raised by local taxation, including the rate of levy necessary to raise such an amount.

(2) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, no district board of education shall submit a budget for 1977-78 which would require more revenue from local ad valorem taxes than would be produced by application of the 1976-77 [preceding year's] rate, minus thirty cents (30¢), to the 1976-77 [preceding year's] assessment, exclusive of voted levies and net assessment growth as defined in KRS 132.425, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act [subsection (3) of KRS 157.380 and as provided in subsection (4) of this section]. In succeeding years, no district board of education shall submit a budget which would require more revenue from local ad valorem taxes than would be produced by application of the preceding year's rate to the preceding year's assessment, exclusive of voted levies and net assessment growth as defined in KRS 132.425, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act. In the event of a merger of school districts, the limitations contained in this section shall be based upon the combined revenue of the merging districts, as computed under the provisions of this section.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall certify to each district board of education, by June 1 of each year, the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue. This amount shall be computed as follows:

(a) The superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the 1976-77 [preceding year's] rate, minus thirty cents (30¢), to the 1976-77 [preceding year's] assessment. In succeeding years, the superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the preceding year's rate to the preceding year's assessment.

(b) The superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the 1976-77 [preceding year's effective tax] rate, minus thirty cents (30¢), to the net assessment growth in each school district. In succeeding years, the superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the preceding year's rate to the net assessment growth in each school district. The net assessment growth as determined in accordance with KRS 132.425 shall be certified to the superintendent of public instruction by the department of revenue by May 20 of each year.

[(c) The superintendent of public instruction shall compile a list of those school districts in which the general fund ad valorem tax for the 1965-1966 school year was levied at a rate less than the $1.50 maximum then authorized by KRS 160.475. The superintendent of public instruction shall then calculate for each such district the revenue that would have been produced for the 1965-1966 school year if such tax had been levied at the $1.50 rate. He shall then re-calculate the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue that would have been authorized for each such district for the 1966-1967, 1967-1968, 1968-1969 and 1969-1970 school years as though the 1965-1966 tax had been levied at the $1.50 rate, including in such re-calculation the revenue that would have been derived from taxation of net assessment growth under paragraph (b) of this subsection and the revenue that would have been derived from any percentage increases actually adopted by the district under subsection (4) of this section. The maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue so re-calculated for the 1969-1970 school year shall, for such districts, be deemed the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue to be determined by the superintendent for the 1970-1971 school year under paragraph (a) of this subsection.]

(c) [(d)] The sum of the amounts computed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue for purposes of subsection (2) of this section [, except as otherwise therein prescribed].

[(e) Any school district which is not contemplating capital construction and which is eligible for the increase allowed in paragraph (c) of this subsection may elect to take advantage of the increase in equal stages over a period of three years.]

[(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (2) of this section, any district board of education which in preparing its proposed budget deems that it will require an amount of revenue greater than that permitted in subsection (2) of this section may submit to the levying authority for the school years 1966-1967 and 1967-1968 a budget which could require an increase in such revenue of not more than 10 per cent after compliance with the following:]

[(a) The district board of education shall give notice of any proposed increase in revenue. Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, notice shall be given by causing to be published, at least one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or by posting at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper, the fact that said increase of not exceeding 10 per cent is being proposed. Said advertisement shall state that the district board of education will meet at a place and on a day fixed in the advertisement, not earlier than one (1) week and not later than two (2) weeks from the date of the advertisement, for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for such proposal.]

[(b) The district board of education shall conduct a public hearing at the place and on the date advertised for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for such proposal.]

(4) [(5)] Three (3) copies of the budget shall be filed with the clerk of the tax-levying authority of the district within three (3) days after the district board of education has received its assessment data. The clerk shall present the budget to the proper tax-levying authority when the authority convenes to fix its school levy. The failure of the district board of education to furnish the budget within the time prescribed shall not invalidate any levy made thereafter.

(5) [(6)] Within three (3) days after the tax-levying authority has fixed the tax rate, the district board of education shall forward two (2) copies of the budget to the state board of education for its approval or disapproval. The budget shall be disapproved if it is financially unsound or fails to provide for: (a) Payment of maturing principal of and interest on any outstanding voted school improvement bonds of the school district authorized and issued pursuant to KRS 162.080 and 162.090, with the written approval of the state board of education, or (b) Payment of rentals in connection with any outstanding school building revenue bonds issued for the benefit of the independent school district or county school district, as the case may be, by the appropriate city or county as authorized and provided under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.300, with the written approval of the state board of education, or fails to comply with the law; and the state board of education shall state its reason, or reasons, for such disapproval. In such event the district board of education shall amend its budget, within the limitations of this section, to obviate the reasons for disapproval.

(6) [(7)] If the budget as amended specifies a tax levy different from that levied under the disapproved budget, the tax-levying authority shall amend its levy in accordance therewith, so that the levy as amended shall comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of KRS 160.460. No general school budget shall become effective until approved by the state board of education.

(7) [(8)] Each district board of education shall, if required by the state board of education, prepare and submit to it not later than September 15, a close estimate or working budget which shall conform to the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of education, and which shall be consistent in its major divisions with the general school budget previously prepared.

Section 17. KRS 160.475 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 160.470(2), 160.476(4) and 160.477(6) the ad valorem tax levy for school purposes, other than sinking fund purposes, in each school district, shall be not [less than twenty-five cents (25¢) annually on each one hundred dollars ($100) of property subject to local taxation nor] more than one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) annually on each one hundred dollars ($100) of property subject to local taxation.

(2) All existing subdistrict school tax levies, except those required to retire voted bonds, are hereby abolished.

[(3) In any school district which levied a poll tax in 1973, the superintendent of public instruction may include the revenue received from the poll tax in that year in computing the maximum permissible revenue for 1974 under the provisions of KRS 160.470(3).]

SECTION 25. KRS 157.360 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In determining the cost of the foundation program for each district, the superintendent of public instruction shall allot to each district classroom units for elementary and secondary schools, classroom units for vocational education, classroom units for exceptional children, classroom units for superintendents, principals and their certificated assistants and other administrative and special instructional service personnel, classroom units for supervisors of instruction, and classroom units for directors of pupil personnel; provided, however, that the number of classroom units allotted any district shall not exceed the number of teachers employed by the district.

(2) In allotting classroom units for elementary and secondary schools, one classroom unit shall be included for each twenty-seven pupils in average daily attendance in grades 1 through 12; provided, however, that one classroom unit shall be included for each isolated one-teacher school and one unit shall be included for each twenty-five pupils in average daily attendance at all other isolated schools.

(3) Under the provisions of subsections (5) and (6) of this section, the average daily attendance, as defined in KRS 157.320(1), shall be deducted for pupils enrolled in new classroom units allotted after July 1, 1974; provided, however, no deduction shall be made for pupils attending state vocational-technical schools or state-operated vocational education centers. For the purpose of this subsection, a new classroom unit shall be defined as any additional vocational or exceptional children unit contained in the biennial budget above the allotment from the biennial budget for 1973-74. Any average daily attendance deducted under this subsection shall be in accordance with Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education as recommended by the superintendent of public instruction.

(4) Allotments of classroom units in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall be made on the average daily attendance in grades 1 through 12 for the previous school year; provided, however, that if the average daily attendance in grades 1 through 12 in any district for the first two months of the current school year is greater than the average daily attendance of the district for the first two months of the previous school year, upon application of the district board, made prior to December 1, the total number of classroom units allotted the district shall be increased by the percent of increase. If the average daily attendance of any district shall have been reduced more than three percent during the previous school year due to such factors as epidemics, inclement weather, or disaster, upon application of the district superintendent, made before July 1 of that year, the number of classroom units allotted the district for the ensuing school year shall be increased by the difference in percent between the ratio of the average daily attendance to the average daily membership for the scholastic year just ended, and the ratio fo the average daily attendance to the average daily membership for the two highest of the three preceding scholastic years.

(5) In allotting classroom units for vocational education, one classroom unit shall be allotted for each full-time teacher, and a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each less than full-time teacher of vocational classes that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education; a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted for each teacher employed to teach part-time or short unit classes for less than a school day or a school year that meet the regulations of the state plan of vocational education as approved by the state board of education. The classroom units allotted under this subsection shall not exceed the units provided in the biennial budget without approval of the governor.

(7) In allotting classroom units for superintendents, principals, their certificated assistants, and other administrative and special instructional service personnel, the total number of classroom units allotted in subsections (2), (5), (6) and (10) shall be divided by eight and the quotient shall be the number of classroom units allotted to the district for superintendents, principals, their certificated assistants and other administrative and special instructional service personnel as are authorized by Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. Provided, however, that in allotting classroom units for superintendents, principals, their certificated assistants, and other administrative and special instructional service personnel, the total number of pupils in average daily attendance pursuant to subsections (5) and (6), for new classroom units approved beyond those allotted in the school year 1975-76 shall be divided by two hundred and sixteen (216) and the quotient shall be the number of classroom units allotted to the district for superintendents, principals, their certificated assistants, and other administrative and special instructional service personnel pursuant to subsections (5) and (6).

(8) In allotting classroom units for supervisors of instruction, one-half of a classroom unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted twenty-five through forty-nine and nine-tenths classroom units under subsections (2), (5), (6) and (10); one unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted fifty to one hundred classroom units, one unit shall be allotted for each one hundred classroom units, or major fraction thereof, in districts allotted more than one hundred classroom units under these subsections.

(9) In allotting classroom units for directors of pupil personnel, one classroom unit shall be allotted each district which is allotted thirty-six to one hundred and sixty-five and nine-tenths classroom units under subsection (2) and a unit fir each additional two hundred and sixty-six classroom units or fraction thereof allotted under subsection (2). For districts having fewer than thirty-six classroom units, a proportionate fraction of a classroom unit shall be allotted.

(10) In allotting classroom units for kindergarten, the superintendent of public instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, may allot units for kindergarten. The classroom units allotted under this subsection shall not exceed the units provided in the biennial budget without approval of the governor.

(11) In allotting classroom units under subsections (1) through (10) the superintendent of public instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, may allot units on the basis of an area larger than a district for educational services which cannot be adequately and economically provided on a district basis.

SECTION 26. KRS 157.370 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In determining the cost of the foundation program for each district, the superintendent of public instruction shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density of transported pupils per square mile of area served by not less than nine different density groups.

(2) The annual cost of transportation shall include all current costs for each district plus annual depreciation of pupil transportation vehicles calculated in accordance with the Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education for such districts that operate district-owned vehicles.

(3) The aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils shall include all public school pupils transported at public expense who live one mile or more from school, provided that handicapped children may be included who live less than this distance from school. The aggregate and average daily attendance referred to in this subsection shall be the aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils the prior year adjusted for current year increases in accordance with state board of education regulations.

(4) The square miles of area served by transportation shall be determined by subtracting from the total area in square miles of the district the area not served by transportation, determined in accordance with the Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education provided that if one district authorizes another district to provide transportation for a part of its area, such area served shall be deducted from the area served by that district and added to the area served by the district providing the transportation.

(5) The density of transported pupils per square mile of area served for each district shall be determined by dividing the average daily attendance of transported pupils by the number of square miles of area served by transportation.

(6) The superintendent of public instruction shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density by constructing a smoothed graph of cost for all density groups as provided in subsection (1). This graph shall be used to construct a scale showing the average costs of transportation for districts having a similar density of transported pupils. Such costs shall be determined separately for county school districts and independent school districts, provided that no independent school district will receive an average cost per pupil per day in excess of the minimum received by any county district or districts. These costs shall be the costs per pupil per day of transported pupils included in the foundation program and such costs shall be recalculated each biennium.

(7) The scale of transportation costs included in the foundation program for county and independent districts is determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440 for the biennium beginning July 1, 1960.

(8) The cost of transporting a district's pupils from the parent school to a state vocational-technical school or to a vocational educational center shall be calculated separately from the calculation required by sections (1) through (7) of this section. The amount calculated shall be paid separately to each district from minimum foundation program funds budgeted for vocational pupil transportation, as a reimbursement based on the district's cost for providing this service. The amount of reimbursement shall be calculated in accordance with state board of education regulations. In the event that the appropriation for vocational pupil transportation in the biennial budget is insufficient to meet the total calculated cost of this service for all districts, the amount paid to each district shall be ratably reduced. For the purpose of this subsection, the parent school shall be interpreted to mean that school in which the pupil is officially enrolled in a district's public common school system.

(9) The state board of education, by Kentucky administrative regulation, shall determine the type of handicapped pupil that qualifies for special type transportation to and from school. Those qualified pupils for which the district provides special type transportation shall have their aggregate days attendance multiplied by 5.0 and added to that part of the district's aggregate days attendance that is multiplied by the district's adjusted cost per pupil per day in determining the district's pupil transportation program cost for allotment purposes.

SECTION 27. KRS 157.380 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) On or before January 1 of each year the department of revenue shall determine the fair cash value of all property subject to assessment for school purposes, including a separate listing of the part of such assessment represented by "net assessment growth" as defined in KRS 132.425, and shall determine the percentage the fair cash value in each district is of the total equalized value of all property in the commonwealth subject to taxation for school purposes and shall certify such information to the superintendent of public instruction for use in determining the required local tax effort for each district for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, next after such certification.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall for the 1968-69 fiscal year use the aggregate required local tax effort and the required local tax effort for the respective school districts which were determined for use during the 1967-68 fiscal year. For each fiscal year subsequent to 1968-69, the aggregate required local tax effort for the commonwealth shall be the sum of the aggregate required local tax effort for the preceding year plus the amount obtained by multiplying the percentage of net assessment growth, as defined in KRS 132.425, by the aggregate local required tax effort for the preceding year; and the required local tax effort for each district shall be obtained by multiplying each district's percentage of the total equalized value of all property in the commonwealth subject to school taxation for school purposes by the aggregate required local tax effort of the commonwealth.

(3) Any district's levy shall be at such rate as is necessary to provide the required local tax effort.

SECTION 28. KRS 157.390 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the State Board of Education, shall classify teachers in rank as follows:

Rank I. Those holding regular certificates and who have a master's degree or its equivalent and who have earned thirty semester hours of approved graduate work or its equivalent, and those teachers who, as of September 1, 1962, were included in Rank I, having earned twenty-four semester hours of additional approved graduate work.

Rank II. Those holding regular certificates and who have a master's degree or its equivalent.

Rank III. Those holding regular certificates and who have an approved four-year college degree or the equivalent.

Rank IV. Those holding certificates and who have ninety-six to 128 semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent; provided, however, that persons holding emergency certificates shall not be classified higher than this rank for calculation of the amount to be included in the foundation program.

Rank V. Those holding certificates and who have sixty-four to ninety-five semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent.

(b) In determining ranks, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, under Kentucky administrative regulations of the State Board of Education, shall classify teachers who hold valid certificates in the respective ranks according to approved college semester hours of credit. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in defining preparation for certain types of vocational teachers as equivalent to college training, shall give consideration to apprenticeship training and industrial experience.

(2) (a) The amount to be included in each school year in the foundation program of a district for teachers' salaries shall be determined by multiplying the number of teachers in each rank, not to exceed the number of classroom units allowed, by the amount set forth in the biennial budget schedule for each rank and experience for a term of 185 days. Provided, the amount to be included for units allotted under KRS 157.360(5), (7), (8) and (9) shall be increased proportionately if the personnel for such units are employed for longer than the regular school term and such employment is approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under Kentucky administrative regulations of the State Board of Education. Where the actual number of teachers employed by the district varies from the number allowed under the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440, the number to be included in each rank shall be in the same ratio that the number of teachers actually in each rank is to the total number of teachers employed.

(b) The State Board of Education with the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, may designate local school districts as Experimental Districts for the utilization of para-professionals and teacher aides including the utilization of para-professionals and teacher aides for exceptional children. In experimental districts, foundation program fund calculations shall include, with respect to one or more schools in the district, an amount for para-professionals and teacher aides. This amount may be equal to fifty (50) percent of the amount included for a teacher in Rank III with no experience, multiplied by the number of approved para-professionals and teacher aides employed in the designated school or schools.

(d) In the calculation of classroom units for the purpose of allocation of teachers' salaries only, the State Board of Education may use a ratio greater than twenty-seven to one for such calculations regarding the experimental districts designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(3) The amount to be included in the foundation program for other current expenses shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom units by the amounts set forth in the biennial budget.

(4) The amount to be included in the foundation program for capital outlay shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom units by the amounts set forth in the biennial budget.

(5) The amount to be included in the foundation program of each district for transportation shall be determined by multiplying the aggregate attendance of transported children by the allowable cost per pupil per day for that district determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 157.370.

(6) The total cost of the foundation program for each district shall be the sum of the allotments in subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this section.

SECTION 29. KRS 157.400 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The amount of money distributable to each district from the public school foundation program fund shall be determined by subtracting the required local tax effort from the total foundation program allotment for the district as determined in KRS 157.390.

(2) (a) If it shall be determined in subsection (1) of this section that the amount of money distributable to a school district for the school year 1976-77 shall be less than $300 per pupil in average daily attendance and, beginning in the 1977-78 school year, that the amount of money distributable to a school district shall be less than $327 per pupil in average daily attendance, then the apportionment for that district shall be increased to $300 per pupil in average daily attendance in 1976-77 and beginning in the 1977-78 school year the apportionment for that district shall be increased to $327 per pupil in average daily attendance; provided, however, if a district fails to provide the total potential classroom units under subsections (2), (7), (8) and (9) of KRS 157.360 and at least as many classroom units under subsections (5) and (6) of KRS 157.360 as were provided in each of these subsections in 1955-56, any increase in the apportionment called for in this subsection shall be reduced to the extent that the district fails to provide the classroom units.

(b) The average daily attendance referred to in this subsection shall be the prior year average daily attendance of the district adjusted proportionally for any increase in classroom units allotted the district under provisions of subsection (4) of KRS 157.360.

(c) The classroom unit requirement under this subsection relating to classroom units under subsections (5) and (6) of KRS 157.360 may be waived for any district by the superintendent of public instruction when it is shown that the need for these educational services no longer exists.

(3) In the event a district whose appropriation is increased under subsection (2) of this section is allotted classroom units under subsections (5), (6) and (10) of KRS 157.360 in excess of the number of such units allotted that district in 1955-56, then the allotment to that district determined in subsection (2) of this section shall be increased by the foundation program cost of these units determined in accordance with subsections (2), (4) and (5) of KRS 157.390.

(4) If the per pupil allotment to a school district as determined in subsections (1) and (3) of this section is an amount less than the allotment per pupil under KRS 157.400 during the next immediately preceding fiscal year, then the allotment shall be increased by an amount necessary to provide a per pupil average daily attendance allotment equal to the per pupil average daily attendance allotment for the next immediately preceding year; provided, however, if a district fails to provide the total potential classroom units under subsections (2), (7), (8), and (9) of KRS 157.360 and at least as many classroom units under subsection (5) or (6) of KRS 157.360 as were provided in 1955-56, any increase in the apportionment called for in this subsection shall be reduced to the extent that the district fails to provide the classroom units.

SECTION 30. KRS 157.410 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

For each school year the executive department for finance and administration, on the certification of the superintendent of public instruction, shall draw warrants as specified hereinafter on the state treasurer for the amount of the public school foundation program fund due each district. Checks shall be issued by the state treasurer and transmitted to the department of education for distribution to the proper officials of the several school districts when the districts have fully complied with the school laws and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. The superintendent of public instruction shall determine on or before August 15 of each year the tentative allotment of school funds to which each district is entitled under the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440. On July 1, August 1, and September 1, of each fiscal year, one-twelfth of the prior year's allotment minus the capital outlay shall be paid each school district. On the first of each month thereafter until the final calculation is completed, one-twelfth of each district's share of the tentative calculation for instructional salaries, current expenses, and transportation of the public common school foundation program fund shall be distributed. On or before May 1 of each year the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the exact amount of the public common school foundation program fund to which each district is entitled and the remainder of the amount due each district for the year shall be distributed in equal installments beginning the first month after completion of final calculation and for each successive month thereafter. Capital outlay shall be made in two payments. The first, on or before October 1, shall be one-half of the amount calculated on the tentative allocation for capital outlay. The balance due shall be paid on or before May 1.

SECTION 31. KRS 157.420 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Public school foundation program funds made available to the credit of each district during any year, shall be received, held and expended by the district board, subject to the provisions of law and Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. The following restrictions shall govern the expenditure of funds from the public school foundation program fund:

(1) The teachers' salaries allotment for each district from the public school foundation program fund and from local sources shall be used only for teachers holding properly authorized certificates. The average salary paid any rank of teachers shall be at least equivalent to the amount set forth in the biennial budget schedule for each rank and experience for a term of 185 days. No teacher shall be paid less than 93 percent of the public school foundation program fund allotment for that rank for full-time service during the regular school year. This paragraph shall not apply to noncertificated personnel in experimental districts designated pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of KRS 157.390.

(2) The state board of education shall not approve any working budget or salary schedule for local boards of education for any school year in which the total amount budgeted for teachers' salaries is not equal to an amount required to maintain the district's salary schedule of the preceding year plus the additional amount for teachers' salaries received by the district.

(3) The capital outlay allotment for each district from the public school foundation program fund and from local sources shall be kept in a separate fund and may be used by the district only for capital outlay projects approved by the superintendent of public instruction in accordance with requirements of law, and based on a survey made in accordance with Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education. These funds shall be used for the following capital outlay purposes:

(a) For direct payment of construction costs;

(b) For debt service on voted and funding bonds;

(c) For payment or lease-rental agreements under which the board eventually will acquire ownership of a school plant;

(d) For the retirement of any deficit resulting from over-expenditure for capital construction, if such deficit resulted from an emergency declared by the state board of education under KRS 160.550;

(e) As a reserve fund for the above-named purposes, to be carried forward in ensuing budgets; provided, however, if any district has a special levy for capital outlay or debt service that is equal to the capital outlay allotment or a proportionate fraction thereof, and spends the proceeds of that levy for the above-named purposes, the superintendent of public instruction under Kentucky administrative regulations of the state board of education, may authorize the district to use all or a proportionate fraction of its capital outlay allotment for current expenses.

(4) If a survey shows that a school district has no capital outlay needs as shown in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subsection (3) of this section, upon approval of the superintendent of public instruction, these funds may be used for school plant maintenance, repair, insurance on buildings, replacement of equipment and purchase of school buses.

SECTION 32. KRS 157.430 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If, when the apportionments are being determined under the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440, funds appropriated by the general assembly to the public school foundation program fund plus that portion of the funds required from local tax effort are insufficient to provide the amount of money required under subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of KRS 157.400, the superintendent of public instruction shall make a percentage reduction in the allotments to reduce the total of these allotments to funds available.

SECTION 33. KRS 157.990 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(d) Such other reasonable and necessary information as may be required by the department.

(4) When the valuation has been finally determined, the department shall certify the valuation to the property valuation administrator for placement upon the county assessment rolls.

In counties in which there are located both a city of the second class and a city of the third class, twenty-five percent (25%) of the freeholders of an unincorporated area annexed by a city of the second class pursuant to a judgment of the circuit court or court of final disposition acting on petition or appeal of such annexation, may, within six (6) months of the effective date of the final annexing ordinance by the governing body of the city of the second class, petition the county clerk to place the following question on the ballots in the area at the next regular election: "Shall the area described in Ordinance ---------- of the City of --------- remain a part of the City of ---------?" Upon the receipt of such a petition, the county clerk shall, at the next regular election cause the question to be placed upon the ballots in the area annexed. (1) The ventilation of all underground coal or clay mines shall be produced by means of mechanically operated fans located outside the mine in fireproof housing and offset at least fifteen (15) feet to one side or above the opening, protected by explosion doors or weak walls and arranged so that ventilating current may be reversed if necessary. The fan shall be installed so as to prevent recirculation of mine air. In gassy mines the main fan shall be operated from a power circuit independent from the mine circuit. If inside auxiliary fans are required to ventilate working places the commissioner must first approve the installation.

(2) The operator, superintendent or foreman of every coal or clay mine worked by shaft, slope or drift shall provide and maintain for every mine adequate ventilation. In all mines the quantity of air passing through the last open crosscut between the intake and return in any pair of sets of entries shall be not less than nine thousand (9000) feet of air per minute and as much more as is necessary to dilute and render harmless and carry away flammable and harmful gases. All working faces in a working section between the intake and return airway entries shall be ventilated with a minimum quantity of three thousand (3000) cubic feet of air per minute and as much more as is necessary to dilute and render harmless and carry away flammable and harmful gases. The quantity of air reaching the last crosscut in pillar sections may be less than nine thousand (9000) cubic feet of air per minute if at least nine thousand (9000) cubic feet of air per minute is being delivered to the intake of the pillar line. The air current shall under any conditions have a sufficient volume and velocity to reduce and carry away smoke from blasting and any flammable or harmful gases. All active underground working places in a mine shall be ventilated by a current of air containing not less than nineteen and one-half percent (19 1/2%) of oxygen, not more than one-half percent (.5%) of carbon dioxide, and no harmful quantities of other noxious or poisonous gases. [At least six thousand (6000) cubic feet of air per minute shall be circulated around the main headings, cross headings, room headings and through the last open breakthrough; and sufficient air shall be directed to the working faces to such an extent as to dilute, render harmless and carry off any noxious or dangerous gases. In pillar workings at least six thousand (6000) cubic feet of air per minute must be delivered to the beginning of the pillar line.]

(3) Any gassy mine or one operating under the water table shall maintain at least nine thousand (9000) cubic feet of air per minute at the points mentioned in subsection (2) of this section. The inspector shall have the authority to require additional air in any mine when he deems it necessary for the safety of the employes.

(4) When the air from a split has passed through and has ventilated all the working places in an air split of a mine it shall then be designated as return air.

(5) As working places advance, breakthroughs for air shall be made ninety (90) feet apart, except that where longwall or modern systems of mining are used the commissioner may approve a greater distance between breakthroughs or the method of ventilating such longwall or modern systems of mining. If any breakthroughs between intake and return airways are not required for the passage of air, they shall be closed with stoppings. All permanent stoppings shall be substantially built with suitable incombustible or fire resistant material subject to the approval of the mine inspector so as to keep the working places well ventilated. Doors on the main haulways shall be avoided in gassy mines where practicable, and overcasts, built of concrete or other suitable material and of ample strength, shall be adopted. Where doors are used they shall be built in a substantial manner, and shall be hung so as to close automatically when unobstructed.

(6) In a mine where methane can be found to an extent of one percent (1%) or more on the return of any one (1) split, the inspector, with the approval of the commissioner may require the mine to be ventilated by the exhaust system, requiring the haulage roads and all trolley and feed wires to be located on the intake air and the electrical system to be so arranged that no wires carrying electrical current shall be on return air. A period of not more than ninety (90) days from date of notification shall be allowed to make the changes required.

Section 6. KRS 352.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As many as sixty (60) persons may work in the same air current or split, and with the approval of the mine inspector and the commissioner, as many as eighty (80) persons may work in the same air current. Every mine, and all portions thereof, shall be ventilated by one or more currents of air, which shall contain not less than nineteen and one-half percent (19.5%) of oxygen, nor more than one-half percent (.5%) of carbon dioxide, nor any dangerous quantities of inflammable gas, nor any harmful amount of poisonous gases or dust, when the current of air enters into each split. In any event, the ventilation shall be sufficient to prevent methane accumulations, so far as practicable, and to keep the methane percentage in the return of any split to not more than two percent (2%).

(2) The ventilating current shall be circulated through the haulageways, travelways and airways so as to reach all portions of the mine, except sealed sections; and it shall be circulated through the entries and rooms around the ends of line brattice and along pillar lines. It shall be conducted to the last breakthrough, or to the working faces if required, by means of such stoppings, check doors, curtains and brattice as may be necessary or required, in order to dilute, render harmless and carry away the noxious and dangerous gases, smoke and dust liberated therein, and to supply a sufficient quantity of ventilation for all emergencies.

(3) When mine ventilation, formerly satisfactory and adequate, becomes deficient in quality or quantity, the department shall have authority to order improvement of the ventilation.

(4) No operator, superintendent or mine foreman shall permit any person to work at a place where sufficient ventilation cannot be maintained, except persons employed to make the places of employment safe in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and while repair work necessary to comply with the requirements is in progress no person shall be permitted to enter that part of the mine affected except those actually employed in doing the repair work. Such repair work shall be done under the constant supervision of a certified official designated by the mine foreman.

(5) Each operator shall adopt a plan within sixty (60) days after June 16, 1972, which shall provide that when any mine fan stops, immediate action shall be taken by the operator or his agent:

(a) To withdraw all persons from the working sections;

(b) To cut off the power in the mine in a timely manner;

(c) To provide for restoration of power and resumption of work if ventilation is restored within a reasonable period, of not more than fifteen (15) minutes, as set forth in the plan after the working places and other active workings where methane is likely to accumulate are reexamined by a certified person to determine if methane in amounts of one percent (1%) or more exists therein;

(d) To provide for withdrawal of all persons from the mine if ventilation cannot be restored within such reasonable time, of not more than fifteen (15) minutes. The plan and revisions thereof approved by the commissioner shall be set out in printed form and a copy shall be furnished to the commissioner or his authorized representative.

Section 7. KRS 352.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After June 16, 1972, no machinery powered by an internal combustion engine shall be placed in use in underground workings unless such equipment is rated "permissible" by the United States Bureau of Mines for underground use and the use of the machinery is approved by the commissioner of the Department of Mines and Minerals.

(2) No steam locomotive shall be used in any mine where men are actually employed in the extraction of coal, but this shall not prevent the operation of a steam locomotive through any tunnel haulway and part of a mine which is not in actual operation and producing coal.

(3) No operator, superintendent or mine foreman shall provide an animal stable inside any mine, unless it is approved in writing by the commissioner.

(4) Mining equipment being transported or trammed underground, other than ordinary sectional movements, shall be transported or trammed by qualified personnel under the supervision of a certified foreman. When equipment is being transported or trammed, no person shall be permitted to be in by the equipment in the ventilating split that is passing over such equipment. To avoid accidental contact with power lines, face equipment shall be insulated and assemblies removed, if necessary, so as to provide clearance.

Section 8. KRS 352.060 is amended to read as follows:

The following rules shall govern in the rock-dusting of mines:

(1) All dry mines, or parts of mines, or sections thereof, shall be rock-dusted if conditions are found to be dusty or hazardous, after proper inspection. In event such conditions are found to exist then the commissioner or his accredited representative shall require the necessary rock-dusting to make the mine, part of mine or section safe.

(2) In all mines, accumulations of fine dry coal dust shall [, as far as practicable,] be removed from the mine, and all [dry and dusty] operating sections kept thoroughly watered or rock-dusted, or the dust allayed by other methods approved by the commissioner, but in every [dusty] mine, or in any part or section thereof, rock-dusting shall be applied to maintain at all times a minimum percentage of sixty-five percent (65%) of noncombustible matter to within forty (40) feet of the faces, including last open crosscuts, and under certain special conditions the department may require that places be rock-dusted to the faces, and that additional rock-dust must be added. [The term "dusty mine" shall not include a wet or damp mine; but the provisions hereof relating to rock-dusting shall apply to any dusty part or section of a wet or damp mine.]

Section 9. KRS 352.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All unused workings and abandoned parts of mines must be protected by such safeguards as will prevent, so far as practicable, the accumulation or overflow of gas, and all avenues leading thereto shall be so arranged and conducted as to give warning to all persons of the danger of entering, and notice shall be posted warning all unauthorized persons not to enter such parts of the mine.

(2) No person, except persons authorized to make examination thereof, shall enter any unused or abandoned part of a mine after such warning has been posted.

(3) Where the practice is to seal abandoned workings, the sealing shall be done immediately in an effective manner with noncombustible material. In every sealed area, one or more of the seals shall be fitted with a pipe and cap or valve to permit the gases behind the seals to be sampled and also to provide a means of determining any existing hydrostatic pressure. When required by the mine inspector and commissioner, drill holes shall be extended from the surface to the sealed area, or vent pipes shall be extended from the sealed area to a return air course. Any owner, operator, or lessee who fails to comply with this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) at the discretion of the court. Each day the mine is operated in violation of this subsection constitutes a separate offense.

Section 10. KRS 352.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After June 16, 1972, on single-track haulage roads in mines, which the persons employed in the mine must use while performing their work or while traveling on foot to and from their work, there shall be places of refuge on one side not less than five (5) feet in depth from the side of the mine car, and five (5) feet wide, and not more than ninety (90) feet apart. Refuge holes of the same dimensions shall also be provided at switch throws.

(2) Special places of refuge are not required on haulage roads on which room necks or breakthroughs occur at regular intervals not exceeding ninety (90) feet, and thus furnish places of refuge, or on haulage roads in which the track is so laid as to give a minimum clearance on one side of not less than thirty (30) inches from the side of any haulage engine or any mine car, the clearance to be on the side of the road opposite that upon which electric wires are strung, if electric wires are strung in the road.

(3) No unauthorized person shall travel on foot to or from work upon any haulage road or slope where transportation is by track, when other roads in proper condition for travel are available.

(4) On all main haulage roads where hauling is done by machinery the mine foreman shall provide a proper system of signals, and a conspicuous light or marker approved by the commissioner on the front and rear of every trip or train of cars when in motion in the mine.

(5) Man-trips shall be operated at safe speeds consistent with the condition of roads and type of equipment used and shall be so controlled that they can be stopped within the limits of visibility, in no event at a speed in excess of twelve (12) miles per hour.

(6) Each man-trip consisting of more than one (1) mine car of men shall be under the charge of a certified official, and it shall be operated independently of any loaded trip of coal or other material.

(7) Cars on the man-trip shall not be overloaded, and sufficient cars in good mechanical condition shall be provided.

(8) No person shall ride under the trolley wire unless suitably covered man-cars are used.

(9) No material or tools except small hand tools shall be transported in the same car with men on any man-trip unless in a separate, enclosed compartment of the car, and all persons shall ride inside of man-trip cars, except the motorman and brakeman or trip rider.

(10) Men shall not load or unload before the cars in which they are to ride or are riding come to a full stop, and men shall proceed in an orderly manner to and from man-trips.

(11) A waiting station shall be provided where men are required to wait for man-trips or man-cages. It shall have sufficient room, ample clearance from moving equipment, and adequate seating facilities.

(12) Trolley and power wires shall be guarded effectively at man-trip stations where there is a possibility of any person coming in contact with energized electric wiring while loading or unloading from the man-trip.

(13) Cars used for transporting men on slopes shall be equipped with a safety device capable of stopping the trip in event of failure of the rope or couplings. Such device shall be approved by the commissioner.

(14) Where belts are used for transporting men, a minimum clearance of eighteen (18) inches shall be maintained between the belt and the roof or cross bars, projecting equipment, cap pieces, overhead cables, wiring, and other objects; but where the height of the coal bed permits, the clearance shall not be less than twenty-four (24) inches.

(15) Unless a greater speed is allowed by special permission from the commissioner, in which event the conditions, limitations and rules imposed in connection with the grant of such permission shall be observed, the belt speed shall not exceed two hundred fifty (250) feet per minute where the minimum overhead clearance is eighteen (18) inches, or three hundred (300) feet per minute when the minimum overhead clearance is twenty-four (24) inches, while men are loading, unloading, or being transported.

(16) The space between men riding on a belt line shall not be less than six (6) feet.

(17) Loading and unloading stations shall be illuminated properly.

(18) A certified official or some other supervisory personnel [competent person] appointed by the mine foreman shall supervise all [the loading and unloading of belts and] man-trips.

(19) Efficient equipment, either mobile or self-propelled, equipped with sufficient first aid equipment and supplies, shall be available on all underground sections to transport injured workers to the surface.

(20) [(19)] The commissioner shall be empowered to draft additional rules and regulations providing for transportation of men when necessary.

Section 11. KRS 352.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For every fifty (50) men and fraction thereof employed underground, the operator of each mine shall keep on hand at the mine one (1) properly constructed stretcher, one (1) waterproof and one (1) woolen blanket, and all other necessary equipment advised by the department.

(2) Each operator shall see that all employes receive [are offered] the necessary first-aid training at least once each year for the safety of themselves and their fellow workmen as recommended by the department.

Section 12. KRS 352.201 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The roof and ribs of all active underground roadways, travelways, and working places shall be supported or otherwise controlled adequately to protect persons from falls of the roof or ribs. A roof control plan and revision thereof suitable to the roof conditions and mining system of each mine and approved by the commissioner shall be adopted and set out in printed form within six (6) months after June 16, 1972. The plan shall show the type of support and spacing approved by the commissioner. No person shall proceed beyond the last permanent support unless adequate temporary support is provided [or unless such temporary support is not required under the approved roof control plan and the absence of such support will not pose a hazard to the miners]. A copy of the plan shall be furnished the commissioner or his authorized representative and shall be available to the miners and their representatives.

(2) The method of mining followed in any mine shall not expose the miner to unusual dangers from roof falls caused by excessive widths of rooms and entries or faulty pillar recovery methods.

(3) The operator, in accordance with the approved plan, shall provide at or near each working face and at such other locations in the mine as the commissioner may prescribe an ample supply of suitable materials of proper size with which to secure the roof of all working places in a safe manner. Safety posts, jacks, or other approved devices shall be used to protect the workmen when roof material is being taken down, crossbars are being installed, roof bolt holes are being drilled, roof bolts are being installed, and in such other circumstances as may be appropriate. Loose roof and overhanging or loose faces and ribs shall be taken down or supported. Except in the case of recovery work, supports knocked out shall be replaced promptly.

(4) When installation of roof bolts is permitted, such roof bolts shall be tested in accordance with the approved roof control plan.

[(5) Roof bolts shall not be recovered where complete extractions of pillars are attempted, where adjacent to clay veins, or at the locations of other irregularities, whether natural or otherwise, that induce abnormal hazards. Where roof bolt recovery is permitted, it shall be conducted only in accordance with methods prescribed in the approved roof control plan, and shall be conducted by experienced workmen and only where adequate temporary support is provided.]

(5) [(6)] Where workmen are exposed to danger from falls of roof, face, and ribs they shall examine and test the roof, face, and ribs before any other work is performed or machinery is started, and as frequently thereafter as may be necessary to insure safety. When dangerous conditions are found, they shall be corrected immediately.

Section 13. KRS 352.220 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The following shall apply to underground installations:

(a) On all haulage roads, landings and partings, where men are required to regularly work or pass under bare power wires placed less than six and one-half (6 1/2) feet above the top of the rail, suitable protection shall be provided. This protection shall consist of channeling the roof, placing boards along the wires and extending below them, or the use of some other approved device that affords protection;

(b) All machine feed wires shall be placed on insulators which shall be so placed as to prevent the wires coming in contact with the coal;

(c) When the machine or feed wires are carried in the same entry as the trolley wire, they shall be placed on the same side as the trolley wire, between the trolley wire and rib, and shall be protected from contact therewith. Positive feed wires crossing places where persons or animals are required to travel shall be safely guarded or protected from such persons or animals coming in contact therewith, as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(d) All trolley and positive feed wires shall be placed on opposite sides of track from refuge holes or necks of rooms when so ordered by the department, but wires, when protected as provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection, may be placed across the necks of rooms. Switches or circuit breakers shall be provided to control the current at the mine and all important sections in the mine;

(e) All power wires and cables in hoisting shafts or manway compartments shall be properly insulated, substantially fixed and well protected;

(f) Ground wires for low voltage circuits shall be at least one-fourth (1/4) as large as the circuit wires;

(g) Extra length or long trailing cables preferably shall be spread out in long open loops on clean, well rock-dusted floor where the cable can be protected against mechanical injury, but cables in suspended long loops will be acceptable;

(h) One (1) temporary splice may be made in any trailing cable. No temporary splice shall be made in a trailing cable within twenty-five (25) feet of the machine except cable reel equipment. Temporary splices in trailing cables shall be made in a workmanlike manner and shall be mechanically strong and well insulated. Trailing cables or hand cables which have exposed wires or which have splices that heat and spark under load shall not be used;

(i) Single conductor trailing cables shall not be used on cutting machines.

(j) Low and medium voltage three phase alternating current circuits used underground shall contain either a direct or derived neutral which shall be grounded through a suitable resistor at the power center, and a grounding circuit, originating at the grounded side of the grounding resistor, shall extend along with the power conductors and serve as a grounding conductor for the frames of all the electrical equipment supplied power from that circuit, except that the commissioner or his authorized representative may permit underground low-and-medium-voltage circuits to be used underground to feed such stationary electrical equipment if such circuits are either steel armored or installed in grounded rigid steel conduit throughout their entire length;

(k) The frames of hand-held electrically driven tools and portable sump pumps shall be properly grounded, and they shall be provided with fuses or circuit breakers;

(l) All pump frames and all pipe lines shall be grounded to the rail or the grounding system at about two hundred (200 )foot intervals, except nonmetallic pipes or pipes using insulated type couplings or pipes installed remotely from track or power systems;

(m) Where track is used for the return circuit, at least one (1) side must be bonded to the full length of the trolley wire installation. Cross-bonds shall be installed not to exceed [at about] two hundred (200) foot intervals along the track;

(n) After June 16, 1972, all underground high-voltage transmission cables shall be installed only in regularly inspected air courses and haulageways, and shall be covered, buried, or placed so as to afford protection against damage, guarded where men regularly work or pass under them unless they are six and one-half (6 1/2) feet or more above the floor or rail, securely anchored, properly insulated, and guarded at ends, and covered, insulated or placed to prevent contact with trolley wires and other low-voltage circuits. Underground high-voltage cables used in resistance grounded systems shall be equipped with metallic shields around each power conductor, with one (1) or more ground conductors having a total cross-sectional area of not less than one-half (1/2) the power conductor, and with an insulated internal or external conductor not smaller than No. 8 (AWG) for the ground continuity check circuit.

(o) High voltage cables shall have disconnecting switches, overload protective devices and lightning arresters at, or near the outside end of the cable;

(p) Permanent battery charging stations, permanent pump installations, motor generator sets, rotary converters and oil filled transformers and switches, used underground shall be housed in fireproof enclosures ventilated by a separate split of air direct to the main return. Underground stations containing transformers or circuit breakers filled with inflammable oil shall be provided with door sills or their equivalent, which will confine the oil if leakage or rupture occur, and shall be of fireproof construction. Underground transformers purchased after June 16, 1972, shall be air cooled or cooled with noninflammable liquid or inert gas. Sectional type portable power centers, portable transformers and distribution centers which are essentially fireproof are not required to be placed on separate splits of air but must be stationed in well ventilated places outby last open crosscuts.

(q) All mine locomotives shall be fused or otherwise protected at the switch or at the nip;

(r) Suitable fire-fighting equipment shall be located at strategic points along the belt conveyor, and proper fire extinguishers shall be provided at the transfer points. The commissioner may prescribe any other safety measures for the prevention and combating of mine fires as they pertain to conveyor belts. After June 16, 1972, only approved flame resistant belting shall be taken into and used inside any mine, and all underground belt conveyors shall be provided with slippage and sequence switches and with controls at locations recommended by the mine inspector. This does not prevent the use of belting which is being used on June 16, 1972; but the use of rubber belting shall be under such conditions as may be prescribed by the commissioner;

(s) Telephone lines shall be provided with lightning arresters where the lines enter the mine and at the boxes on the outside;

(t) Telephone lines crossing trolley wires shall be carefully guarded [protected] in a non-conductive conduit;

(u) Insulating mats shall be placed in front of switchboards, beside stationary motors, in decks of locomotives, telephones, etc.;

(v) Ground wires in trailing cables shall be tested periodically for open circuit and/or high resistance joints;

(w) Power circuits in tipples, buildings, cleaning plants, etc., and all inside electrical circuits shall be deenergized when not in use over a long period;

(x) Where electric circuits cross over or pass under belt conveyors the wiring shall be protected by conduit;

(2) The following shall apply to surface installations:

(a) High-voltage lines shall be at least twenty (20) feet above the ground where there is a possibility of contact by traffic passing underneath;

(b) Protective barriers shall be so constructed between high-voltage wires and telephone wires, trolley circuits, and any other similar conveyor wires or circuits as to prevent their failure by the falling of such high tension lines across such other circuits, wires or conveyors;

(c) On four-wire circuits, the fourth or neutral wire terminating at transformers, or elsewhere, shall be of substantial construction to minimize any possibility of the wire being cut in two or damaged mechanically;

(d) On low-voltage circuits, wires shall be supported on insulators except when cables made for use without insulators, which are of such design as can be safely used without insulators, are used;

(e) Lightning arresters shall be installed on all direct current and alternating current circuits entering a mine, regardless of voltage. Overload protection and disconnect switches shall also be provided;

(f) Every metallic building in which electricity is used or connected with any circuit shall be effectively grounded;

(3) (a) Nothwithstanding any provisions of subsections (1) or (2) of this section, the department may authorize the construction, maintenance, operation or conducting of any activity regulated by this section, to be constructed, maintained, operated or conducted in a different manner than specified in any provision of subsections (1) or (2) of this section, when scientific or engineering information is made available to the department substantially indicating that the different manner would afford equal or greater protection and safety than the manner required in subsections (1) or (2) of this section;

(b) The department may prescribe [after agreement with the affected parties,] any other regulations with respect to the above-ground or underground installations in connection with any mine operation when information is made available indicating that such regulation is reasonably necessary to prevent injury to, or loss of, life and property.

(2) No person shall be placed in charge of electrical equipment in any mine unless he is a qualified [competent] person, capable of determining the safety of the roof, face and ribs of the working places and detecting the presence of explosive gas where necessary. Operators of electrical face equipment in a gassy mine shall undergo an examination to determine their fitness to detect explosive gas before they are permitted to have charge of electric face equipment, and shall have a minimum of ninety (90) days of actual mining experience [unless accompanied by a certified fire boss, or a person having passed such an examination]. At gassy mines safety committeemen, shotfirers, and others whose duty may require them to make examination for gas shall undergo and pass such examination or possess a mine foreman's certificate or fire boss certificate before using a flame-safety lamp underground. The examination shall be given by the mine inspector; blank forms therefor to be furnished by the department. A copy shall be retained on file at the mine office and the original shall be sent to the department fully made out and signed by the applicant and approved by the mine inspector.

(3) In any gassy mine, no electric face equipment shall be brought within the last breakthrough next to the working face until the equipment operator has made an inspection for explosive gas using a flame-safety lamp or other approved device or instrument in the place where such equipment is to work, unless the examination is then made by some other competent person authorized and appointed for that purpose by the mine foreman. If any explosive gas is found in the place the electric equipment shall not be taken in until the gas is removed.

(4) While the electric equipment is operating at the face, an examination for gas must be made at not more than twenty (20) minute intervals. If gas is found in excess of one percent (1%) the power shall be disconnected from the equipment and left disconnected until the gas is removed and the place reported safe by a certified official.

(5) Headlights shall be installed and maintained in a permissible and working order on all mobile and face equipment at all times such equipment is in operation.

(6) Headlights shall be mounted to provide maximum illumination where it will be most effective and shall be protected from damage by guarding or locations.

Section 15. KRS 352.241 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Explosives or detonators carried anywhere underground by any person shall be in containers constructed substantially of nonconductive material, maintained in good condition and kept closed.

(2) When explosives or detonators are transported underground in cars moved by means of a locomotive or rope, or in shuttle cars, they shall be in substantial covered cars or in special substantial covered containers used specifically for transporting detonators or explosives:

(a) The bodies and covers of such cars and containers shall be constructed or lined with nonconductive material;

(b) If explosives and detonators are hauled in the same explosives car or in the same special container, they shall be separated by at least a four-inch substantially fastened hardwood partition or the equivalent;

(c) Explosives, detonators, or other explosive items shall not be transported on the same trip with men;

(d) When explosives or detonators are transported in special cars or containers in cars, they shall be hauled in special trips not connected to any other trip; provided, however, that this does not prohibit the use of such additional cars as needed to lower a rope trip, or to haul supplies including timbers; and provided further that materials so transported shall not project above the top of the car. Exposed highly flammable materials such as hay, oil, or grease shall not be hauled on the same trip with explosives;

(e) Explosives or detonators shall not be hauled into or out of a mine within five (5) minutes preceding or following a man trip or any other trip.

(3) Explosives and detonators shall be transported underground by belt only under the following conditions:

(a) In the original and unopened case, in special closed cases constructed of nonconductive material, or in suitable individual containers;

(b) Clearance requirements shall be the same as those for transporting men on belts;

(c) Suitable loading and unloading stations shall be provided;

(d) Stop controls shall be provided at loading and unloading points, and an attendant shall supervise the loading and unloading of explosives and detonators.

(4) Neither explosives nor detonators shall be transported on flight or shaking conveyors, scrapers, mechanical loading machines, locomotives, cutting machines, drill trucks, or any self-propelled mobile equipment; provided, however, that this does not prohibit the transportation of explosives or detonators in special substantial covered containers as used in subsection (2) of this section [closed containers] in shuttle cars ~~or~~ in equipment designed especially to transport such explosives or detonators.

(5) When supplies of explosives and detonators for use in one or more sections are stored underground, they shall be kept in section boxes or magazines of substantial construction with no metal exposed on the inside, located at least twenty-five (25) feet from roadways and power wires, and in a reasonably dry, well-rock-dusted location protected from falls of roof. In pitching beds, where it is not possible to comply with the location requirement, such boxes shall be placed in niches cut into the solid coal or rock.

(6) When explosives or detonators are stored in the section, they shall be kept preferably in separate boxes or magazines not less than five (5) feet apart; if kept in the same box or magazine, they shall be separated by at least a four-inch substantially fastened hardwood partition or the equivalent. Not more than a forty-eight (48) hour supply of explosives or detonators shall be stored underground in such boxes or magazines.

(7) Explosives and detonators stored near the working faces shall be in separate closed containers, and shall be in a location out of line of blast not less than fifty (50) feet from the face and fifteen (15) feet from any pipeline, powerline, rail or conveyor; except that if kept in niches in the rib, the distance from pipeline, powerline, rail or conveyor shall be at least fifteen (15) feet. Such explosives and detonators, when stored, shall be separated by a distance of at least ten (10) feet.

(8) Explosives and detonators shall be kept in their containers until immediately before use at the working faces.

(9) Only nonmetallic tools shall be used for opening wooden explosives containers. Tools or other materials shall not be stored with explosives or detonators.

(10) All explosives used underground in underground mines except in sinking shafts and slopes from the surface shall be of the permissible type, specifically designed and manufactured for underground use, and shall be used as follows:

(a) Fired only with electric detonators of proper strength;

(b) Fired with permissible shot-firing units, unless firing is done from the surface when all men are out of the mine;

(c) Where the coal or clay is cut, shots shall not be fired if the blast hole is drilled beyond the limits of the cut;

(d) Boreholes shall be cleaned, and they shall be checked to see that they are placed properly and are of correct depth, in relation to the cut, before being charged;

(e) All blasting charges shall have a burden of at least eighteen (18) inches in all directions if the height of the seam permits.

(f) Boreholes shall be stemmed with at least twenty-four (24) inches of incombustible material, or at least one-half (1/2) of the length of the hole shall be stemmed if the hole is less than four (4) feet in depth unless other permissible stemming devices or methods are used;

(g) In gassy mines, examinations for gas shall be made immediately before firing each shot or group of multiple shots and after blasting is completed;

(h) Shots shall not be fired in any place where methane can be detected with a flame safety lamp when tested at a point not less than twelve (12) inches from the roof, face or rib;

(i) Charges exceeding one and one-half (1 1/2) pounds, but not exceeding three (3) pounds, shall be used only if boreholes are six (6) feet or more in depth, the explosives are charged in a continuous train, with no cartridges deliberately deformed or crushed, with all cartridges in contact with each other and with the end cartridges touching the back of the hole and the stemming respectively; provided, however, that the three pound limit does not apply to special solid rock work if the mine is evacuated or if approved by the department;

(j) Shots shall be charged and fired by qualified shot firers designated by the mine foreman;

(k) Boreholes shall not be charged while any other work is being done at the face, and the shot or shots shall be fired before any other work is done in the zone of danger from blasting except that which is necessary to safeguard the employes;

(l) Only nonmetallic tamping bars shall be used for charging and tamping boreholes. This does not prohibit the use of a nonmetallic tamping bar with a nonsparking metallic scraper on one (1) end;

(m) The leg wires of electric detonators shall be kept shunted until ready to connect to the firing cable;

(n) Shots shall not be fired from the power or signal circuit while any men are in the mine;

(o) The roof and ribs of working places shall be tested before and after firing each shot or group of multiple shots;

(p) Ample warning shall be given before shots are fired, and care shall be taken to ascertain that all persons are in the clear. Men shall be removed from adjoining working places when there is danger of a shot blowing through;

(q) Mixed types or brands of explosives shall not be charged or fired in any borehole;

(r) Mudcaps (adobes) or other unconfined shots shall not be fired underground in a mine.

(11) Blasting cables shall be:

(a) Well insulated and as long as may be necessary to permit the shot firer to get in a safe place around a corner;

(b) Short-circuited at the battery end until ready to attach to the blasting unit;

(c) Staggered as to length or the ends kept well separated when attached to the detonator leg wires;

(d) Kept clear of power wires and all other possible sources of active or stray electric current.

(12) Where misfires occur with electric detonators, a waiting period of at least five (5) minutes shall elapse before anyone returns to the shot. After such failure, the blasting cable shall be disconnected from the source of power and the battery ends short-circuited before electric connections are examined.

(13) Explosives shall be removed by firing a separate charge at least two (2) feet away from, and parallel to, the misfired charge or by washing the stemming and the charge from the borehole with water, or by inserting and firing a new primer after the stemming has been washed out.

(14) A very careful search of the working place, and, if necessary, of the blasted material after it reaches the surface shall be made after blasting a misfired hole, to recover any undetonated explosive.

(15) The handling of a misfired shot shall be under the direct supervision of the mine foreman or a competent person designated by him.

(16) Where compressed air is used for blasting or breaking coal or clay, the following shall apply:

(a) Compressed air shall be conducted from the compressor to within a practical working distance of the face by steel airlines tested to withstand an approximate pressure of twenty thousand (20,000) pounds per square inch;

(b) Airlines shall be grounded at the compressor and, if possible, at other low-resistance ground connections along the lines, such as at borehole casings. They shall not be connected in any way to tracks, waterlines, or other electric power return conductors and shall be suitably insulated where they cross electric wires or underneath the track;

(c) Shutoff valves shall be installed every one thousand (1,000) feet in all compressed-air blasting lines and in all branch lines at a point near the main lines;

(d) Compressed-air blasting lines shall be protected at places where equipment passes over, under, or adjacent to them;

(e) Steel, copper, or other lines shall not be handled or repaired when air pressure is in the line;

(f) Airlines shall be examined periodically for kinks or other weaknesses and replaced immediately when defects are found;

(g) Copper tubing shall be coiled and uncoiled properly. The part of the tubing that is affected by frequent coiling and uncoiling shall be renewed periodically because of the dangers from kinks and crystallization;

(h) Blowdown valves shall not be less than forty-five (45) feet from the face and shall be around a right angle;

(i) Holes for compressed-air tubes shall be within the limits of the cut;

(j) When blowdown valves are opened to discharge the tube, they shall remain open until time to place the tube in the next borehole except where shear-strip or shear-pin tubes are used;

(k) After breaking down the coal or clay in any one (1) place, the tube shall be disconnected at once from the airline and not reconnected until ready to be used in the next place;

(l) When a differential-pressure-type tube fails to discharge, the line leading to the tube shall be disconnected at the blowdown valve, and the tube shall be dragged by means of the line to an inactive place, marked with warning signs, and left one (1) hour before any repair work is done thereon;

(m) All persons shall be removed from adjoining working places where there is danger of breaking through and shall be at a safe distance around a right angle while coal or clay breaking is in progress.

Section 16. KRS 352.280 is amended to read as follows:

In all gassy mines the operator or superintendent shall employ one or more certified fire bosses or other properly certified persons. The fire boss or other properly certified person shall examine carefully within three (3) hours before each shift enters the mine, every working place, all places adjacent to live workings, every roadway, every unfenced road to abandoned workings, and all pillar falls in the mine. Before proceeding with the examination he shall see that the air current is traveling its proper course. In making the examination he shall use an approved safety-lamp. The fire boss or other properly certified person shall examine for all dangers in all portions of the mines under his charge, and after examination he shall leave at the face of every place examined the date and time of the examination and his initials as evidence that he has performed his duty. He shall also examine the entrances to all worked-out and abandoned portions adjacent to the roadways and working places under his charge where explosive gas is likely to accumulate, and he shall place a danger signal across the entrance to every place where explosive gas is discovered or where immediate danger is found to exist from any other cause. The signal shall be sufficient warning for persons not to enter. When the mine is idle and workmen are required to go into the mine, the section, portion or part of the mine entered, if gassy, must be inspected by a fire boss or other properly certified person within three (3) hours before the workmen enter.

Section 17. KRS352.290 is amended to read as follows:

A suitable record book shall be kept at the mine office of every mine wherein fire bosses are employed, and immediately after the examination of the mine or any portion thereof, by a fire boss, he shall enter and sign a record of the examination in the book with ink or indelible pencil. The record shall clearly show the time taken in making the examination, the nature and location of any danger discovered in the mine and what has been done to correct such dangerous conditions. If any danger is discovered, the fire boss shall immediately report its location to the mine foreman, or in his absence to the assistant mine foreman in charge, who shall take immediate action to remove such danger [report to the mine foreman]. When a station is located inside a mine the fire boss shall enter and sign a report both in the record book kept there and in a record book in the mine office on the surface. The record books of the mine operator [fire bosses] shall at all times during working hours be accessible to the mine inspector. Each mine operator [fire boss] shall furnish the mine inspector, once each week, a copy of such records which the mine inspector shall preserve. Failure of the mine operator [fire boss] to furnish such copy to the mine inspector, as aforesaid, shall subject the mine operator [fire boss] to the penalties provided in KRS 352.280 and 352.310.

Section 18. KRS 352.350 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The mine foreman shall notify, in writing, the operator or superintendent of the mine of his inability to comply with any of the requirements of the mining laws, and the operator or superintendent shall at once attend to the matter complained of by the mine foreman so as to enable him to comply with the mining laws.

(2) The mine foreman shall each day enter and sign plainly with ink or indelible pencil, in a book provided for that purpose, a report of the condition of the mine. The report shall clearly state any danger that comes under his observation during the day or is reported to him by his assistants or by the fire bosses, and shall state what action was taken to correct such danger, whether or not there is a proper supply of material on hand for the safe working of the mine, and whether or not the mining laws are being complied with. The mine foreman shall each day read carefully, and countersign with ink or indelible pencil, all reports entered in the record book of the fire bosses.

(3) The mine superintendent, mine foreman and assistant foreman shall be held jointly responsible for the immediate compliance with the provisions of KRS Chapters 351 and 352 [of the inspector's recommendations].

Section 19. KRS 352.360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The mine foreman shall see that breakthroughs are made as required by law, and shall see that ventilation is conducted by means of the breakthroughs and through the rooms by means of check doors or curtains placed on the entries or other suitable places, and shall not permit any room to be opened in advance of the ventilating current.

(2) At least once each week while the mine is in operation the mine foreman, or some certified person designated by the mine foreman, with an anemometer furnished by the operator, shall measure the air current at the inlet and outlet and at or near the faces of the advanced headings, and shall keep a record of such measurements in a book approved by the commissioner for the purpose.

(3) The mine foreman shall see that signboards directing the way to outlets or escapeways are conspicuously placed throughout the mine.

(4) After June 16, 1976, hinged man doors, at least thirty (30) inches square or the height of the coal seam, shall be installed on the intake and the return air course at intervals of at least three hundred (300) feet when the height of the coal is below forty-eight (48) inches and at intervals of at least five hundred (500) feet when the height of the coal is above forty-eight (48) inches.

Section 20. KRS 352.390 is amended to read as follows:

The Board of Examiners may revoke the certificate of a mine foreman, assistant mine foreman or fire boss if it is established in the judgment of the board that the holder has become unworthy to hold the certificate by reason of violation of law, intemperate habits, incapacity, abuse of authority, [willful] failure to comply with the mining laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky [instructions of the mine inspector to obey the mining laws,] or for other just cause. The certificate holder against whom charges are made may appear before the board and defend against the charges, and shall have five (5) days' notice in writing of the charges previous to the hearing.

Section 21. KRS 352.400 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The operator of any mine may adopt special rules consistent with KRS chapters 351 and 352 for the government and operation of his mine, and covering all the work pertaining thereto in and out of the mine. Before the rules are put into effect they shall be approved in writing by the commissioner. The rules, when adopted and approved in writing by the commissioner, shall be printed on cardboard in the language spoken by seventy-five per cent (75%) or more of the employes at the mine, and shall be posted on a bulletin board or some other conspicuous place about the mine where they may be seen by the employes at the mine. Before [When] the rules are so adopted, approved and posted, the representative of the [all] employes at the mine shall be given a copy [deemed to have notice] thereof, and to have agreed thereto, before the employes are required to obey such rules [and they shall obey the rules].

(2) The mine rules shall be printed in a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(3) Each mine operator [, when requested by an employe,] shall furnish each employe [him] a copy of the mine rules.

Section 22. KRS 352.410 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each superintendent shall, on behalf and at the expense of the operator, keep on hand at or within convenient distance of the mine, not to exceed 500 feet, a sufficient quantity of all materials and supplies required to preserve the safety of employes, as ordered by the mine foreman and required by law. If the superintendent cannot procure the necessary materials or supplies, he shall at once notify the mine foreman, who shall withdraw the men from the mine until the materials or supplies are received.

(2) The superintendent shall, at least once each week, read and examine carefully and countersign all reports entered in the mine record book of the mine foreman.

(3) The operator or superintendent shall cooperate with the mine foreman and other officials in the fulfillment of their duties under KRS Chapters 351 and 352, and shall direct that the mine foreman and all other employes under him comply with the law, especially when his attention is called by the mine inspector or by the commissioner to any violations of the laws.

(4) The superintendent shall keep on hand at the mine a supply of printed rules, notices and record books required by this chapter. The superintendent shall see that rules, notices and record books are delivered to the proper persons at the mine and are properly cared for, and that the rules and notices are posted in conspicuous places at or near the entrance to the mine and kept legible.

Section 23. KRS 352.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The operator or superintendent of each mine shall give the commissioner at least ten (10) days' notice of the following:

(a) Abandonment of a mine;

(b) Resumption of work in a mine after an abandonment or discontinuance for a period of two (2) weeks [months] or more;

(1) "Explosives" means any chemical compound or other substance or mechanical system intended for the purpose of producing an explosion, or that contains oxidizing and combustible units or other ingredients in such proportions or quantities that ignition by detonation may produce an explosion, capable of causing injury to persons or damage to property;

(2) "Blasting operation" means the use of explosives in the blasting of stone, rock, ore or any other natural formation, or in any construction or demolition work, but shall not include its use in agricultural operations;

(3) "Blaster" means a person licensed to fire or detonate explosives in blasting operations;

[(4) "Person" means individual, public or private corporation, political subdivision, government agency, municipality, industry, co-partnership, association, firm, trust, estate, or other entity whatsoever;]

(4) [(5)] "Charge" means a quantity of explosive or equivalent that is to be detonated within a period of five seconds;

(5) [(6)] "Subcharge" means a quantity of explosive or equivalent that is to be detonated within a period of less than eight [one] milliseconds;

(7) "Department" means the Department of Mines and Minerals;

(8) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Mines and Minerals.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 351 is created to read as follows:

(1) No person shall detonate explosives in any blasting operation in which more than five pounds of explosives or the equivalent are used in a single charge or in which less than five pounds of explosives is used by a regular user, excluding blasting for agriculture and underground coal, unless he is licensed by the department. The department shall issue a license to use explosives to any person who:

(a) Has worked in blasting operations for at least twenty-four (24) months under the immediate supervision of an experienced blaster, and;

(b) Has passed an examination, prescribed by the department which shall test the examinee's practice of blasting operations and the storage, moving, handling, and detonation of explosives.

(2) Application for license shall be in writing upon a form furnished by the department and shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars. If the applicant is successful in passing the examination, a license indicating his competency to detonate explosives shall be issued upon the payment of an additional fee of five dollars.

(3) Any person who is a licensed blaster in another state where the qualifications prescribed at the time of licensing were, in the opinion of the commissioner, equal to those prescribed in the Commonwealth at the date of application, and where reciprocal licensing privileges satisfactory to the department are granted to licensees of the Commonwealth, may be granted a license without an examination, upon the payment of a fee of five dollars.

(4) Each blaster shall be required to renew his license each year by application to the department, which application shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars.

(5) The commissioner may suspend any license for due cause but no license may be revoked until the licensee has been granted adequate opportunity for a hearing.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 351 is created to read as follows:

The department may institute classifications of blasters for the purpose of insuring adequate skill in different types of blasting operations. Classification will be determined by passage of a corresponding examination.

Section 4. KRS 351.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Blasting [The use] of explosives for use [the purpose of blasting] in the neighborhood of any public highway, stream of water, dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building, [or] pipeline, or utility shall be done in accordance with the provisions of this section, and rules and regulations promulgated by the department.

(2) Where necessary in a blasting operation, the department may require that the operator submit a blasting plan to the department for approval.

(3) [(2)] In all blasting operations, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, the maximum peak particle velocity of the ground motion in any direction shall not exceed two inches per second at the immediate location of any dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building and the particle velocity at such location immediately after a period of one second following the peak particle velocity produced by any charge shall not continuously exceed one-half inch [foot] per second.

(4) [(3)] Blasting operations without instrumentation will be considered as being within the limits set forth in this subsection if such blasting operations are conducted in accordance with rules and regulations of the department establishing the maximum amount of explosives to be used in a single charge and in a single subcharge within specified distances from any location provided by subsection (1). No more than 40,000 pounds of explosives may be used in any charge except with the approval of the commissioner. [nor shall any two consecutive subcharges within any charge be separated by a delay time of less than eight milliseconds nor shall the total delay time in any charge exceed 200 milliseconds except that if the amount of explosives used in any subcharge is less than the maximum permitted by the department pursuant to this subsection, the minimum permitted delay time following that subcharge may be decreased in the same ratio.] Regulations promulgated by the department pursuant to this subsection shall be in such terms that compliance therewith will assure compliance with the provisions of subsection (3) [(2)].

(5) No two consecutive subcharges containing the maximum permitted by the department pursuant to this subsection shall have a detonation time separated by less than eight milliseconds, except that if the amount of explosive used in any subcharge is less than maximum permitted by the department pursuant to subsection (4), the time delay between detonation time may be decreased in the same ratio.

(6) [(4)] Any blasting operation may be conducted without reference to any maximum amount or period provided by or pursuant to subsection (4) [(3)] if the operator of such blasting operation demonstrates by instrumentation that maximum particle velocity of the ground motion in any direction does not exceed the limits provided in subsection (3) [(2)].

[(5) Before any person may conduct any blasting operation in the manner provided in subsection (4) he shall give fifteen days' notice to the department that he will conduct blasting operations in such a manner. Once blasting operations conducted in the manner provided in subsection (4) have been begun, no blasting operation may be conducted without measurement of particle velocity by instrumentation except with fifteen days' notice to the department.]

(7) [(6)] Instruments for determining particle velocity as set forth in this subsection shall be limited to such specific types of devices as shall have been expressly approved by the department and the commissioner or his duly authorized agent may enter upon any premises for the purpose of conducting or supervising any necessary instrumentations provided by this Act [KRS 351.310 to 351.340].

(8) [(7)] When blasting operations are contemplated which would result in ground vibrations that would have a particle velocity in any direction in excess of 2 inches per second at the immediate location of any dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building, blasting operations may proceed after receiving written consent from the property owner or owners affected [and the commissioner].

(9) [(8)] When blasting operations, other than those conducted at a fixed site as a part of any industry or business operated at such site, are to be conducted within the vicinity [two hundred feet] of a pipeline or public utility, the blaster or person in charge of the blasting operations shall take due precautionary measures for the protection of the pipeline or utility [line], and shall give adequate notice to [notify] the owner [of the line] or his agent that such blasting operations are intended. The blaster shall be subject to regulations promulgated by the department concerning such a blasting operation.

(10) [(9)] Blasting operations near streams shall be prohibited in all cases where the effect of the blasting is liable to change the course or channel of any stream without first obtaining a permit from the department which has been approved by the Division of Water in the Department for [of] Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

(11) [(10)] Blasting operations shall not be conducted within eight hundred feet of any public highway, unless due precautionary measures are taken to safeguard the public.

(12) [(11)] Mudcapping in blasting operations shall be permitted only where it would endanger the safety of the workers [workmen] to drill the rock or material to be blasted. If mudcapping is necessary, no more than ten pounds of explosives shall be used for each charge.

(13) When the use of detonating cord would cause severe air blast the department may cause all trunk lines to be covered by 5 to 6 inches of loose earth.

[(12) All trunk lines of detonating fuse may be covered, except that trunk lines of detonating fuse shall be covered if located within eight hundred feet of any public highway, dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building.]

(14) In blasting operations, flying rocks shall not be allowed to fall greater than one-half the distance between the blast and a dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building. Protective material shall be used to insure this limit.

*(15) When a blast is about to be fired, ample warning shall be given to allow all persons to retreat to a safe place, and care shall be taken to ascertain that all persons are in the clear. Each operator shall follow a definite plan of warning signals that can be clearly seen or heard by anyone in the blasting area. (3) At the budget hearing, the council may direct by resolution the budget officer to make the desired changes. After the conclusion of the hearing, the governing body may insert new items or may increase or decrease the items of the budget except that where it shall increase the total proposed expenditures it shall also increase the total anticipated revenue at least to equal such total proposed expenditures.

(4) The budget shall be adopted by ordinance by the favorable vote of at least a majority of all the members of a governing body.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 92 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 92 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The governing body in adopting an amendment to the original budget may upon the recommendation of the budget officer make provisions for the expenditure of unanticipated receipts. The amendment shall show the source and amount of anticipated receipts and specify the appropriations accounts that are to be increased thereby.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 92 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

HB 806, AN ACT relating to financing of sanitary sewers in counties in which urban county governments have been established.

WHEREAS, the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky finds and determines as a legislative determination of fact that in those geographical areas of the commonwealth of Kentucky where urbanization has progressed to a high degree, attended by a profusion of residential, industrial and commercial development, the problem of water pollution, and the consequent threat to the health, safety and general welfare of the citizens living in such area is especially acute, and that in counties in which the urban county form of government, pursuant to KRS Chapter 67A, has been adopted, such urban county governments should be granted additional and alternative authority for the construction of sanitary sewage collection facilities to alleviate such problems;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in this Act, the following words or terms shall have the respective meanings indicated, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(1) "Assessed value basis" means the plan for the levying of improvement benefit assessments upon benefited property for benefits conferred by construction of projects on the basis of the assessed values (land only) of the benefited property, whether such levies are paid in full by benefited property owners or levied annually to amortize bonds. Such plan shall also include the levying of identical improvement benefit assessments upon classified zones of benefited property where determination is made by ordinance of an urban county government, as provided in this Act, that benefits conferred by construction of a project are substantially equal and that the assessed value (land only) of all benefited property or designated zones thereof shall therefore be deemed equal in respect of a given wastewater collection project.

(2) "Benefited property, and property to be benefited" mean the property (land only) proposed to be benefited by construction of a wastewater collection project instituted by an urban county government for the payment of the costs of which improvement benefit assessments are to be levied against and collected from such benefited property.

(3) "Bonds" mean improvement lien bonds authorized and issued by urban county governments pursuant to authority of this Act for the purpose of providing costs for the construction of wastewater collection projects.

(4) "Construction" means and includes, the following services and facilities provided by an urban county government:

(a) Preliminary planning to determine the economic and engineering feasibility of construction of wastewater collection projects, any engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal and economic investigations and studies necessary thereto, and all necessary surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures and other required actions incident to the construction of wastewater collection projects;

(b) The building, acquisition, installation, erection, alteration, remodeling, improvements, expansion or extension of wastewater collection projects, and any other physical devices or appurtenances in connection with, or reasonably attendant to, such projects;

(c) The provision or making available sewer collection services to benefited property by providing sewer facilities to such benefited property although not directly financed by the issuance of bonds; and

(d) Inspection and supervision incident to the acquisition, construction and installation of wastewater collection projects.

(5) "Costs" as such term shall be applied to any wastewater collection project undertaken under this Act includes the cost of labor, materials and equipment necessary to acquire, install and complete the project in a satisfactory manner, cost of land acquired, and every expense connected with the project, including construction costs, preliminary and other surveys, financial planning, inspections of the work as construction progresses, engineers' fees and costs, preparation of plans and specifications, publication of ordinances and notices, interest which will accrue on the bonds until the due date of the first annual improvement assessment levied in connection therewith, capitalized interest on the bonds for a period not to exceed three (3) years, a sum equal to any discount in the sale of the bonds (if discount bids are authorized and permitted by the issuing government), all or any portion of the debt service reserve requirement, if determination is made to finance them from bond proceeds, a reasonable allowance for unforeseen contingencies, the printing of bonds and other costs of financing, including payment of attorneys' fees, underwriting and fiscal agency fees, trustees' fees, rating service fees and costs of issuance of bonds.

(6) "Debt service reserve requirement" means, with respect to any particular issue of bonds, the maximum annual requirements for payment of principal of and interest on the bond issue, which debt service reserve requirement shall be either funded in whole or in part by application of bond proceeds, or accrued in due course by the levying of improvement benefit assessments as provided in this Act.

(7) "Government or urban county government" means an urban county government which has been duly created and established pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 67A.

(8) "Ordinance" means a formal and binding enactment of the urban county council of an urban county government entered in connection with the financing by such government of a wastewater collection project.

(9) "Public ways" shall have the same meaning as is to ascribed to such term in KRS 93.010(2) and shall include streets, boulevards, avenues, roads, lanes, alleys, parkways, courts, terraces and other courses of travel open to the general public by whatsoever name designated.

(10) "Wastewater" means any water or liquid substance containing sewage, industrial waste or other pollutants or contaminants derived from the prior use of such water or liquid substance.

(11) "Wastewater collection project or project" means all or any part of any facilities, devices, objects and systems used and useful in the collection, holding or transmission of wastewater from a benefited property to wastewater treatment plants or other similar facilities for final disposition thereof. Such terms shall include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, sanitary sewage collection lines, intercepting sewers, outfall sewers, sewer laterals, power stations and pumping stations, and other equipment and their appurtenances necessary to enable the project to fulfill its function, including land acquisition, whether such project facilities are provided by funds derived from issuance of bonds or otherwise provided by a government in any manner.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky finds and determines as a fact that in urbanized areas of the commonwealth, where industrialization and commercialization have progressed at a high rate, attended by rapid residential development, there is a particular public need for acquisition of major wastewater collection projects in the interests of the health, safety and welfare of the general public residing in such areas and in order to enable metropolitan population centers to plan and develop major community-wide sewer facilities; that it is therefore essential that urban county governments be vested with alternative authority for the construction and installation of facilities for the collection of flowable liquid wastes generated by residential, commercial and industrial uses for ultimate disposition in a proper manner at the cost of benefited properties; and that such urban county governments be authorized and empowered to directly plan, develop, initiate, finance and carry out wastewater collection projects.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Urban county governments created pursuant to KRS Chapter 67A are authorized to provide for, construct and finance wastewater collection projects according to the financing plan set forth in this Act. The authority hereby conferred upon urban county governments is not intended, nor shall it be construed, to be in derogation or substitution of any authority otherwise conferred upon any urban county government, but is alternative and in addition thereto. If any urban county government has undertaken any proceedings under any other law to acquire a project, it may abandon such proceedings and proceed under the provisions of this Act. It is the purpose of this Act to extend permissive authority to urban county government to finance wastewater collection projects according to the assessed value basis, whereby benefited properties shall be assessed the cost of such projects according to benefits conferred upon the properties.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In undertaking the planning, design, institution, authorization and financing of wastewater collection projects under this Act, urban county governments shall be vested with exclusive authority to plan, design, initiate, finance and carry out construction of such projects solely according to the requirements and procedures of this Act, without the necessity of securing approvals, ratifications or other consents from any other municipal corporation or the county encompassing any such government or in which any such government is situated.

(1) Any urban county government which determines that the public health, safety and general welfare requires construction of a wastewater collection project and which proposes to undertake, authorize, construct and finance a wastewater collection project pursuant to this Act shall, by appropriate ordinance of its urban county council make such determinations and cause preliminary plans, designs, specifications and financial planning for such project to be prepared by one or more engineers, or one or more firms of engineers, licensed to do business in the commonwealth of Kentucky. Alternatively, such preliminary procedures may be accomplished directly by duly qualified government personnel. A preliminary engineering and financing report shall be prepared in writing by such engineers for submission to the government.

(2) The preliminary engineering and financing report shall, designate a geographical area in which a wastewater collection project is recommended for construction, contain a reasonable description of the project facilities proposed to be constructed, contain a statement as to benefits to be conferred by the proposed project and the distribution of such benefits and contain an estimate of the costs of the proposed project. The urban county council of such government shall receive such preliminary engineering and financing report at a regular meeting, shall thereafter study and evaluate the same, and by duly enacted ordinance either approve the preliminary engineering and financing report as submitted, disapprove such report, or amend and approve same in its sound discretion.

(3) Upon approval of the preliminary engineering and financing report, or amendment thereof and approval thereof as amended, by the urban county council of such urban county government, such council shall formally initiate proceedings for the acquisition and financing of the proposed wastewater collection project by the enactment of an ordinance to be designated as the ordinance of initiation, in which public announcement shall be made of the wastewater collection project proposed to be acquired, constructed and financed, the identification of properties proposed to be benefited by such project, which benefited properties may be identified by naming the public way upon which the benefited properties abut, if any, or by geographical location, or by metes and bounds or other appropriate description. The ordinance of initiation shall recite the nature and scope of the wastewater collection project being initiated by the government, shall give a preliminary estimate of the costs thereof, shall determine that each lot, parcel and tract of land named and identified in the ordinance of initiation as benefited property shall be afforded benefits by the project unless specifically excluded by such ordinance and shall order that a public hearing be held in respect of the proposed wastewater collection project.

(4) In all succeeding proceedings, the government shall be bound and limited by the ordinance of initiation with regard to the nature, scope and extent of the proposed wastewater collection project, but shall not be bound by or limited to the preliminary estimate of the costs of the proposed project. The costs of such project shall be determined upon the basis of construction bids publicly solicited by such urban county government as required by this Act, and shall be binding upon the government and upon the owners of benefited properties, whether they turn out to be equal to, below, or above, such preliminary estimate of costs.

(5) In the ordinance of initiation, the urban county council shall make findings of fact regarding the degree and nature of benefit which will accrue to benefited properties by the installation of the project. In the event the urban county council determines as a fact that groups of benefited properties, or all benefited properties, will be affected and benefited in substantially the same manner and to substantially the same degree, such urban county council may determine that it is appropriate to classify benefited properties into one or more assessment zones based upon the similarity of benefits to be derived by benefited properties from installation of the project, and in such case, the urban county council may deem all benefited properties within a particular assessment zone to be equally benefited and therefore equally treated for purposes of levying improvement benefit assessments to provide funds to pay the costs of the project. It is the intent of this Act to vest in the urban county council of any urban county government undertaking a project, authority to make findings of fact in order to classify properties according to benefits conferred from the construction of projects, and such urban county council may, as aforesaid, by appropriate ordinance, determine that identified groups of benefited properties will be benefited similarly by a project and shall therefore be treated equally for purposes of levying improvement benefit assessments upon such benefited properties. The urban county council may accept and rely upon any pertinent data in making such findings of fact, including, the size and diameter of sanitary sewer service connections to be made available. In the event the urban county council of the government shall determine that all properties situated within a particularly described classification or zone shall not receive substantially equal benefits from the project, the urban county council shall determine in the ordinance of initiation that such properties shall be assessed for benefits conferred based upon the relative assessed land valuation of each benefited property as it relates to the aggregate assessed land valuation of all benefited properties within such particularly described classification or zone initially, when property owners shall be afforded the opportunity to pay improvement benefit assessments on a lump sum basis, and subsequently, during each annual period when bonds issued to provide for payment of costs of the project not paid by lump sum payments shall be outstanding. Findings of fact made by any urban county council in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be entitled to a presumption of regularity and accuracy when based upon receipt of, and consideration of, factual data and information described in this section.

(6) The ordinance of initiation shall provide that a public hearing shall be held in respect of the proposed project at a time and place which shall be specified in the ordinance of initiation, and shall give notice that at the public hearing any owner of benefited property may appear and be heard as to whether the proposed project should be undertaken, whether the nature and scope of the project should be altered, and whether the project shall be financed through the assessment of benefited properties and issuance of bonds in respect of assessments not paid on a lump sum basis, all as proposed by the ordinance of initiation and as authorized by this Act.

(7) The ordinance of initiation shall be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, and shall designate an individual, who shall be a member of the urban county council or any government officer, to preside at the public hearing. In the absence of a designation in the ordinance of initiation, the mayor of the government shall preside at the public hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the public hearing shall not be deemed irregular or improper if it is in fact presided over and conducted at the designated time and place by any official of the urban county government.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The urban county government shall cause notice of the public hearing ordered to be held by the ordinance of initiation to be afforded to all owners of property proposed to be benefited by the project and to be assessed for the costs thereof. The notice shall be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, and in addition, such reasonable actual notice as is best suited to advise affected benefited property owners shall be given to owners of the benefited property using such methods as shall be determined by ordinance of the urban county government to be the most practicable in the circumstances. The notice shall advise owners of benefited property that a public hearing shall be held in respect of the project and its financing, and that assessments to pay the costs of the project are proposed to be levied against all benefited properties.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The properties to be benefited by construction of a wastewater collection project shall consist of all real properties which are thereby afforded a means of draining wastewater from such properties, whether such real properties consist of unimproved land or contain improvements. Benefited properties shall include all real properties which are directly contiguous and abutting to any proposed sewer, lateral, main, outfall line, transmission line, interceptor, sewer easement to contain a project facility, or other project facility into which sanitary discharge and drainage of wastewater may be accomplished, whether the project sewer facility be constructed by application of the proceeds of the bonds or from funds otherwise made available by the government. Provided, however, the urban county council of the government undertaking a project may adopt reasonable rules and regulations in respect of benefited property, and may exclude real properties which the urban county council deems appropriate for exclusion because of location, size or other special circumstances.

(2) The urban county council of the government may determine, either in the ordinance of initiation or in subsequent proceedings, the necessity and desirability in the interests of the public health, safety and general welfare, that properties other than the benefited properties be permitted to connect to a wastewater collection project in future, and may make equitable provisions which may be adjustable from year to year as bonds are retired, whereby the owners of such later-connecting properties may, by paying charges for the privilege of connecting and by assuming assessment obligations, be placed as nearly as practicable on a basis of financial equity with the owners of property initially provided to be benefited and assessed.

(3) Benefited property owned by any city, county, or urban county government (or owned by the United States of America or any of its agencies, if such property is subject to assessment by Act of Congress), shall be assessed annually the same as private property, and the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid by the city, county, urban county government or united states government, as the case may be.

(4) Benefited property owned by the commonwealth of Kentucky, except property the title to which is vested in the commonwealth for the benefit of a district board of education pursuant to KRS 162.010, shall be assessed as follows: Before assessing the commonwealth, the urban county council shall serve written notice on the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration of the commonwealth, setting forth specific details, including the estimated aggregate total amount of any improvement benefit assessment proposed to be levied against any property of the commonwealth relative to the project. Said written notice shall be served prior to the next regular session of the general assembly of Kentucky so that the amount of any specific improvement assessment may be included in the biennial budget report to be submitted to the general assembly. Payment of any assessment shall be made only from funds specifically appropriated for that assessment. If an amount sufficient to pay the total amount of an assessment has been appropriated, then the total amount shall be paid, as and when due. If an amount sufficient only to pay annual assessment has been appropriated, then only the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid. The amount of the assessment shall be certified by the commissioner of finance of the urban county government to the department for finance and administration, which shall thereupon draw a warrant upon the state treasurer payable to the government and the state treasurer shall pay the same.

(5) In the case of property the title to which is vested in the commonwealth for the benefit of a district board of education, the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid by the city, county, urban county government or other local governmental agency or authority which represents the taxing authority of such board of education.

(6) No benefited property shall be exempt from assessment, except as herein provided.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A public hearing shall be held at the time and place designated in the ordinance of initiation. Any person qualifying under the provisions of Section 5 of this Act shall preside and conduct the hearing. The presiding officer shall cause reasonable notes or minutes of the proceedings to be made, and they shall be submitted in writing to a subsequent regularly scheduled meeting of the urban county council of the government. Any owner of property proposed to be benefited by the proposed wastewater collection project may appear and be heard at the public hearing, either in person or by a duly authorized representative. Any such owner of benefited property may submit to the presiding officer or to the designated clerk a written instrument in which such owner of benefited property is identified by name, address and designation of benefited property, and containing a statement of any reason for advocating or objecting to any of the aspects of the proposed project, and such written instruments shall be attached to and included in the written report of the hearing. Whether or not any such written instruments are submitted, the presiding officer at the public hearing may require those in attendance to execute an attendance roster, to properly identify themselves as owners of benefited property or representatives of the owners, and may impose reasonable rules upon the conduct of the public hearing. The estimated costs of the project shall be disclosed at the public hearing, or, if construction bids for construction of the project have been received, the results of the bidding shall be disclosed. A report of local health agencies may be made a part of the public hearing, and the government may cause distribution of informative materials and summarizations of engineering and health reports to be carried out at the public hearing. The public hearing may be adjourned to convene again, and from time to time either at a time and place announced at the public hearing or upon public notice of the time and place to be given in any manner the government may determine.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

At a subsequent regular meeting of the urban county council of the government, the written report of the public hearing shall be publicly received and considered by the urban county council. At the meeting, or any subsequent, properly convened, regular, adjourned or special meeting of the urban county council, prior to enactment of the ordinance of determination, owners of benefited properties may again be heard in person or by representatives. At any subsequent regular meeting, the urban county council, following receipt of facts and data determined by it to be sufficient in the premises regarding the wastewater collection project, including the report of public hearing, data submitted by local health authorities, if any, engineering information and data, statements by owners of benefited properties, and any other data deemed relevant, may adopt an ordinance, designated as the ordinance of determination, with respect to the project which may provide for either: (1) The undertaking of the project with provision for the financing thereof as previously set forth in the ordinance of initiation; (2) the abandonment of the project; or (3) The alteration of the nature and scope of the project, in which event the procedure for ordinance of initiation and public hearing shall be repeated pursuant to the provisions of this Act. The ordinance of determination shall be published as provided by KRS Chapter 424.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Any owner of property to be benefited by the wastewater collection project may, within thirty (30) days after passage and publication of the ordinance of determination:

(a) File an action in the circuit court of the county in which the urban county government is situated seeking relief by declaratory judgment, injunction or otherwise; or

(b) File in the office of the clerk of the urban county government a written statement of intent to file such an action endorsed by a licensed attorney at law to the effect that in his opinion his client has a reasonable and legitimate probable cause for such proposed litigation, in which event the time for filing the action shall be extended for fifteen (15) days after the date the statement is filed.

(2) In the event of the occurrence of either (a) or (b) above, all proceedings of the government with respect to the proposed wastewater collection project shall be abated until final judicial determination of the controversies presented thereby. In the absence of action by any owner of property proposed to be benefited as herein provided, the provisions of the ordinance of determination shall be final and binding. After the lapse of time as herein provided, all actions by owners of properties to be benefited shall be forever barred.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If the ordinance of determination authorizes the undertaking of the project and the financing thereof according to the plan of financing enacted by the ordinance of initiation, and if owners of benefited properties do not institute action as permitted by Section 10 of this Act, or if such action be taken and shall result in final judgment permitting the government to proceed according to the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination, the urban county council of the government may proceed to implement and finance the costs of construction of the project as authorized by this Act.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Proposals for the construction of the project shall be solicited upon the basis of submission of sealed, competitive bids after advertisement by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, following adoption of the ordinance of determination and expiration of the permissive litigation period, or alternatively, the conclusion of litigation in a manner favorable to the project.

(2) After all costs of the project have been determined upon the basis of the construction bidding, the costs shall be apportioned among the owners of benefited property pursuant to the method of assessment previously determined in the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination. However, in determining the apportionment of individual costs for purposes of affording to the owners of benefited property the privilege of paying the assessment levies in full on a lump sum basis, the urban county government shall exclude amounts required for the creation of the debt service reserve fund, capitalized interest costs, and any bond discount which the government may allow in connection with the sale of bonds to provide funds for the costs of construction not paid initially by the owners of benefited properties on a lump sum basis.

(3) The owners of benefited property shall be notified in writing of the exact amount levied against their individual properties, which amount may, at the option of each owner, be paid in full on a lump sum basis within thirty (30) days. Such owners shall be notified that in the event the costs of construction of the project exceed lump sum payments and bond proceeds, an additional apportionment of costs will be made and that all owners who paid the initial improvement benefit assessment on a lump sum basis must likewise pay the additional assessment on the same basis. The statement submitted to such owners of benefited property shall additionally advise such owners that in the event such owners do not elect to pay the special improvement benefit assessment in full within the period of thirty (30) days from receipt, the urban county government shall issue bonds pursuant to this Act for the purpose of providing the cost of construction of the project, including the debt service reserve fund, if paid from bond proceeds, capitalized interest costs, any bond discount, together with all other costs, as the term is defined in this Act. The owners of the benefited property shall further be advised that bonds and the interest thereon shall be amortized by annual improvement benefit assessment levies against all benefited properties which have not made lump sum payments in accordance with the method of apportionment provided by the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination.

(4) At the conclusion of the thirty (30) day permissive lump sum payment period, the urban county council shall determine the aggregate principal amount of improvement benefit assessments paid in full by owners of benefited property; shall order the deposit of the monies in a trust account which shall be used solely to pay the costs of construction of the project; shall aggregate all unpaid improvement benefit assessments for purposes of determining the principal amount of bonds to be issued by the government to provide the costs of the project; shall compute the debt service reserve fund in respect to the bonds, if the fund is to be capitalized from bond proceeds; shall determine the bond discount and capitalized interest which shall be applicable to the issue of bonds; and shall proceed to complete the financing of the costs of construction of the project through the adoption of the ordinance of bond authorization as provided in Section 13 of this Act and the sale of bonds authorized pursuant thereto. Provided, however, that the ordinance of bond authorization may, as provided in Section 14 of this Act, provide that, in lieu of issuing bonds, the government may contract with the Kentucky pollution abatement authority for the financing of the project, in which latter event all procedures with respect to the annual assessment of benefited properties shall continue in full force and effect, but the urban county government shall secure funding for the project through the Kentucky pollution abatement authority in lieu of issuing bonds and shall pledge to and pay to the authority the annual improvement benefit assessment levies and enforce them for the security of the financing.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Following compliance with the foregoing provisions of this Act, the urban county council of the government may adopt an ordinance known as the ordinance of bond authorization. The ordinance of bond authorization shall make provision, for the following:

(a) Determining and confirming the nature and scope of the project, the real properties to be benefited thereby (which shall be all benefited properties identified in the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination, excepting properties as to which lump sum payment of improvement benefit assessment levies has been made within the statutory period), the exact method of assessment of benefited properties and the costs of the projects;

(b) Authorizing the issuance of bonds of the government from time to time which shall be designated "improvement lien bonds" and which shall additionally identify the project by reference to its name or title;

(c) Determining th principal amount of the bond issue, subject to the provisions of Section 21 of this Act;

(d) Establishing the denomination and maturity dates of the bonds, which may be term or serial maturities not to exceed thirty (30) years from date of issue, and providing for the issuance of the bonds in series, if so ordered, each such series to be equally secured on a pari passus basis by improvement benefit assessments levied on all benefited properties and by liens in respect thereto;

(e) Levying an annual improvement benefit assessment effective upon the benefited properties pursuant to the assessed value basis according to either their respective assessed land values as determined for purposes of general ad valorem taxation, or upon a basis of equality by zones, pursuant to findings of fact by the urban county council that benefited properties in particular zone classifications are to be treated equally for assessment purposes because of substantial equality of benefits conferred, such assessments to be made without regard to any constitutional or other limits otherwise applicable to taxation for general ad valorem purposes, the annual rate of such improvement assessment to be fixed when regular county ad valorem taxes are levied and to be sufficient in each year to provide for the payment of the bonds and interest coupons as they mature; and, in each year until accrual of the debt service reserve requirement, to be sufficient to provide in addition a sum equal to twenty percent (20%) of maximum annual principal and interest requirements, the same to constitute a debt service reserve fund as a precaution against possible default by reason of failures in the collection of the annual levies as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that in the event the government shall have provided that the debt service reserve requirement be financed from bond proceeds as one of the cost of the project, such additional levies to accrue, the debt service reserve requirement shall be omitted, but it shall be promptly instituted at any time in order to maintain the debt service reserve requirement at its prescribed level;

(f) Covenanting with the holders of the bonds and coupons that until the payment in full thereof the government will levy annually an improvement benefit assessment upon each benefited property, as provided in the foregoing subsection (e) hereof; provided, that the government may provide by ordinance that certain benefited properties shall be omitted from assessment during initial periods not to exceed three (3) years because of construction scheduling;

(g) Covenanting with the holders of the bonds and coupons that until payment in full thereof, the government will pursue and exhaust at the expense of the government all remedies available to the government for the benefit and protection of the bondholders, including both termination of water service to delinquent real properties and enforcement of judgment and decretal sale of the liens upon benefited properties which are granted by this Act;

(h) Designating one or more places of payment of principal and interest within or without the commonwealth;

(i) Specifying or omitting provisions for redemption and payment prior to stated maturities and the terms thereof;

(j) Providing for the payment by the government of any and all reasonable and customary charges for the services of trustees and paying agents to the end that the holders of the bonds and coupons will receive the sums therein stipulated without deduction for such charges; and

(k) Any other provisions not contrary to law. The government is expressly authorized and empowered to finance any particular project by an issue of bonds which may be sold and delivered in one or more series, each of which series is equally and indistinguishably secured, as provided in this Act, by improvement benefit assessments levied upon all benefited properties, and liens granted for the security of bondholders by this Act on benefited properties shall apply to each benefited property and in favor of every bond of each such series, whenever issued.

(2) In the discretion of the urban county council of the government, any improvement lien bonds or bond anticipation notes issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the government and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the commonwealth of Kentucky. The trust indenture of the government providing for the issuance of improvement lien bonds or notes may pledge or assign for the security of improvement lien bonds or notes all or any part of the totality of improvement benefit assessments levied, collected, enforced and received by the government. The trust indenture shall contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable, proper and not in violation of law, including covenants and provisions setting forth the duties of the government in relation to the purposes to which improvement lien bond proceeds may be applied; the disposition and pledging of receipts of improvement benefit assessments; and the custody, safeguarding and application of all improvement benefit assessment revenues. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds, notes or of government revenues, to furnish indemnity bonds or to pledge securities as may be required by the trust indenture of the government. Any trust indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the indenture trustee and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders. In addition to the foregoing, any trust indenture may contain any other provisions as the government may determine to be reasonable and proper for the further security of the holders of the bonds. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the trust indenture shall be treated as a part of the costs of the project and shall be paid from either the proceeds of the bonds or, during the life of the bond issue, from the proceeds of improvement benefit assessments levied against and collected from, benefited properties.

(3) All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall have and are hereby declared to possess all of the qualities and incidences of negotiable instruments under the laws of Kentucky. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or in both, as the government may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal only and also as to both principal and interest and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. The government may sell the bonds in any manner either at public or private sale, and for any price as it may determine will best effect the purposes of this Act.

(4) Any government initiating a project pursuant to this Act shall have and possess all powers and the authority set forth in KRS 58.150.

SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Following enactment of the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination, any urban county government may enter into an assistance agreement with the Kentucky pollution abatement authority pursuant to the authority of KRS Chapter 224A for the purpose of financing the costs of construction of a project pursuant to this Act. The Kentucky pollution abatement authority is hereby authorized to enter into an assistance agreement with any urban county government for the purpose of providing, by the issuance of securities of the Kentucky pollution abatement authority, the costs of construction of any project instituted by any such government. Any such assistance agreement shall conform to the provisions of KRS Chapter 224A, except that repayment of a state grant made by the Kentucky pollution abatement authority to any urban county government for any project shall be made from the proceeds of annual improvement benefit assessments levied against benefited properties by the urban county government and remitted to the Kentucky pollution abatement authority as received, pursuant to KRS 224A. Provisions otherwise contained in this Act for accrual of the debt service reserve requirement may be omitted if a comparable reserve is required funded by the Kentucky pollution abatement authority which must be repaid by any government contracting with the authority from assessment levies made against benefited properties.

(2) Any urban county government may elect, following the completion of the preliminary procedures set forth in this Act, in lieu of issuing bonds, to finance the costs of construction of a project not paid by payment of assessment levies on a lump sum basis pursuant to an assistance agreement with the Kentucky pollution abatement authority and pursuant to authority of KRS Chapter 224A, in which event the ordinance of bond authorization provided for in Section 13 of this Act shall provide for the obtaining of financing from the Kentucky pollution abatement authority in lieu of issuance of bonds, and all provisions of the ordinance of bond authorization relating to assessment of benefited properties for amortization of the costs of construction of the project shall relate to assessment of benefited properties for compliance with repayment provisions of the assistance agreement between the government and the Kentucky pollution abatement authority. In the event of such financing, proceeds secured from the Kentucky pollution abatement authority for construction of the project shall be treated, as provided in KRS Chapter 224A, and upon effectuation of the financing, all lump sum improvement benefit assessment payments shall be paid over to the Kentucky pollution abatement authority or its designee for application to the payment of costs of construction of the project. All security and enforcement provisions of this Act shall apply in full to financing pursuant to either issuance of bonds or through the Kentucky pollution abatement authority.

When any bonds are delivered and the proceeds are received by the government, they shall be deposited in a bank or trust company or combined bank and trust company, and to the extent the deposit may exceed insurance provided by federal deposit insurance corporation, the same shall be secured by a valid pledge of direct bonds or notes of the United States government or bonds or notes fully guaranteed thereby having at all times a market value equal to the undisbursed balance of such deposit; or shall be secured in any other manner as the urban county council may approve. Costs of the project shall be paid from the proceeds of the bonds pursuant to such regulations and requirements as shall be determined by the government and incorporated into the ordinance of bond authorization. There shall be set aside into the sinking fund hereinafter created a sum from bond proceeds equal to all interest which will accrue on the bonds until the date when the first improvement benefit assessment levied in connection therewith will become due and payable, together with such further sum as may be provided in the ordinance of bond authorization, not to exceed, interest on the bonds for a period of three (3) years. If provided in the ordinance of bond authorization, all or any portion of the debt service reserve requirement shall be set aside into the debt service reserve fund. If after completion, acceptance and payment of the work of all contractors and the payment of all costs of the project there shall remain an unexpended balance of bond proceeds, the balance shall be transferred to the sinking fund created and maintained in connection with the project as provided by this Act.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Each of the bonds shall bear on its face the statement that it has been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the government within the meaning of the constitution of Kentucky. The bonds and the receipt of interest thereon shall not be subject to taxation. The bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable solely and only from the proceeds of the annual improvement benefit assessments levied by the government from time to time upon the properties benefited by the project identified in the bonds and from the debt service reserve fund; the government shall become directly and personally liable to the bondholders for any deficiencies which may arise as a direct result of failure by the government to pursue to exhaustion and in timely fashion all remedies lawfully available in the collection of such improvement assessments.

SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The sum necessary to be raised annually for the sinking fund and consequent amortization of the outstanding bonds, whether all authorized bonds have been issued or not (together with the sum of any amounts required annually to pay trustees' fees, paying agents' fees, cost of administration of the project, and the cost of billing, collecting and enforcing improvement benefit assessments, including fees of proper governmental bodies incident to placing assessment bills on tax statements, and collecting, enforcing and remitting same), shall be levied and assessed from time to time against the benefited properties pursuant to the prior determinations made by the government in respect of benefits received. If the urban county council of the government has determined that all benefited properties within classified zones are substantially equally benefited and that all therein shall be assessed equally, the same assessment levy shall be made against each benefited property within a classified zone. In other cases, if any, the sum necessary to be raised annually for amortization of the bonds shall be levied and assessed against the benefited properties in the proportion that the assessed value of each individual lot, parcel or tract for urban county government ad valorem taxation shall bear to the whole assessed value of all the benefited properties as shown by the records upon which urban county government ad valorem taxation may from time to time be based. Where there is no such record, as in the case of public property or property owned by religious, charitable or educational institutions, the same (except that owned by the United States government) shall be specially assessed by the proper assessing officers and for such special assessment reasonable compensation shall be paid. Any such special assessment shall be subject to all procedures for equalization and judicial review as may be provided by law in connection with ordinary assessments.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The annual improvement benefit assessment for the project shall be levied by the government against benefited properties when the levy for general urban county government taxes is made; and such improvement benefit assessment levy shall be due at the same time when general urban county government taxes are due and shall be subject to the same penalties and accrual of interest in the event of nonpayment as in the case of the general urban county government taxes. Improvement benefit assessments shall be collected by the urban county government officers charged with responsibility for the collection of ad valorem taxes and shall be enforced in like manner.

SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Each annual improvement assessment, with any penalty or interest incident to the nonpayment thereof, shall constitute a lien upon the lot or parcel of benefited property against which it is assessed. The lien shall attach to each lot or parcel of benefited property as the same is described by the owner's deed of record in the county court clerk's office at the time of the publication of the ordinance of initiation, as provided, and thereupon shall take precedence over all other liens, whether created prior to or subsequent to the publication of the ordinance, except state and county taxes, general municipal taxes, and prior improvement assessments and shall not be defeated or postponed by any private or judicial sales, by any mortgage, or by any error or mistake in the description of the property or in the names of the owners. No error in the proceedings of the urban county council shall exempt any benefited property from the lien for the improvement assessment, or from the payment thereof, or from the penalties or interest thereon, as herein provided. No error in the proceedings of the urban county council shall exempt any property from liability for payment of any annual improvement assessment, or for any interest or penalty incident to nonpayment thereof. The urban county council of the government shall have power to make such rules and orders as may be required to properly administer the project.

SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The proceeds received by the government from each annual improvement assessment levy made in connection with the project, as authorized by this Act, shall be segregated from and kept always separate and apart from all other receipts of the government from all other sources, and shall be deposited in a separate and special account in a financial institution in an account so specially designated by number or other designation as to identify it in such manner as to distinguish the receipts and deposits from the project from the receipts and deposits from every other project, and from any other account or fund of the government. It shall constitute the "sinking fund" referred to in this Act.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF KRS SECTION 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

All sums received and deposited in the sinking fund shall be held inviolate and applied by the government, or the trustee in respect of the bonds solely for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds issued for the financing of the identified project. The amount levied, collected and deposited in the sinking fund from initial improvement assessment levies in connection with the project, in excess of maturing principal and interest of the bonds and equal to twenty percent (20%) of maximum annual principal and interest requirements, for the purpose of creating the debt service reserve fund shall be held in the sinking fund as a special reserve for that purpose. Such excess levies shall continue annually until the debt service reserve requirement has been accrued in the debt service reserve fund in respect of all outstanding bonds; provided that the debt service reserve requirement may be funded from the proceeds of the bonds. If, at the time of any annual levy of the improvement assessment, the sum held in the sinking fund as debt service reserve fund shall exceed the debt service reserve requirement, such excess may be taken into account in fixing the rate of the improvement benefit assessment for the ensuing year; and if the amount so held in the debt service reserve fund is below the specified level, the next annual improvement assessment levy shall be increased in a corresponding manner so as to accrue the debt service reserve requirement. In making the improvement assessment levy for the year preceding the final maturity of bonds for any project, the urban county council may take into account, and make allowance for the amount held in the sinking fund of the project as the debt service reserve fund; and if in making the levy the urban county council shall miscalculate and provide funds insufficient to pay the final maturing principal and interest, the governing body shall be authorized to, and shall be required, to make a subsequent improvement assessment levy upon the benefited properties sufficient to make up the deficiency, with interest to date of payment. If the procedures required by this Act shall result in a surplus after payment and discharge of the bonds, and all interest thereon to date of payment, such surplus shall be refunded, pro rata, to the owners of benefited properties, as determined at the date the surplus is ascertained by the governing body to exist.

SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If, by reason of miscalculation or the happening of unforeseen events or conditions, the proceeds of the bonds authorized by the ordinance of bond authorization should prove to be insufficient to provide for the completion of the project and the payment in full of all costs thereof, the government shall be authorized to levy pro rata an additional assessment on owners of benefited properties who have elected to make lump sum payment in full, and issue and sell additional bonds, sufficient in the aggregate to make up the deficiency, and the additional bonds shall rank on a parity as to security and source of payment with the bonds originally authorized.

SECTION 23. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In the interests of the health, safety and welfare of the general public and for the protection of the public health, the government is authorized and empowered, by ordinance, to mandatorily require the owners of all benefited properties to cause any improvements capable of the generation of wastewater situated on such benefited properties to be connected to the facilities of the wastewater collection project. Urban county governments are authorized and empowered to covenant with the holders of bonds to order mandatory connection of all improved premises situated upon benefited properties to the facilities of a project financed pursuant to this Act.

SECTION 24. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Any urban county government which has initiated a wastewater collection project under the provisions of this Act may enforce any ordinance enacted by such government requiring mandatory connection of improvements situated on benefited properties to project facilities and may enforce payment of annual improvement benefit assessments levied in respect of such project and enforcement of rules and regulations respecting such project by directing the company, person, agency or governmental unit providing water services to any such benefited property to discontinue and terminate water services until the time as such mandatory connection is carried out; such improvement benefits, and penalties in respect thereto, are duly paid; and such regulations and rules shall have been duly complied with and any default thereunder shall have been cured. However, no urban county government may direct discontinuance of water service to any benefited property until written notice is given to the owner of such benefited property and to the occupant of such benefited property advising that water service will be discontinued thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice, in the event the default by owner of occupant giving rise to the right of water termination is not corrected during such thirty (30) day period.

(2) Water suppliers shall be entitled to levy and collect from owners and occupants of such benefited properties a reasonable fee for termination and discontinuance and for reinstitution of water services.

(3) It shall be lawful for urban county governments initiating wastewater collection projects to covenant and agree with the holders of bonds that such government shall enforce collection of assessments, mandatory connection of property to project facilities and compliance with proper rules and regulations by requiring termination of water services as in this section provided.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, urban county governments initiating projects pursuant to this Act shall have and possess all powers and rights granted to cities and sewer bodies by KRS 96.930 to KRS 96.943, inclusive.

SECTION 25. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The provisions of this Act are severable, and if any provision of this Act, or the application of any such provision under certain circumstances, shall be held to be invalid, the invalidity of such provision shall not affect any other provision of this Act, or the application thereof under different circumstances.

By the adoption of this Act, the general assembly is taking action which is necessary and essential in the interests of the preservation of the health, safety and welfare of the state and its inhabitants. This Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof as set forth in this Act.

SECTION 27. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 67A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If an urban county government has taken any steps under this Act to provide for, construct or finance any project, and for any reason the project cannot be completed according to the provisions of this Act, the government shall return all improvement benefit assessments paid in full by owners of benefited property on a lump sum basis to the owners thereof. Any interest earned on such prepayments shall be applied by the government to the payment of any costs resulting from effort to carry out the project, and any remainder shall be returned, pro rata, to such owners of benefited property. Thereafter, such urban county government may proceed to finance and construct the project in any other manner authorized by law.

Section 28. Whereas, the continued incidence of water pollution and the lack of proper wastewater collection facilities is causing irreparable harm and damage and is impeding the efforts of urban county governments to provide proper sanitary sewer facilities, and because of the health hazards created by such situation, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act shall become effective upon its passage and approval by the Governor.

HB 812, AN ACT relating to the merger of police and fire departments in cities of the fourth and fifth class.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 95 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The legislative body of any city of the fourth or fifth class may unify and merge all or any portion of the duties and responsibilities of the police department and the fire department and their officers into a single department. HR 84, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION relating to annexation in counties containing both a city of the second and third class.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky during the 1968 session approved and classified the city of Edgewood, Kentucky as a fourth class city by House Bill 13, Chapter 5, Kentucky Acts, effective June 13, 1968, (KRS 81.010); and

WHEREAS, the City of Covington, Kentucky, a municipal corporation, created by the state is presently engaged in suits attempting to annex a large portion of the territory comprising the City of Edgewood, Kentucky in consolidated cases number 9921, 9922, 9929 and 9949 in the Kenton Circuit Court, Twelfth Division, Sixteenth Judicial District of Kentucky; and

WHEREAS, if Covington were to prevail in these suits the purposes and intent of the legislature in classifying Edgewood, Kentucky as a fourth class city would be frustrated in that Edgewood would no longer have sufficient population to be a fourth class city.

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. That in declaring Edgewood to be a city of the fourth class the legislature conclusively found all of the territory comprising the present city of Edgewood to be a part thereof and that this finding is binding upon the courts of this state and that classification by the legislature precludes the city of Covington from maintaining its present suits and that in any county containing both a second and a third class city no city shall annex or attempt to annex or maintain any legal action to annex any part of another city that the legislature has used in classifying the city of which a part is being attempted to be annexed.

No change may be made in division boundary lines more frequently than five (5) years after the last change in any division lines, except in case of merger of districts a change in territory due to annexation. In counties containing a city of the first class wherein a merger pursuant to KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished, there shall be seven (7) divisions. If any motor vehicle within the first twelve (12) months or first twelve thousand (12,000) miles after delivery to the owner, whichever occurs first, has a defect as defined in subsection (6) of Section 1 of this Act, it shall be presumed to be non-merchantable.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The presumption of non-merchantability of a motor vehicle as provided in Section 2 of this Act may be rebutted by evidence that the defect in the motor vehicle was caused by the owner or operator other than the manufacturer, the dealer, or their agents, by an accident or by some act or condition beyond the control of the manufacturer or the dealer.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The owner of a motor vehicle shall give the manufacturer notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, with a copy to the dealer from whom the motor vehicle was purchased, within ten (10) days following establishment of the conditions recited in Section 2 of this Act containing an accurate description of the condition or conditions that render the motor vehicle non-merchantable and the owner's decision to exercise the rights provided by Section 7 of this Act.

If the manufacturer notifies the owner that the defect can be repaired or replaced and that the motor vehicle can be restored to a merchantable condition pursuant to Section 5 of this Act, the owner must deliver the motor vehicle to the manufacturer's nearest authorized dealer within three (3) days after such notification, and if the defect which rendered the motor vehicle non-merchantable remains following such repair by the manufacturer, the owner shall have the remedies provided in Section 7, subsection (1), of this Act.

Section 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In the case of a non-merchantable motor vehicle, the manufacturer shall at its option refund the purchase price paid by the owner or shall transfer ownership of a new motor vehicle of the same make and model to the owner and deliver same to the dealer nearest the owner's residence.

SB 329, AN ACT relating to residential housing.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 198A.020 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky hereby finds and determines that in order to comply with technical income tax rules and regulations proposed to be adopted by the department of the treasury, internal revenue service, with regard to the issuance of securities by states and political subdivisions thereof, it is appropriate and proper that the Kentucky housing corporation's status as a de jure political subdivision of the commonwealth of Kentucky be confirmed by adoption of appropriate clarifying amendments to the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Section 2. KRS 198A.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that as a result of the spread of slum conditions and blight to formerly sound urban and rural neighborhoods and as a result of actions involving highways, public facilities and urban renewal activities there exists in the commonwealth of Kentucky a serious shortage of decent, safe and sanitary residential housing available at low prices or rentals to persons and families of lower income. This shortage is severe in certain urban areas of the state, is especially critical in the rural areas, and is inimical to the health, safety, welfare and prosperity of all residents of the state and to the sound growth of Kentucky communities.

(2) The general assembly hereby finds and declares further that private enterprise and investment have not been able to produce, without assistance, the needed construction of decent, safe and sanitary residential housing at low prices or rentals which persons and families of lower income can afford, or to achieve the urgently needed rehabilitation of much of the present lower income housing. It is imperative that the supply of residential housing for persons and families of lower income affected by the spread of slum conditions and blight and for persons and families of lower income displaced by public actions or natural disaster be increased; and that private enterprise and investment be encouraged to sponsor, build and rehabilitate residential housing for such persons and families, to help prevent the recurrence of slum conditions and blight and assist in their permanent elimination throughout Kentucky.

(3) The general assembly hereby finds and declares further that the purposes of this chapter are to provide financing for development costs, land development and residential housing construction, new or rehabilitated, for sale or rental to persons and families of lower income.

(4) The general assembly hereby finds and declares further that in accomplishing this purpose, the Kentucky housing corporation shall be and constitute a de jure municipal corporation and political subdivision of the commonwealth of Kentucky created for the performance of essential public functions and the serving of public purposes in improving and promoting the health, welfare and prosperity of the people of the commonwealth of Kentucky by the production of residential housing [, a public agency and an instrumentality of the commonwealth is acting in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state in the performance of essential public functions and serves a public purpose in improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare and prosperity, and that the Kentucky housing corporation is empowered to act on behalf of the commonwealth of Kentucky and its people in serving this public purpose for the benefit of the general public].

Section 3. KRS 198A.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created and established an independent, de jure municipal corporation and political subdivision of the commonwealth of Kentucky which shall be a public body corporate and politic to be known as the Kentucky housing corporation [There is hereby created and established as a governmental instrumentality of the commonwealth, to be independent of the executive branch, a public body corporate to be known as the Kentucky housing corporation].

(2) The Kentucky housing corporation is created and established as a de jure municipal corporation and political subdivision of the commonwealth of Kentucky to perform essential governmental and public functions and purposes in improving and otherwise promoting the health and general welfare of the people by the production of residential housing in Kentucky [The housing corporation is created and established to serve a public purpose and to act for the public benefit and as a governmental instrumentality of the commonwealth to act on behalf of the commonwealth and its people in improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare and prosperity].

(3) The housing corporation shall be governed by a board of directors, consisting of eleven (11) members, four (4) of whom shall be the commissioner of the executive department for finance and administration, the director of the office for local government, the commissioner of revenue, and the commissioner of commerce, or their duly appointed designees, as public directors, and seven (7) of whom shall be chosen from the general public residing in the commonwealth, as private directors.

(4) Upon organization of the housing corporation, the governor shall appoint the eight (8) private directors to take office and to exercise all powers thereof immediately. Of the eight (8) members of the corporation thus appointed, two shall continue in office for terms of one year, and two for terms of two, three and four years respectively as the governor shall designate; at the expiration of said terms and for all succeeding terms, the governor shall appoint a successor to the office of private director for a term of four years in each case.

(5) In case of a vacancy, the governor may appoint a person for such a vacancy to hold office during the remainder of the term.

(6) The governor may remove any private director whom he may appoint in case of incompetency, neglect of duty, gross immorality, or malfeasance in office; and he may declare his office vacant and may appoint a person for such vacancy as provided in other cases of vacancy.

(7) The governor shall designate a member of the corporation to serve as chairman. The term of the chairman shall extend to the earlier of either the date of expiration of his then current term as a member of the corporation or a date six months after the expiration of the then current term of the governor designating such chairman.

(8) The corporation shall annually elect one of its members as vice chairman. HB 741, AN ACT relating to motor vehicle insurance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 304.39-020 is amended to read as follows:

As used in this subtitle:

(1) "Added reparation benefits" mean benefits provided by optional added reparation insurance.

(2) "Basic reparation benefits" mean benefits providing reimbursement for net loss suffered through injury arising out of the operation, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle, subject, where applicable, to the limits, deductibles, exclusions, disqualifications and other conditions provided in this subtitle. The maximum amount of basic reparation benefits payable for all economic loss resulting from injury to any one person as the result of one (1) accident shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000), regardless of the number of persons entitled to such benefits or the number of providers of security obligated to pay such benefits. Basic reparation benefits consist of one (1) or more of the elements defined as "loss."

(3) "Basic reparation insured" means:

(a) A person identified by name as an insured in a contract of basic reparation insurance complying with this subtitle; and

(b) While residing in the same household with a named insured, the following persons not identified by name as an insured in any other contract of basic reparation insurance complying with this subtitle: a spouse or other relative of a named insured; and a minor in the custody of a named insured or of a relative residing in the same household with the named insured if he usually makes his home in the same family unit, even though he temporarily lives elsewhere.

(4) "Injury" and "injury to person" mean bodily harm, sickness, disease, or death.

(5) "Loss" means accrued economic loss consisting only of medical expense, work loss, replacement services loss, and, if injury causes death, survivor's economic loss and survivor's replacement services loss. Noneconomic detriment is not loss. However, economic loss is loss although caused by pain and suffering or physical impairment.

(a) "Medical expense" means reasonable charges incurred for reasonably needed products, services, and accommodations, including those for medical care, physical rehabilitation, rehabilitative occupational training, and other remedial treatment and care. "Medical expense" may include non-medical remedial treatment rendered in accordance with a recognized religious method of healing. The term includes a total charge not in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per person for expenses in any way related to funeral, cremation, and burial. It does not include that portion of a charge for a room in a hospital, clinic, convalescent or nursing home, or any other institution engaged in providing nursing care and related services, in excess of a reasonable and customary charge for semi-private accommodations, unless intensive care is medically required. Medical expense shall include all healing arts professions licensed by the Commonwealth of Kentucky. There shall be a presumption that any medical bill submitted is reasonable.

(b) "Work loss" means loss of income from work the injured person would probably have performed if he had not been injured, and expenses reasonably incurred by him in obtaining services in lieu of those he would have performed for income, reduced by any income from substitute work actually performed by him;

(c) "Replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the injured person would have performed, not for income but for the benefit of himself or his family, if he had not been injured.

(d) "Survivor's economic loss" means loss after decedent's death of contributions of things of economic value to his survivors, not including services they would have received from the decedent if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of decedent's death.

(e) "Survivor's replacement services loss" means expenses reasonably incurred by survivors after decedent's death in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the decedent would have performed for their benefit if he had not suffered the fatal injury, less expenses of the survivors avoided by reason of the decedent's death and not subtracted in calculating survivor's economic loss.

(6) "Use of a motor vehicle" means any utilization of the motor vehicle as a vehicle including occupying, entering into and alighting from it. It does not include (i) conduct within the course of a business of repairing, servicing, or otherwise maintaining motor vehicles unless the conduct occurs off the business premises, or (ii) conduct in the course of loading and unloading the vehicle unless the conduct occurs while occupying, entering into, or alighting from it.

(7) "Motor vehicle" means any vehicle which transports persons or property upon the public highways of the commonwealth, propolled by other than muscular power except road rollers, road graders, farm tractors, vehicles on which power shovels are mounted, such other construction equipment customarily used only on the site of construction and which is not practical for the transportation of persons or property upon the highways, such vehicles as travel exclusively upon rails and such vehicles as are propelled by electrical power obtained from overhead wires while being operated within any municipality or where said vehicles do not travel more than five miles beyond the said limits of any municipality. [:]

[(a) A vehicle of a kind required to be registered under KRS Chapter 186.]

(8) "Public roadway" means a way open to the use of the public for purposes of motor vehicle travel.

(9) "Net loss" means loss less benefits or advantages, from sources other than basic and added reparation insurance, required to be subtracted from loss in calculating net loss.

(10) "Noneconomic detriment" means pain, suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, and other nonpecuniary damages recoverable under the tort law of this Commonwealth. The term does not include punitive or exemplary damages.

(11) "Owner" means a person, other than a lienholder or secured party, who owns or has title to a motor vehicle or is entitled to the use and possession of a motor vehicle subject to a security interest held by another person. The term does not include a lessee under a lease not intended as security.

(12) "Reparation obligor" means an insurer, self-insurer, or obligated government providing basic or added reparation benefits under this subtitle.

(13) "Survivor" means a person identified in KRS 411.130 as one entitled to receive benefits by reason of the death of another person.

(14) A "user" means a person who is a basic reparation insured or would be a basic reparation insured if such person had not rejected the limitations upon his tort rights as provided in KRS 304.39-060(4).

(15) "Maintaining a motor vehicle" means having legal custody, possession or responsibility for a motor vehicle by one other than an owner or operator.

(16) "Security" means any continuing undertaking complying with this subtitle, for payment of tort liabilities, basic reparation benefits, and all other obligations imposed by this subtitle.

Section 2. KRS 304.39-050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The basic reparation insurance applicable to bodily injury to which this subtitle applies is the security covering the vehicle occupied by the injured person at the time of the accident or, if the injured person is a pedestrian, the security covering the vehicle which struck such pedestrian. If the reparation obligor providing such insurance fails to make payment for loss within thirty (30) days after receipt of reasonable proof of the fact and the amount of loss sustained, the injured person shall be entitled to payment under any contract of basic reparation insurance under which he is a basic reparation insured and the insurer making such payments shall be entitled to full reimbursement from the reparation obligor providing the security covering the vehicle. A pedestrian, as used herein, means any person who is not making "use [an operator or user] of a motor vehicle" at the time his injury occurs.

(2) If there is no security covering the vehicle, any contract of basic reparation insurance under which the injured person is a basic reparation insured shall apply.

(3) No person shall recover basic reparation benefits from more than one reparation obligor as a result of the same accident, except as provided in KRS 304.39-140(4) nor in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) as the result of the same accident.

Section 3. KRS 304.39-060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who registers, operates, maintains or uses a motor vehicle on the public roadways of this Commonwealth shall, as a condition of such registration, operation, maintenance or use of such motor vehicle and use of the public roadways, be deemed to have accepted the provisions of this subtitle, and in particular those provisions which are contained in this section.

(2) (a) Tort liability with respect to accidents occuring in this Commonwealth and arising from the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle is "abolished" for damages because of bodily injury, sickness or disease to the extent the basic reparation benefits provided in this subtitle are payable therefor, or that would be payable but for any deductible authorized by this subtitle, under any insurance policy or other method of security complying with the requirements of this subtitle [, except to the extent non-economic detriment qualifies under subsection (2)(b) hereof].

(b) In any action of tort brought against the owner, registrant, operator or occupant of a motor vehicle with respect to which security has been provided as required in this subtitle, or against any person or organization legally responsible for his acts or omissions, a plaintiff may recover damages in tort [for pain, suffering, mental anguish and inconvenience] because of bodily injury, sickness or disease arising out of the ownership, maintenance, operation or use of such motor vehicle only in the event that the benefits which are payable for such injury as "medical expense" or which would be payable but for any exclusion or deductible authorized by this subtitle exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or the injury or disease consists in whole or in part of permanent disfigurement, a fracture to a weight-bearing bone, a compound, comminuted, displaced or compressed fracture, loss of a body member, permanent injury within reasonable medical probability, permanent loss of bodily function or death. Any person who is entitled to receive free medical and surgical benefits shall be deemed in compliance with the requirements of this subsection upon a showing that the medical treatment received has an equivalent value of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) Tort liability is not so limited for injury to a person who is not an owner, operator, maintainer or user of a motor vehicle within subsection (1) of this section.

(3) For purposes of this section and the provisions on reparation obligor's rights of reimbursement, subrogation, and indemnity, a person does not intentionally cause harm merely because his act or failure to act is intentional or done with his realization that it creates a grave risk of harm.

(4) Any person may refuse to consent to the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities as contained in this section. Such rejection must be in writing in a form to be prescribed by the department of insurance and must have been executed and filed with the department at a time prior to any motor vehicle accident for which such rejection is to apply. Such rejection form together with a reasonable explanation thereof shall be furnished by the reparation obligor with each policy to each prospective insurance applicant. Such rejection form shall affirmatively state in bold print that acceptance of this form of insurance denies the applicant the right to sue a negligent motorist unless certain requirements contained in the policy of insurance are met. Rejection by a person who is under legal disability shall be made on behalf of such person by his legal guardian, committee or his natural parent. The failure of such guardian, committee or a natural parent of a person under legal disability to file a rejection, within six (6) months from the date that this subtitle would otherwise become applicable to such person, shall not be deemed to be an affirmative acceptance of all provisions of this subtitle for injury sustained during such six (6) months period. Provided, however, any person who, at the time of an accident, who does not have basic reparation insurance but has not formally rejected such limitations of his tort rights and liabilities and has at such time in effect security equivalent to that required by KRS 304.39-110 shall be deemed to have fully rejected such limitations within meaning of this section for that accident only.

(5) Any rejection must be filed with the department of insurance and shall be for a period of five (5) years from the date of its execution unless revoked in writing. A copy of such rejection or revocation must be filed with each insurance company providing an automobile policy under which the individual is a named insured as defined in the policy.

(6) Every insurance company when issuing an automobile policy to a resident of this Commonwealth must inform the buyer in writing in a form to be prescribed by the insurance commissioner of his right to reject the limitations of his tort rights and liabilities under this subtitle in the manner provided in subsections (4) and (7) of this section.

(7) Any rejection shall result in the full retention by the individual of his tort rights and his tort liabilities. Any person injured by a motor vehicle operator who has such rejection on file may claim his full damages, including nonpecuniary damages, or, if such injured person has not rejected his own tort limitations, he may also claim basic reparation benefits from the appropriate security on the vehicle as established under KRS 304.39-050. If such provider of security is other than the one providing security for the operator who has rejected the limitations, such provider shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured person to the extent of reparation benefits paid against the owner and operator of the vehicle.

(8) No person who has rejected the tort limitations under this section, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section or KRS 304.39-140(5), may collect basic reparation benefits.

(9) Any owner or operator of a motorcycle, as defined in Kentucky Revised Statutes, may file a rejection as described in subsections (4) and (5), which will apply solely to the ownership and operation of a motorcycle but will not apply to injury resulting from the ownership, operation or use of any other type of motor vehicle.

Section 4. KRS 304.39-070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) "Secured person" means the owner, operator or occupant of a secured motor vehicle, and any other person or organization legally responsible for the acts or omissions of such owner, operator or occupant.

(2) A reparation obligor which has paid or may become obligated to pay [basic] reparation benefits shall be subrogated to the extent of its obligations to all of the rights of the person suffering the injury against any person or organization other than a secured person.

(3) A reparation obligor shall have the right to recover [basic] reparation benefits paid to or for the benefit of a person suffering the injury from [the reparation obligor of] a secured person as provided in this subsection. The reparation obligor shall elect to assert its claim (i) by joining as a party in an action that may be commenced by the person suffering the injury, or (ii) to reimbursement, pursuant to KRS 304.39-290 [KRS 304.39-300], sixty (60) days after said claim has been presented to the reparation obligor of secured persons. The right to recover [basic] reparation benefits paid under (ii) shall be limited to those instances established as applicable by the Kentucky Insurance Arbitration Association as provided in KRS 304.39-290 [KRS 304.39-300] .

Section 5. KRS 304.39-090 is amended to read as follows:
An owner of a motor vehicle registered in this Commonwealth who fails to provide or ceases to maintain security as required by the provisions on security may not operate or permit operation of the vehicle in this Commonwealth until security has again been provided as required by this subtitle. All other owners shall provide such security while operating a motor vehicle in this Commonwealth.

Section 6. KRS 304.39-110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The requirement of security [for payment of tort liabilities] is fulfilled by providing:

(a) Liability coverage of not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one person as a result of any one accident, and not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained as a result of any single accident caused by accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle;

(b) Liability coverage of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for all damages arising out of damage to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, as a result of any one accident arising out of ownership, maintenance, use, loading, or unloading, of the secured vehicle;, [and]

(c) That the liability coverages apply to accidents during the contract period in a territorial area not less than the United States of America, its territories and possessions, and Canada*; and*[.]

(2) Subject to the provisions on approval of terms and forms, the requirement of security for payment of tort liabilities may be met by a contract the coverage of which is secondary or excess to other applicable valid and collectible liability insurance. To the extent the secondary or excess coverage applies to liability within the minimum security required by this subtitle it must be subject to conditions consistent with the system of required liability insurance established by this subtitle.

Section 7. KRS 304.39-140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after the effective date of this subtitle, each reparation obligor of the owner of a vehicle required to be registered in this Commonwealth shall, upon the request of a reparation insured, be required to provide added reparation benefits for economic loss in units of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per person subject to the lesser of:

(a) Forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in added reparation benefits; or

(b) The limit of security provided for liability to any one (1) person in excess of the requirements of KRS 304.39-110(1)(a).

(2) Each basic reparation obligor shall be permitted to incorporate in added reparation benefits coverage such terms, conditions and exclusions as may be consistent with premiums charged. The amounts payable under added reparation benefits may be duplicative of benefits received from collateral source benefits, or may provide for reasonable waiting periods, deductibles or coinsurance provision. The added reparation obligor shall be subrogated, subject to KRS 304.39-070 and 304.39-290 [304.39-300], to the injured person's right of recovery against any responsible third party.

(3) If the injured person, or injured persons, is entitled to damages under KRS 304.39-060 from the liability insurer of a second person, a self-insurer or an obligated government, collection of such damages shall have priority over the rights of the subrogee for its reimbursement of [added] reparation benefits paid to or in behalf of such injured person or persons.

(4) Basic reparation insurers shall make available upon request deductibles in the amounts of two hundred fifty dollars ($250), five hundred dollars ($500) and one thousand dollars ($1,000) from all basic reparation benefits otherwise payable, except that if two (2) or more basic reparation insureds to whom the deductible is applicable under the contract of insurance are injured in the same accident, the aggregate amount of the deductible applicable to all of them shall not exceed the specified deductible, which amount where necessary shall be allocated equally among them. Any person who is a basic reparation insured under an insurance policy issued with no deductible or with a deductible of a lesser amount than that under which he receives basic reparation benefits payments, shall be entitled to be paid under such policy the difference between the benefits he is actually paid and the benefits which would have been paid had his benefits been payable under such policy.

(5) Reparation obligors shall make available upon request to those persons who have rejected their tort limitations, in accordance with KRS 304.39-060(4), basic reparation benefits coverage and added reparation benefits.

Section 8. KRS 304.39-160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A person entitled to basic reparation benefits because of injury covered by this subtitle may obtain them through the assigned claims plan established pursuant to the provisions relating thereto and in accordance with the provisions on time for presenting claims under the assigned claims plan if:

(a) Basic reparation insurance is not applicable to the injury for a reason other than those specified in the provisions on converted vehicles and intentional injuries;

(b) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury cannot be identified;

(c) Basic reparation insurance applicable to the injury is inadequate to provide the contracted for benefits because of financial inability of a reparation obligor to fulfill its obligations; or

(d) A claim for basic reparation benefits is rejected by a reparation obligor for a reason other than that the person is not entitled under this subtitle to the basic reparation benefits claimed.

(2) If a claim qualifies for assignment under paragraphs (c) or (d) of subsection (1), the assigned claims bureau or any reparation obligor to whom the claim is assigned is subrogated to all rights of the claimant against any reparation obligor, its successor in interest or substitute, legally obligated to provide basic reparation benefits to the claimant, for basic reparation benefits provided by the assignee.

(3) Except in case of a claim assigned under subsection (1)(d), if a person receives basic reparation benefits through the assigned claims plan, all benefits or advantages he receives or is entitled to receive as a result of the injury, other than by way of succession at death, death benefits from life insurance, or in discharge of familial obligations of support, are subtracted in calculating net loss.

(4) A person who sustains injury while occupying a motor vehicle owned by such person and with respect to which security is required by the provisions on security and who fails to have such security in effect at the time of an accident in this Commonwealth causing such injury, shall not obtain through the assigned claims plan basic reparation benefits, including benefits otherwise due him as a survivor [, unless such person's failure to have such security in effect at the time of such accident was solely occasioned by the failure of the reparation obligor of such person to provide the basic reparation benefits required by this subtitle].

(2) Any motor vehicle owner who is convicted of showing or causing another person to show an investigating officer evidence of insurance as required under KRS 304.39-310, which he knows to represent insurance that is not in force shall be fined not less than $250 nor more than $1,000, or confined in jail for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both; and shall forfeit his certificate of registration and registration plates for his vehicle or vehicles for a period of not less than six months and until he has acquired the required security for his vehicles.

HB 772, AN ACT relating to coin-operated devices.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 528.010 is amended to read as follows:

The following definitions apply in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Advancing gambling activity"— person "advances gambling activity" when, acting other than as a player, he engages in conduct that materially aids any form of gambling activity. Such conduct includes but is not limited to conduct directed toward the establishment of the particular game, contest, scheme, device or activity involved; toward the acquisition or maintenance of premises, paraphernalia, equipment or apparatus therefor; toward the solicitation or inducement of persons to participate therein; toward the actual conduct of the playing phases thereof; toward the arrangement of any of its financial or recording phases or toward any other phase of its operation. A person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with other participants does not otherwise advance gambling activity by performing acts, without remuneration or fee, directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor and supplying equipment used therein.

(2) "Bookmaking" means advancing gambling activity by unlawfully accepting bets upon the outcome of future contingent events from members of the public as a business.

(3) "Gambling" means staking or risking something of value upon the outcome of a contest, game, gaming scheme or gaming device which is based upon an element of chance, in accord with an agreement or understanding that someone will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome.

(4) "Gambling device" means:

(a) Any so-called slot machine or any other machine or mechanical device an essential part of which is a drum or reel with insignia thereon, and which when operated may deliver, as a result of the application of an element of chance, any money or property, or by the operation of which a person may become entitled to receive, as the result of the application of an element of chance, any money or property; or

(b) Any other machine or any mechanical or other device (including but not limited to roulette wheels, gambling tables and similar devices) designed and manufactured primarily for use in connection with gambling and which when operated may deliver, as the result of the application of an element of chance, any money or property, or by the operation of which a person may become entitled to receive, as the result of the application of an element of chance, any money or property.

(c) But, the following are not to be considered gambling devices within this definition:

1. Devices dispensing or selling combination or French pools on licensed, regular racetracks during races on said tracks.

2. Electro-mechanical pinball machines specially designed, constructed, set up and kept to be played for amusement only; provided any such pinball machine shall be made to receive and react to the deposit of one [five or ten cent] coin not to exceed twenty-five cents (25c) and no more during the course of a game; provided the ultimate and only award given directly or indirectly to any player for the attainment of a winning score or combination on any such pinball machine shall be the right to play one or more additional games immediately on the same device at no further cost; provided the maximum number of free games that can be won, registered, or accumulated at one time in operation of any such pinball machine shall not exceed thirty free games; provided any such pinball machine shall be made to discharge accumulated free games only by reactivating the playing mechanism once for each game released; and provided any such pinball machine shall be made and kept with no meter or system to preserve a record of free games played, awarded or discharged. Nonetheless, a pinball machine shall be a gambling device if a person gives or promises to give money, tokens, merchandise, premiums or property of any kind for scores, combinations or free games obtained in playing such pinball machine in which such person has an interest as owner, operator, keeper or otherwise.

(5) "Lottery and gift enterprise" means:

(a) A gambling scheme in which:

1. The players pay or agree to pay something of value for chances, represented and differentiated by numbers or by combinations of numbers or by some other media, one or more of which are to be designated the winning ones; and

2. The winning chances are to be determined by a drawing or by some other method based upon the element of chance; and

3. The holders of the winning chances are to receive something of value.

(b) A gift enterprise or referral sales plan which meets the elements of a lottery listed in subsection (5)(a) is to be considered a lottery under this chapter.

(6) "Mutuel" or "the numbers games" means a form of lottery in which the winning chances or plays are not determined upon the basis of a drawing or other act on the part of persons conducting or connected with the scheme, but upon the basis of the outcome or outcomes of a future contingent event or events otherwise unrelated to the particular scheme.

(7) "Player" means a person who engages in any form of gambling solely as a contestant or bettor, without receiving or becoming entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of the particular gambling activity. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in subsection (2) is not a "player." The status of a "player" shall be a defense to any prosecution under this chapter.

(8) "Profiting from gambling activity"— person "profits from gambling activity" when, other than as a player, he accepts or receives or agrees to accept or receive money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity.

(9) "Something of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise directly or indirectly contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.
